Looking For a Farm.—Mr. Lower, of northern Indiana, has been in Kent this week looking for a farm of 125 acres with the purpose of purchasing and making this his home. He is much pleased with this county and wants to take advantage of our excellent school, Washington College.

Boat Races—About 8,000 persons attended the annual regatta of the Chesapeake Yacht Club at St, Michaels last Friday. Visitors were present from all sections of the country. Capt. Curtis E. Crane carried a party from Chestertown on his yacht "Josephine." In the company were: Messrs. Lewin W. Wickes, H. Clay Brown, Eldridge and John Eliason, of Chestertown, and G. R. Sullivan and Somerwell Solmon, of Philadelphia.

Good Expert Swimming.—On Friday Aug. 12th. a swimming contest took place at Betterton, Md, between Mr. Hecheimer a young lawyer, of Baltimore, Mr. J. McGill, of Philadelphia, and Dr. A. E C. Mac Crowe, of Paterson, N. J. the distance being eight miles, from the Betterton shore of Harford Co. opposite.

Mr. Hecheimer and Mr. McGill after swimming about half the distance were obliged to give it up, but Dr. Mac Crowe continued with the tide against him which was very rough and choppy. He covered the distance in four hours lacking five minutes and has the honor of being the first to swim across the Chesapeake Bay. He came from Paterson to spend a week at Betterton stopping at the Vanzant Cottage on Excursion Avenue.

Reception and Dance.—A reception and dance were tendered to Mr. Abe Casey, of Rock Hall, Kent county, on Friday night last in the Town Hall by his Baltimore friends, who are summering there. The hall was decorated with potted plants and ferns. After solos, recitations and illustrated songs by Miss Minnie Hersch, Miss Emma Strohrmann, Miss Irene Orem, Miss Annie Kruhm, Miss Louise Cruhm and Mr Max Alexander and the serving of refreshments, a dance followed, which was continued to a late hour. Among those present were: Mr and Mrs. A. Casey, G. E. Newton, S. Stiffe, R. Rose, M. B. Apsley, Capt. Joseph Downey. Misses Carts, J. Hersch, W. Middleton, A. Tharle, B. Sandford, M. Colburn, E. Taylor, C. Downey, N. Taylor, R. Marr, D. Middleton, S. Saloman, L Kulp, B. B. Bunch, R. Hersch, C. Mutford, J. Apsley, G. Downey. Messrs. Dr. O. L. Long, R. Sewell, E. Hersch, S. Solomon, G. Merson, W. Donohue, W. Jones, E. Sanford, W. Durding, C. Baker, S. Downey, F. Parson, O. Tharle, H. Tharle, C. Sanford, C. Carts, A. Rose, N. Porter.

CHRISTIANITY AND DIVORCE.

This country is just witnessing fourteen Protestant sects banded together to fight for more stringent divorce laws. The religion they profess cannot stop it in the world at large, or even in their own very borders. They seem to consider God impotent and Cæsar powerful, and in one loud chorus they call on Cæsar to stop sin.

Is there any Christianity in this? Did Christ ever call upon the powers that crucified Him to assist in the suppression of sin, much less to take a leading part? Did He not say, "My Kingdom is not of this world?"

The fact is the sects are utterly at sea on this divorce and marriage question. They join couples in marriage, and they say God joins. Then they say, "let no man put asunder what God joins," and instead of depending upon Godly ties to keep the thing together, they prove that only their own weak hands had a part in it when they call upon other mortal hands in the shape of law-makers to see the thing through.

Christ said, "Seek first the Kingdom of Heaven," but the sects say seek first a wife, after first seeking a goodly stock of that knowledge which puffs up. An ill beginning works evil all the way through.

CATTLE POISONED BY WEEDS.

Result Of Dr. Jarman's Investigations In Wicomico.

State Veterinarian Allen G. Jarman went to Salisbury and investigated a peculiar disease that has attacked the cattle owned by Joseph H. Tilghman, of Nutters district. Dr. Jarman decided that the trouble was caused by the cattle eating poisonous weeds, affecting their stomachs.

Three cows and two oxen are affected. The cattle are suffering with a nervous affection in the hind limbs, which causes them to constantly move their limbs up and down; then fever sets in, followed by a constant moving of the head, as though suffering intense pain. The cows cease to give milk as soon as attacked with the malady. Dr. Jarman administered remedies and the cattle are improving.
