The Millington baseball club defeated the strong Smyrna nine at Smyrna last Monday by the score of 6 to 4. Charlie Smith was in the box for Millington and had ten strike outs to his favor.

The dwelling house and all the outbuildings on Dr. T. J. McWhorter's farm tenanted by Mr. Jim Rolph about a mile from town, were destroyed by fire last Monday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock. Mr. Rolph and his hired man were cultivating in a field near by when the fire broke out in the barn, but could not reach there in time to save anything. The fire soon spread to the stable and from there to the house until every building on the farm was in ashes. The fire burned so quickly that Mr. Rolph only saved a few pieces of furniture out of his house. All his farm implements, harness, etc. were burned. The buildings were partly covered by insurance in Jos. N. Wheatley's company. Mr. B. W. Duling will begin at once the erection of new buildings.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

Mr. Charles Kidd, formerly of Fairlee, now of Salada, Va., has established a lucrative contract and building business in West Point and adjacent community. Charlton was a first-class mechanic while he was in Kent and he has many friends here who wish him the very best success.

Mr. William Clark, Lynch's, is sawing some fine lumber for Mr. Victor Hendrickson, haying his saw mill located in Mr. Hendrickson's woods.

Messrs. Sparks and Keyser will remove their saw mill from Mr. Gear's woods down in Quaker Neck to Mr. Wm. Brown's, for whom they will saw quite a number of feet of lumber.

Our community was very much surprised as the tragic death of Mayor McLane.

Children's day service will be observed in Fairlee church, tomorrow, Sunday evening. The program is good and it will be well rendered.

Presiding Elder Koons will hold Quarterly Conference for Fairlee charge this Saturday afternoon at 2 P. M., in Salem church. He will preach in the same church at 10.30 A. M., tomorrow, Sunday.

Rev. W. E. Habbard is visiting his relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. D. P. Jones, with her sister, Mrs. William T. Maslin, is somewhat improved in health since being in the country.

Tolchester, in all of her beauty, opened June 1st.

The church festival on the church green in Fairlee, on this Saturday evening will, we predict, be largely attended. The grounds will be beautifully lighted and ice cream, cake, etc., will be served abundantly.

Camping at Tolchester.—About 150 cadets from St. John's College, Annapolis, went into camp on the high bluff overlooking the bay at Tolchester Beach, Wednesday. A detail of cadets went to the beach on the steamer Susquehanna Wednesday, taking with them tents, the commissary equipment and all needed paraphernalia for their annual outing under canvas. The eighty tents needed for the encampment were ready upon the arrival of Maj. W. A. Thompson, U. S. A., commandant, and the 130 boys, went into camp. Maj. J. Wirt Wilmer is mayor of battalion.

THE captain of the police schooner Anna B. Smith will likely be appointed next week. Who the plum will fall to has not been made public. The police schooner will be docked in a few days to undergo repairs and painting.

A MULE belonging to Mr. Jacob Scoone, of Edesville, was struck by lightning and killed this week.

A NEW series sf stock will be issued on July 4th, 1904, by the Kent Building and Loan Company, of Chestertown.

Announcement!

We beg to announce that our representatives, Messrs. A. J. Boden and C. H. Knight will be at the Voshell House for about ten days beginning June 6th., where they will exhibit a sample line or Pianos, Estey Organs and Pianolas.

It will give us pleasure to have you and your friends call to inspect these fine instruments from 9 A. M. to 12 noon and from 1 to 5 P. M.

Respectfully,
