A Great Winter.—This recordbreaking winter continues to hold its own. The thermometer has registered 4° on Tuesday and Wednesday; 12° on Thursday and 22° on Friday. The river is frozen to depth of 12 inches and the young and old folks have enjoyed skating all over it until the snow and sleet put an end to the fun.

Port Deposit residents say the ice is 42 feet thick there and great loss of property is feared when the break comes.

The schedules of nearly all of the Light street steamboat lines are smashed into smithereens and practidally all the steamers touching points on the eastern side of the bay have joined the fleet of tied up vessels. The big down-the-bay steamers are practically adhering to schedules, and those coming in reported nearly all the heavy ice of the early freezes as having gradually settled on the eastern side of the bay, but the channels of the western side are covered with new ice as far down as the Rappahannock river.

At the annual members' meeting of Wesley Chapel, the delegate to the M. P. Conference, Samuel Burgess, was instructed by a unanimous vote, to ask for the return, for the fourth year, of their present Pastor, Rev. J. L. Elderdice.
