By displaying a reliable attractive line of up-to-date merchandise we have demonstrated beyond question to a larger aggregation than ever before, our ability to sell them 15 to 20 per cent. less than can be had of city houses, and to those who think of the vast differences in expenses, being on an equal footing in purchasing, etc., this fact is plainly evident.

We Now Offer

you a chance at the Odds and Ends and if you get here early enough, there's a very good assortment. —But don't delay—as all winter merchandise, Men's Overcoats, Boys' and Children's Overcoats, Suits, Underwear, Gloves and all winter merchandise will now be cleaned up at our well known cut prices. Partnership Dissolved—The commission house of Comegys Brown and E. S. Stubbs, of Baltimore, has been dissolved by the death of Mr. Stubbs. The business will be continued at the old stand, 224 S. Charles street, by Comegys Brown, (the surviving partner) and E. S. Stubs, Jr., (son of the deceased partner). Young Mr. Stubbs is no stranger to this business as he was associated with the old firm as bookkeeper. Mr. Brown is a Kent Countian and well known to the shippers of the Shore.

Four Estates.—The Orphans' Court, of Kent County, Tuesday issued letters of administration on four estates, viz., Walter U. Lusby, administrator of Josiah Lusby; Robert Vandyke, administrator of John P. Vandyke; H. Clay and Augustine Hendrickson, administrators of Marguerite Hendrickson; Thos. W. Trew, administrator of Henry Washington, colored.

Sold A Dead Mule.—A local veterinarian paid Isaac Smith, a colored carter, one dollar to haul a dead mule out of town last week. It was the purpose of "Dr." R. to skin the mule and sell both the hide and meat, but while he was absent on a search for his knives and hatchet, two colored experts found the mule and proceeded to dispose of him.

They got $3.25 for the hide and $2 for the meat and the "doctor" is going to find redress by law. The meat was used in feeding fox hounds.

Western Stock.—Mr. Lewin U. Skirven arrived home from Indianapolis this week bringing with him "Black King" an elegant heavy draft stallion. The horse is not quite three years old, is registered, and weighs over fourteen hundred pounds. Mr. Skirven also brought four D rset ewes, for which he paid nearly $100. A lamb was born on the trip East. This price is low when compared to five sheep brough to Kent some years ago by Mr. J. W. Skirven. He paid $125 for a buck and nearly as much for the ewes. The Messrs. Skirven are believers in buying nothing but the best.

Terrible Roads.—Mr. A. L. Benjamin returned from Sudlersville Wednesday with one of Mr. Robert McWhorter's teams and stated that in his experience of over 25 years he had never seen the roads in worse condition. They are almost impassable and the worst has not yet come! Broken wheels, springs, shafts and tops are daily occurrences and now and then occupants of vehicles are dumped out on the roadside. A drummer weighing 250 pounds was upset in a carriage on Cross street, Chestertown, on Wednesday, but was not seriously hurt.

The Champion Pedestrian.—Joseph Hessey, Jr., a sailor on a bugeye commanded by Capt. Harry Pheffer, was icebound in Baltimore harbor and wanted to get home. Last Monday a week Mr. Hessey left Baltimore accompanied by a young colored man, a fellow sailor, and they started for Crumpton, their home on foot. They followed the tracks of P. B. & W. Railroad as far as Elkton, reaching that place in 14 hours, a distance of 57 miles. They crossed the Susquehanna from Havre de Grace to Perryville on the ice. From Elkton they started for Crumpton, taking the route via Chesapeake City and Galena to Crumpton, a distance of 30 miles, which they covered in 7 hours, making the entire distance of 87 miles in 21 hours. When last heard from Mr. Hessey was none the worse for his trip.

Removals.—State's Attorney W. W. Beck removed to his new home "Kentmere" on the Chester this week and Mr. Evans moved into the Beck home on Water street.

Stock Birds.—Now is the time for all the true sportsmen to help replenish the birds of Kent by buying stock quail. Messrs. Henry Brown, of Pomona, R. D. Hynson, Wilbur Eliason, Jr., W. E. Moody and others have sent west and south for several dozen. The terrible winter we have had has killed hundreds of birds and the only way to restock the county is by purchasing the quail elsewhere. Let all the lovers of the sport help and don't forget to feed the birds that have survived the winter.

Dr. Corkran Wins.—The suit for $3000 brought against Rev. W. F. Corkrae by Zell & Merceret, brokers, in Baltimore, was decided Monday in favor of the minister, who was formerly presiding elder of the Wilmington Conference.

The suit grew out of a stock transaction, the brokers claiming that Dr. Corkran owed them the money for margins and commissions on stock they were carrying for him. Dr. Corkron contended that he had told the brokers to sell the stocks and stop loss when they began to depreciate in value.
