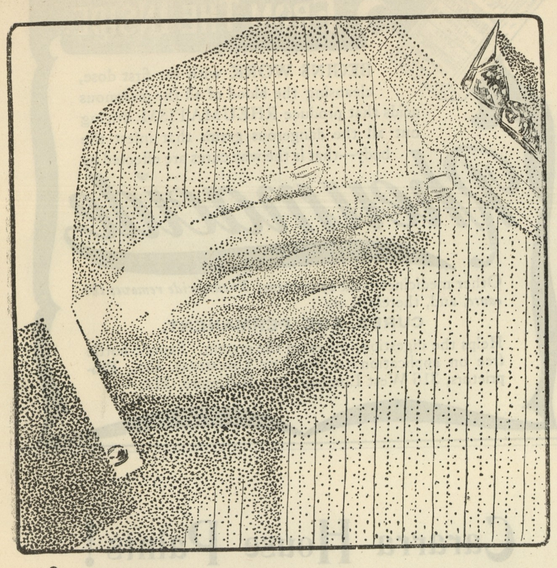
MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY

TAG! YOU'RE IT.



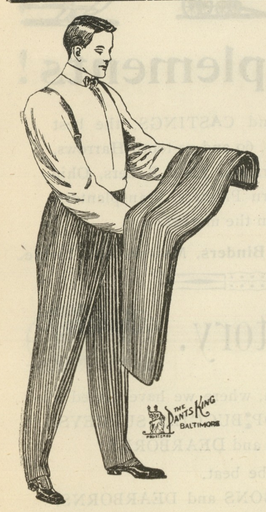
Most of our Spring and Summer Ready-to-put on Suits are here and an inspection respectfully solicited.

Youth's Clothes

in abundance. Having the largest out-put, you reap the benefit of assortment and low prices.

Children's Clothing

of all description. Double breast, sailor blouse, Refer Blouse in all the leading weaves and fabrics, beauties they are. Put a few nickles in your pocket by buying here instead of the city.



Trousers

Here's your Trousers, in fact, we sell so many we are styled "Pants King."

Hats, Hats, Hats,

hardly necessary to call your attention to this department, as it is so well and favorably recognized.

Shirts, Neckwear

and all the perquisites necessary to complete your toilet.

Dress Suit Cases

We are selling lots of of them.

Charges much more moderate than others they tell us.

And bear in mind one very important fact, we buy for cash (in fact anticipate our bills) hence get all discounts. Coming and going which places us in a position to quote prices that even the time buying merchant could get his supply of us as well. Respectfully,

MOODY & LUSBY

Directly Opposite the Court House. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PERSONS YOU KNOW.

Mr. A. Friedman, of Dover, was in town on business Tuesday.

Mr. Frederick H. Russell, superintendent of the Chestertown Electric Light Co., has tendered his resignation to take effect July 1st. After a vacation he will accept one of the several places that are open to him. Mr. Russell has been in town nearly three years and has proven his efficiency and skill as an electrician and his value as a citizen of our town. He and his estimable wife have made many friends in our midst who regret their action and it is hoped that the "powers that be" will not allow Mr. Russell to leave.

Miss Bessie Cannan, of Baltimore, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Francis Hopkins, of Port Deposit, is the guest of Miss Sallye Beck on Maple avenue.

Miss Eva Clayton, of Baltimore, was the guest Sunday of Miss Nettie Russell.

Mrs. J. T. Twilley is visiting friends in Denton.

Mr. Louis and Rosa Kaplan, of Baltimore, are visiting their father on High street.

Misses Fannie Wallace and Lillian Rochester, of Church Hill, were guests of Mrs. Owen B. Crow, last week.

Mrs J. Wilson Smith, of Baltimore, is at the home of her father, Mr. Geo. L. Quelett, on Cannon street.

Mr. David B. McMenamin spent this week in Philadelphia on business.

Mrs. Reese Crew and son, of Wilmington, were guests last week of her mother, Mrs. Sallie Hodgkin, on Queen street.

Miss Lena Bishop, of Galena, has been the guest of Miss Lillian Matthews, on Cross street, for two weeks.

Miss Mary K. Gooding, of Kent county, has been appointed an assistant teacher in Chesapeake City High School.

Mrs. Joel Fallowfield and son, Perkins, and daughter, Mrs. Fred Coursey, of Barclay, were guests last week of Mrs. J. H. Sides, on Washington, Ave.

Mrs. Luther Albert, of Philadelphia, was present at the graduation of her sister, Miss Iris Anthony. Miss Anthony accompanied Mrs. Albert home for a week's stay.

Miss Katherine Washburn, of Boston, and Miss Jennie Hamilton, of Huron, Mich., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Eliason.

Mr. M. A. Toulson left Tuesday to attend the annual meeting of the State Pharmaceutical Association at Mt. Holly Inn, Baltimore. He was accompanied by Mrs. Toulson.

Misses Imogene Dorsey and Annie Hume Lewis, of Baltimore, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Westcott and family have closed their town house 906 St. Paul street, and will spend the summer at Blithewood, Charles Street avenue.

Hon. James H. Baker was unable to attend the Chicago convention. Col. W. J. Vannort went however, and reports a delightful trip.

Dr. A. S. Hall and family will spend the summer at their old home in Michigan.

Mr. Thos. P. Sudler, a well known citizen of Sudlersville, who, until the first part of this year, had engaged in farming in that vicinity, has purchased of Mr. John H. Evans, Rolph's, the stock of goods in his general merchandise store at that place and took charge last Friday.

Col. Wallen, of Queen Anne's, experienced a runaway in Chestertown last week in which he lost a part of his load of asparagus.

Mr. Allen Harris, wife and son will leave to-day for St. Louis and the great Fair.

Miss Nannie Bowers, daughter of Rev. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore, is visiting her grandmother on High street. Miss Nannie sang a pretty solo at the Twilight service in Christ Church Sunday evening. She has a strong soprano voice with a wide range and full of melody.

Mr. Clark Taylor was in town Saturday. He is more than 85 years old but just as active as many a man at 45.

Mr James H. Bramble and wife, of Philadelphia, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bramble, Tolchester. Mr. B. is chief engineer on a steamer sailing from Philadelphia and has not been in Kent for four years.

Mrs. Mary J. Thumlert and daughter Miss Georgia, of Washington, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crawford, near town.

Mrs. John Horton and daughter, of Millville, N. J., are guests at Pomona parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaffney and bright son have removed from the Imperial Hotel, this town, to Roanoke, Va., where Mr. G's territory is now located. They were pleasant people and we are sorry to lose them from our midst.

Miss Alice Downey, daughter of Postmaster J. W. Downey, of Rock Hall, is in the city learning the millinery trade with Miss Anna E. Herrerra, of North Carey st., Baltimore. She will take a position with a New York firm in December as traveling milliner.
