LOCAL NEWS.

A CARLOAD of strawboard was shipped from Chestertown Wednesday to Cape Colony, South Africa.

A NEW launch has been added to the Chestertown fleet of boats by Mr. L. B. Russell. It is claimed that she can beat them all. Mr. John C. Davis has put his skiff in excellent condition.

THE next dance at Dewey Park will be September 6th. The tournament, fish supper and dance will be held Saturday, September 16th.

THE SAVINGS BANK STOCK is soaring. Several sales have been reported the past week at $200 per share!

ONE of H. F. Jefferson's large plate glass windows was broken last week.

LOCAL horsemen in Delaware are interested in the sale on a big stock farm of Bedford Roe, formerly sheriff of this county, which is announced to take place early this month. Mr. Roe's big stock on the farm owned by Wm. M. Slay, Esq., of Chestertown, is all to go, together with the thoroughbred stock upon it, as he is to quit farming and retire to a quiet life with his son-in-law. Among the horses to be sold is the celebrated stallion Mambrino Humbert, which recently trotted a mile on the public road, to a four-wheeled vehicle in which were two men in 2.59 sharp.

A FARMER near Crumpton has harvested 400 tons of hay and has sold 120 tons to the Chestertown Strawboard Mill.

THE corn crop in Kent will not be as large as was expected. Many ears are not more than half filled, but fodder will be abundant.

H. F. JEFFERSON will open his elegant new store today. He has one of the best equipped stores on the Peninsula and a bran new stock of up-to-date goods.

THE samples of Heinz pickles distributed in Chestertown this week were well received and much enjoyed.

LOCAL buyers are offering 12 and 15 cents per basket for Keifer pears.

THE address of Rev. Anna H. Shaw at Kennedyville next Thursday evening will be a rare treat to our people. The ladies have gone to considerable expense to get this national speaker and it is hoped that a large crowd will attend.

THE following citizens have lost valuable horses the past week: Messrs Geo. W. McWhorter, stallion, Wm. T. H. Whiteley, good mare, Alfred Bramble a valuable mare. The last two horses were driven too hard.

THE mile posts erected throughout Kent county by J. D. Lucas, clothier, are accurate and quite a convenience to the traveling public.

THE horse stolen from Mr. Hurlock at Millington was found at Cordova. Constable Lockerman arrested the thief but he made his escape.

FIRE AT ROCK HALL.

Store and Dwelling of Herbert Wilkins Destroyed.

The store and dwelling at Rock Hall, owned and occupied by Herbert Wilkins and family, was burned early Sunday morning. The family was asleep when neighbors discovered the fire and aroused them. Nothing was saved—not even enough clothes to wear. The house was insured in J. G. Beck's company for $1,200; stock, $1,000, and furniture, $200. The origin is unknown, but is attributed to mice among the matches. The fire was first discovered in the store, and the report of cartridges attracted the notice of the neighbors.

PEACE! PEACE!

Peace between Russia and Japan came Tuesday, and came with the bewildering swiftness of a whirlwind.

A treaty of peace without a single question of importance in dispute is now under consideration.

At Tokia and St. Petersburg terms of an armistice are being considered.

Within a short time two great armies—that of Japan, numbering perhaps 600,000 men, and that of Russia, numbering perhaps 500,000 men—will be marching home, both with flying colors. Japan brought peace by making concessions the magnitude of which were never dreamed of. Under instructions from the Mikado himself the Japanese envoys offered to withdraw absolutely the demand for a war and to yield back to Russia half of the Island of Sakhalin.

With such a change of front, amounting almost to magnanimity, peace became an accomplished fact. The Russians heralded the news to the world soon after the main points had been agreed to, and the Japanese, who had evidently been coerced into the arrangement by Tokio, did not appear in public until the work of the day was over. But when the day's work was over substantial progress had been made toward framing the treaty of peace and cordial relations had been established between the peace missions.

THE Republican primaries will be held today. Messrs. Sidney P. Townshend and Lewis P. Atwell are named as possible candidates for Legislature with Mr. Thomas W. Trew as treasurer, Mr. Charles England as sheriff, Messrs. George Bowers and Joseph Downey as candidates for commissioners. There does not seem to be any scramble to get on the ticket.

THERE are few counties that boast of a horse worth a farm! Bedworth, Jr., the fastest horse in Maryland, has been sold by his owner, Mr. William A. Bell, for $5,000! Mr. Bell was wise in selling him.

THE Evening News shows good taste in stating that Easton has more pretty girls than any town on the Eastern Shore except Chestertown, &c.

HOUSE on said farm, being surrounded by beautiful shade trees and a pretty lawn leading to public road; good Barns, Stables, Sheds and other necessary outbuildings. Fencing in good repair.

The farm is divided into 5 fields, including one of the handsomest young peach orchards a person ever saw growing, which will come in bearing next year. There is also a fine apple orchard on the farm. There are about 4 or 5 acres of woodland and every acre of the balance is nice, fine tillable land, there being no waste land at all.

This is an opportunity seldom offered for one to obtain an ideal country home, with fine buildings, all in good order, good, high land and so splendidly located.
