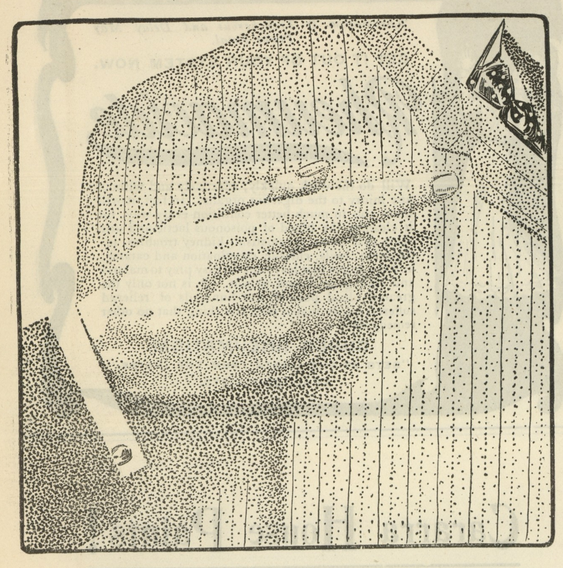
MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY

TAG! YOU'RE IT.



Most of our Spring and Summer Ready-to-put on Suits are here and an inspection respectfully solicited.

Youth's Clothes

in abundance. Having the largest out-put, you reap the benefit of assortment and low prices.

Children's Clothing

of all description. Double breast, sailor blouse, Refer Blouse in all the leading weaves and fabrics, beauties they are. Put a few nickles in your pocket by buying here instead of the city.

Trousers

Here's your Trousers, in fact, we sell so many we are styled "Pants King."

Hats, Hats, Hats,

hardly necessary to call your attention to this department, as it is so well and favorably recognized.

Shirts, Neckwear

and all the perquisites necessary to complete your toilet.

Dress Suit Cases

We are selling lots of of them.

Charges much more moderate than others they tell us.

And bear in mind one very important fact, we buy for cash (in fact anticipate our bills) hence get all discounts. Coming and going which places us in a position to quote prices that even the time buying merchant could get his supply of us as well. Respectfully,

MOODY & LUSBY

Directly Opposite the Court House. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Mr. George Quelet left on Wednesday for a Baltimore hospital where he will enter as a patient. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Judge Edwin Brown, of the Circuit Court Bench, sprained his ankle very severely a few days ago.

Mr. Wm. H. McCann, of Eddystone, Pa., has been visiting his son, Rev. Mr. McCann, of Pomona.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Brady and little daughter, of Roanoke, Va., are guests at the parental home, "White Hall," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenwood, near Chestertown.

Messrs. Walter T. Morris and Chas. H. Hurlock are driving through the northern part of Kent and lower Cecil introducing the excellent "Philadelphia" silos.

Mr. A. H. Crew while refitting the new postoffice in Chestertown found a marriage certificate between the floors dated October 6, 1798, and issued by treasurer of Eastern Shore to Richard Lowman and Rachel Harris.

Mrs. Cahall, Mrs. Jennie Moody and Mrs. J. F. Thompson have been visiting friends in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. M. A I. Stephens, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Beck on Maple avene. She is looking remarkably well and as jovial as ever.

Mr. John T. Sweeney, of Wilmington, was in town on business Monday.

Mrs. I. W. Hines, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dodd.

Mr. David B. Perkins, of Philadelphia, was the guest of friends in town last week.

Mrs. Wm. E. Perkins and son, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Richard B. Lane, nee Miss Hallie Connelly, of Newburne, N. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Connelly, on High street.

Miss Lillie Greenwood has returned home after spending the winter with her sister in North Carolina.

Miss Susie Belle Culp returned last week improved in health from Baltimore, where she has been under the care of a specialist.

Mrs. D. P. Jones, of Phila., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Maslin, Quaker Neck.

Henry Keyser, Esq., of Baltimore, was the guest of H. H. Barroll, Esq., at "Byford Place" on Chester river on Sunday.

J. F. M. Woodall, Esq., was in Chestertown Wednesday and took the oath as one of the auditing committee for Kent county. He was looking well and reported the outlook good for wheat and fruit in his section.

Mr. Jesse Medders in going from Mr. W. W. Hubbard's office to the telephone office Tuesday last two $5 bills. He is willing to reward the finder.

State Veterinarian Jarman spent Sunday with his family on Washington Avenue. We are glad to announce that the doctor will not be required to remove his family to the city and will continue to live in Chestertown. Gov. Warfield last week commissioned Dr. Jarman to buy him a saddle horse evidencing the confidence reposed in the good judgement of our fellow townsman.

Misses Emma France, Helen Jefferson and Mary Strong have been guests of Miss May Pennington, of Betterton.

Miss Hannah Bell has been visiting Miss Jessie Crew, of Betterton.

Mr. Mack Willson, of Rock Hall, has been the guest of Mr. Harris Crewe.

Mr. George M. Harrison has resigned his position with the Prudential Company to go with his former employe in Baltimore, to introduce the "None Such" polish. Mr. Harrison is a hustler and we wish him success in his new field.

Mr Joseph Parsons, of Middletown, has been visiting friends in town.

Mr. George Dill who was so badly burned sometime ago is visiting in Kent and shows plainly the marks of his recent awful experience.

Mr. Wm. Luthringer and family, of Cecilton, have been visiting friends near Tolchester. He says the wheat in lower Kent is ahead of that up the county. What will the harvest be, is another and more important question.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Frank Bonwell, of Wilmington, is spending the week with her parents here.

Miss Lydia K. Price, of Battle Creek, Mich., is visiting her mother, near town.

Miss Evelyn Cochran has returned from a visit to Phila., and elsewhere.

Mrs. Annie Price, Misses Lydia and Ruth Price attended the funeral of their relative, Mrs. W. A. Price, at Delaware City on Tuesday.

The pigeon craze has struck us and several of our progressive business men have erected wire pens and gone into business on a large scale.

Miss Forbes, of Queen Annes, has accepted a position with F. S. Bottomley as clerk.

Mrs. Jennie Lees is visiting relatives in Smyrna.

The Millington Bank has issued cards inviting friends and patrons to the opening May 20.
