Sour Stomach—Heart Burn.

Heart-burn results from an acid or sour condition of the stomach. This acidity is caused by indigestion. The food is only partly digested, the indigested portion ferments, producing acid and gas, these produce heart-burn and sour stomach. Rydale's Stomach Tablets speedily relieve these conditions. They neutralize the acid and food, restoring normal conditions. Rydale's Stomach Tablets CURE all forms of stomach troubles.—M. A. TOULSON.

A Wonderful Saving.

The largest Methodist Church in Georgia calculated to use over one hundred gallons of the usual kind of mixed paint in painting their church.

They used only 32 gallons of the Longman & Martinez Paint mixed with 24 gallons of linseed oil. Actual cost of paint made was less than $1.20 per gallon.

Saved over eighty ($80 00) dollars in paint, and got a big donation besides.

EVERY CHURCH will be given a liberal quanity whenever they paint.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of linseed oil mixed therewith.

Wears and covers like gold.

These Celebrated Paints are sold by F. H. Harper & Son, Still Pond; J. W. Ivens, Worton, Md., and Smith & Graham, Chestertown, Md.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

The recent eruption of straw hats has been checked by the cold snaps, and many overcoats are in evidence here Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. John Tarbutton was entertained on Monday by Mrs. John F. Ernest.

The Aid Society under the Auspices of the Rehoboth M. P. Church will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson on Wednesday evening.

Rev. F. S. Cain, of Warwick, preached on Sunday evening in the Rehoboth M. P. Church here and his wife, Mrs. Cain, added much assistance in the choir, assisting with the singing.

Mr. Clayton L. Ellison one of our most prominent farmers of Bohemia Manor visited Sassafras on Monday, enroute for Mr. Isaac Gibbs, of below Masseys, where he was the guest for the day.

Mrs. Rachel Stradley visited her parents Mr. and Mrs John Johnston on Monday.

Messrs. John F. Ernest, and Robert Johnson visited Smyrna on Saturday on a business trip.

The reopening of Dewey Park will take place on Friday and Saturday evening, 27 and 28, of May. All are cordially invited.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Pheneas Jones is again very sick indeed.

Mrs. Robert S. Griffith has returned from a delightful visit to her sister Mrs. George McCall, of Chester.

Mrs. Thersa Shallcross returned Thursday last from an extended visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Susie Ford, of Ford's landing, is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Quite a number from here attended the Forty hours devotion of the R. C. Church last week and were highly delighted with Rt. Rev. Bishop John Monaghan, of Wilmington, at St. Frances Xavier.

Mr. John R. H. Price, of Warwick, and son were entertained by relatives here, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ernest on Saturday.

Miss Bessie Gunkie, of Warwick visited her sister Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ernest, on Wednesday.

ANOTHER thrilling chapter was added to the famous Powell murder trial at Dover Thursday when the husband of the woman, who is to spend the rest of life in Kent County jail, was arrested by the State detectives, charged with using his foster daughter, a child 13 years of age, for immoral purposes. The public at large is about disgusted with the case and it is to be hoped there will be no more "sensations" for a few months at least. Nothing further can be done with the case until the fall term of Court.

IN MEMORIAM.

The following Resolutions of Respect were adopted by the Scott Literary Society of the Wilmington Conference Academy, Dover Del. May 9, 1904.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from earth the mother of our beloved friend and fellow-member, Miss Etta Matthews, be it

Resolved, That we do hereby express our profoundest sympathy for her and all other members of her family in their sad bereavement,

Resolved, That we endeavor to the utmost of our ability to cheer them in this hour of great trial.

Resolved, That we do commend them to the care of our Heavenly Father, who is able to heal all sorrows and to comfort all who are in distress.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Miss Matthews, that they be entered upon the minutes of the Scott Literary Society, that they be published in the next issue of the Peninsula Student and in the county papers of her county.

Signed by Committee,

W. E. GREET,
ELIZABETH WHITAKER
CLARA B. SAVIN.

Died at Piney Neck on April 26 after a lingering illness JAMES WALTER ELBURN, the son of James J. Elburn and Alice M. Elburn, in his 7th year, 8 months and 7 days old.

We sit alone tonight and gaze
Upon an empty chair,
And Memory takes us back to days
When our dear son was here.

As he crossed the river of Jordan
He saw the Saviour on the other shore;
He wasn't afraid to venture over
For many had gone before,

No words will ever be as sweet
As the words he used to say;
No day will ever be as sad
As the day he passed away.

BY MOTHER AND FATHER.

Though suffering he breathed not a murmer,
For the Comforter stood by his side
And whispered, fear not, I am with thee,
And with me thou shall abide.

BY BROTHERS

Peace is around thee, thy sorrows are past
Heaven has granted thy freedom at last,
Long hast thou lingered in sorrow and pain
Past all his suffering, past all his pain,
Cease to weep for tears are vain.

Our Peerless Gretchen Corsets

Some women stop at no expense in the selection of material and trimmings for a new gown, but hesitate to pay the prices that have to be given for corsets of the very best sort. Yet the success of a new gown depends very largely upon the shape-lines of the corset over which it is fitted.

We do not hesitate to say that the corset which most nearly approaches perfection, not only in its lines but in the workmanship, is our own peerless Gretchen; and it is a fact that many of the best modistes in Baltimore and elsewhere are now unwilling to fit a fine costume over any other corset. The remarkable success of the Gretchen—and it has easily won first place among corsets—is based entirely on its merit.

Our Gretchen is the corset that "feels as though one had no corset on." Comfort is combined with the utmost grace. Yet the Gretchen brings out the better lines of one's figure most beautifully.

No woman who has once worn a Gretchen is ever quite satisfied with any other make; and our spring stock contains a model for every figure.

Gretchen Corsets are priced from $2 50 to $7.50.
