REDUCTIONS

¶ What are reductions? You all know the inference. For a number of years those who are interested wait for our announcement of semi-annual reduction sales, knowing they are bona fide. We have started and are having a liberal response. Don't be too late, like some were last season.

¶ We also have about 63 Men's Suits—one and two of a kind—while they last

$2.50 for the Whole Suit.

SNAP-SHOTS OF LOCAL NEWS

As Taken By The News' Corps Of Alert Reporters.

Electric Light Plant.—A move is about to be set on foot by some of Chestertown enterprising business men for a new electric light plant. It is proposed to utilize the power at the ice plant and form a company of small holders. Wouldn't a gas plant be a better investment and a greater help to the housekeepers and others?

A Shrewd Farmer.—An up-to-date farmer near Lynch's Station is receiving the congratulation of his friends for his ingenious method in getting his corn cut off. Some days ago he caught two negroes stealing wheat from his granary. After impressing them with the enormity of the crime and what the punishment would be, offered te keep "mum" if they would cut corn for him. They readily consented and the farmer has his corn shocked in fine style.

Safe Insurance.—The Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Kent County, Thos. W. Eliason president, has appointed a special committee consisting of Messrs. Frank H. Harper, Alday Clements, Samuel Vannort and George B. Westcott to inspect the risks in town. This is a wise move and is simply one act showing the careful management under which this stable company is being conducted.
