DRS. CORKRAN AND BAKER SUSPENDED.

A Lively Time Promised at the Coming Session of M. E. Conference—What will Become of Ministers who Speculate?

After a session of three days, Presiding Elder Mowbray and his committee of nine ministers returned a verdict of guilty in the case of the Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, growing out of his transactions in the stock market and his selling of unlisted stocks. Following the verdict in the case of Dr. Corkran, the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Baker, of Asbury Church were prosecuted and the committee returned a verdict in this case also.

The decisions of the committee carry with them the suspension of Dr. Corkran and Dr. Baker from exercising all ministerial duties until the session of the Wilmington Conference in March next, when both ministers will be placed on trial on the charges on which they were adjudged guilty yesterday. Throwing cases into the Conference will provoke one of the most interesting sessions in its history, as Dr. Corkran and Dr. Baker have a large personal following, which is indicated by the way both have been honored.

Dr. Corkran for twelve years was a presiding elder and twice has been a delegate to the General Conference, while Dr. Baker has been a presiding elder for six years and was twice a delegate to the General Conference. Neither Dr. Corkran nor Dr. Baker would discuss the outcome of the investigation for publication, and explained that they did not wish to get into any controversy over it.

But what will become of the many other ministers who "speculated" in stocks, oils, &c.?

The deposition of the Rev. C. H. Williams, stating that Dr. Baker had asked him to buy certain stock and that he bought 2,000 shares at 25 cents per share of Vulcan Crude Oil Cil Co., which has yielded nothing and is now a total failure. He represented that it would rise to 50 cents., it is alleged, in less than four weeks. "I find," he is quoted as sayng, "that these dealings in stocks by Drs. Baker and Corkran have greatly injured the work of the church. Baker said the deal was just as honorable as buying an oil field and improving it."

The deposition of J. T. Dennis, of Preston, Md., was submitted. He stated that Dr. Baker invited him to buy 2,000 shares of Vulcan Crude Oil Co., of California. Baker made encouraging representations, but no guarantee. The stock has yielded nothing.

The deposition of W. F. Haines, of Seaford, was submitted. It stated that he was advised to purchase Pine Lucky Gold Stock by the Rev. C. S. Baker, but did not purchase of Mr. Baker. He purchased elsewhere.

W. W. Donahoe, of Seaford, stated in the presence of Dr. Watt, the Rev. Mr. Wise and T. N Rawlins, that C. S. Baker had charged him too much for the stocks he bought of him; that the president of the company told him that someone had "done him." Donahoe replied: "No. I got it of a preacher." The statement was verified by the witness.

The disposition of I. J. Brasure, of Selbyville, stated that C. S. Baker had advised him to invest in a gold stock in 1903 but he did not invest.

The Rev. J. T. Van Burkalow was examined. He was asked: "Did you purchase any stocks through Dr. Baker?"

"Not through Dr. Baker, but by his advice."

"Relate the circumstances."

Baker in 1901, said: "If you have any money I know of something that will pay eight per cent, right down." Later on he told me about Pine Lucky mine and said it would pay a good dividend in a few months. I inquired of others, who confirmed the statement. I concluded to bite at the bate. On December 31 I went with Corkran, Baker and S. S. Andrews to Baltimore to invest. I invested a great deal and am ashamed that I have been such a fool. In May Baker found I had some bonds of Conference Academy. He urged me to sell the bonds and invest in the same mine. In July I put in some more. Dr. Baker took this money to Baltimore and actually advanced $200, for which I paid him on his return. Later he tried to sell me some oil stock, but I did not buy."
