STILL POND, - - - MARYLAND

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mr. F. O. Taylor, of Magnolia, Del., visited friends here Wednesday.

Mrs. J. B. Burchinal and Mrs. Frank Miller, of Chestertown, were guests on Wednesday of Mrs. J. F. Vansant.

Rev. Isaac Rider, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church South, preached a patriotic sermon last Sunday to the members of Washington camp No.42, P.O.S. of A.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vansant, near town, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Wednesday. The contracting parties were Miss Margaret R., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vansant, and one of our most popular young ladies, to Mr. Albert E. Wilde, of Wilmington, Del. At 2.45 the bride and groom entered the beautifully decorated parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. R. E. Fedderman. They were met by Rev. E. C. Sunfield, of Viola, Del., who performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of blue, white silk waist with hat to match. The happy young couple amid showers of rice left on the 3 23 train for Wilmington where they will begin house-keeping in their new home which has just been completed. Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilde and son, Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross, and Mr. Wilde, of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs W. T. Jones and daughter, Susie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jones, Jonathan and Lydia Jones, Mr. and Mrs Augustine Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Vansant, Misses Addie, Ollie and Marie Vansant, Messrs. J. F. Vansant, B. F. Vansant, F. Price Vansant, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Feddeman, Millington, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Taylor, Magnolia, Del. We extend congratulations.

Mr. S. W. Cole our oldest citizen and merchant, a Methodist and Christian gentleman, died at his home on S. Cypress St. Sunday night of general debility. Mr. Cole was born 1817 near Double Creek, Queen Annes Co. Md. When quite a young man he entered the mercantile business at Chesterville for a short time, he then moved to Millington where he has been engaged in the mercantile business for more than 50 years. He was the first ticket agent of the Queen Anne's and Kent R.R. Co. at this place. He was principal of the Millington Academy for a number of years and he acted as constable for the district. In 1846 he married Miss K. F. States who died in 1888. He is survived by five children, viz. : Samuel W. Cole, E. J. Cole, Misses Maria E., Mary C. and Annie Cole. Funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Warner officiating. Interment Millington Cemetery, J. L. Smith undertaker.

Divine service in the Chapel of the Holy Cross, Millington, on Wednesday morning and on Good Friday at 10.30. On Easter Day there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 a. m., and divine service at 7 30 p. m. At St. Clements, Massey, on Easter Day, at 10.30 a. m, divine service and Holy Communion.

Dr. and Mrs. Walls spent the day Wednesday in Crumpton.

Mr. C. M. Hurtt attended the Conference at Dover this week.

Mr. J. L. Smith and sister Mrs. John Hurlock spent the day Wednesday in Baltimore.

Mrs. J. W. Walls and daughter Miss Susie, of Crumpton, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Walls Tuesday.

Mr. O. C. Duling has begun work on his new house adjoining the P. E. Church.

The bankrupt sale at Westcott & Dodd's store has attracted scores of buyers and many goods have been sold. The sale will continue a few days longer.

JOHN D. URIE, ESQ., trustee, offered the Stephens farm, near Rock Hall, at public sale Tuesday and it was withdrawn at a bid of $525. It may be bought of Mr. Urie at private sale at considerable less than the appraisers' price—$1500

THE ten-year-old son of Mr. W. T. Slagle, residing in Quaker Neck, was shot and seriously wounded by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of an older brother, one day last week. The two boys were out gunning when the older one, who was carrying the gun stumbled and fell. The gun was discharged and the full load penetrated the right shoulder of the smaller brother. Dr. C. W. Whaland is attending the injured lad and he is reported as resting easy at this time.
