Kent Countian Honored.—Mr. W. Pryor Armstrong, of Chestertown, and until recently Chief of the Diplomatic and Consular Division of the office of the Auditor for the State and other Departments, has been appointed Auditor of the Isthmian Canal Commission at Washington. The appoiment came to him unsolicited, he being selected for the position on account of his well-known ability and his peculiar fitness for the duties involved in that great undertaking. Mr. Armstrong entered the service of the United States in 1886 in a small capacity and steadily forced himself to the front, until 1896, when he was made chief of the diplomatic and Consular Division at a salary of $2500 per annum. In 1903 he was designated for special duty by the United States to the Chinese Empire in connection with the indemnity provisions of the Final Protocol of Peking. The able manner in which he filled this position and performed the intricate duties involved, elicited the warmest approval and commendation of the United States Government. Shortly after his return in the spring of this year, he was tendered, and on July 1st accepted the appointment of Auditor of the Isthmian Canal Commission at a salary of $3600 per annum. Mr. Armstrong lives at Washington, where he has a handsome home.
