CHESTERTOWN, MD. MARCH 19, 1904

THE election of a town commissioner for Chestertown to succeed Mr. Wm B. Coleman will take place Monday, April 25th. It is said that Mr. Coleman desires to succeed himself. It is also reported that a number of citizens and tax-payers interested in better streets and advancement on other lines, have induced Mr. Thos. S. Bordley to become a candidate.

THE following excellent suggestion is from Judge Thos. J. Shallcross: Now while the citizens of Baltimore are clearing up the ruins, why not charter four large barges and run the debris over here and make a few miles of good road The most of the debris is composed of soft brick, which, if put on the roads 9 inches thick, 16 feet wide, 100 tons would make 225 feet in length. Cover this with sand and we'd have a permanent road for some years.

The Chestertown Fathers' attention is called to this suggestion.

Maryland Legislature.

The Jim-Crow bills applying to the whole State and fully explained in this issue, have been signed by the Governor. Mr. Kerbin, father of the bill, cannot get a colored person to cook for him nor to do his washing.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate to abolish party designations on ballots, which is a good idea and should be passed.

A wise bill has been introduced in the House designed to prohibit the delivery, the bringing for the purpose of delivery, and the having in possession for the purpose of delivery, spirituous, vinous, malt or brewed liquors in any place in the State where no license is issued.

Mr. Atkinson has introduced a bill to incorporate the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Chestertown; also to provide for an auditing committee in Kent county; also to regulate the institution of suits before justices in Kent county.

Mr. Gibbs has introduced a bill to incorporate the Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

The Senate took such action at its Wednesday session that it is practically certain that the Haman bill, providing for the leasing of the barren bottoms of the Chesapeake bay and tributaries, will not pass at this session of the Legislature. A substitute, offered by Senator Wilson, of Prince George's county, was adopted. It provides for the leasing, as an experiment, of a strip of bottom off the shores of Calvert county, beginning at Cove Point and running northward to the neighborhood of Chesapeake Beach and about three miles outwardly, about 50,000 acres.

The strip contains some depleted natural oyster bars and others that are not depleted. This is to be divided into three sections, running north and south. The section nearest the shore is to be divided into ten-acre lots, the middle section into fifty-acre lots and the eastern section into one hundred-acre lots. No individual or firm may own more than one acre of the shore strip, nor can the owner assign a lot to a non-resident of the State. The lots nearest the shore shall pay a rental of $3 an acre per annum, the middle section $2 an acre and the eastern section $1 an acre.

The board of public works shall appoint an oyster register at a salary of $1000 a year, who shall supervise the leasing of these lots to the highest bidders after a survey of the ground shall have been made. The leases are to run twenty years. Residents of Calvert county who may own land bordering on the bay adjacent to the territory to be taken up are given the first opportunity to secure one ten-acre, one fifty-acre and one one-hundred-acre lot. Owners of leases are given the same protection of property as under the Haman bill.

The amendments to the Constitution have passed both Houses and will be engrossed this week for the Governor's signature. Much to the surprise of the Democrats of the State the Governor has intimated that he will veto these measures. The best constitutional lawyers in the State say, however, that he has not the power to veto them, as that prerogative belongs to the people, and that the constitutional amendments will be submitted in due form at the proper time, whether the Governor vetoes them or not. His excuse is that he believes an amendment along the lines of the Bryan amendment, which provides a property qualification, would be adopted by a large majority in Maryland and that his personal belief is that the amendments passed by the Legislature will be defeated. There is much disappointment because of the attitude of the Governor on these questions.

"CHRIST is glorious, make Him known," will be the subject at Westminster Presbyterian Church at 10.30 a. m., and at Grace Presbyterian Church at 3 p. m., and at Worton Presbyterian Church at 7.30 p m. tomorrow (Sunday) March 20th.

It Was Beautiful!

The Spring Opening and Fashion Exhibit at Stewart's was the talk of the town. Everyone was enthused by the beauty of the gowns, originality of the hats, the richness of the dress goods, and the new showings of laces, of gloves, of neckwears and kindred lines. When you go to Baltimore this week, be sure to see the many, many beautiful things at Baltimore's Leading Store.
