VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1905. NO. 14.

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

REPUBLICANS DIVIDED!

County Convention Held in Chestertown Monday — A Ticket Put Up But Knocked Partly Down Within a Few Days—Only a Question of a Few Weeks For the Others.

The Republican County convention for Kent County met in Chestertown Monday. It was poorly attended, there being but little interest manifested. It is a recognized fact that a majority of the leaders of the party in Kent did not attend the provisions nor the convention.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason was elected chairman of the meeting and Mr. Wm. G. Smyth, secretary. There were ten colored delegates present, but the complete list has been mislaid and we could not obtain same.

Upon motion of Col. W. J. Vannort, duly seconded by Mr. Wm. A. Burk, the present State Central committee was unanimously reelected by viva voca vote. The committe is as follows: Wilbur Eliason, chairman; Capt. Daniel Hill and Isaac Tilghman.

When it came to the question of nominating a local ticket a decided sentiment was shown against this step but a majority voted on its favor and the following gentlemen were named (without their consent) for the various officers, viz;

Legislature—Louis P. Atwell, of Sassafras; Robert R. Hill, Kennedyville.

Treasurer—L. Bates Russell, Chestertown.

Sheriff—Col. Samuel C. Walters, late of Queen Anne's, now of Locust Grove.

Commissioners—Harry Willis, of Barnard farm, Betterton; Azariah M. Kendall, of Fairlee.

Delegates to the State Convention, were named as follows:

Col. Wm. J. Vannort, Wilbur Eliason, D. B. McMenamin, John D. Urie, Daniel Hill, James T. DeCorse, S. P. Townshend, Wm. G. Symth, L. B. Russell, Thos. W. Trew, Joseph Downey, Purnell Jump, Harvey D. McClary, Robert Murray, R. H. Barroll, colored.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Col. Wm. J. Vannort, chairman of the committee on Resolutions, presented the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

"The Republicans of Kent county, Maryland, in convention assembled this 4th day of September, 1905, point with pride to our model President of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, whose ability, energy, honesty, integrity and many other good qualities too numerous to mention, have come out so prominently during his administration, and stamped him as the greatest living man on earth today, and now famous in every civilized country on the face of the globe by reason of the conclusion of peace between the Japanese and Russians through his efforts.

To him we send greetings of good cheer, and congratulate ourselves that our country is so fully honored, breathing ever a prayer that long may his useful life be spared for the good of the country he is so well serving.

He it was who said let every man have a square deal, and we believe in a square deal for every man, therefore be it resolved that we pledge our best efforts to the defeat of the so called Poe amendment, whose object is to decrease the elective franchise of the State of Maryland, that we hold and history proves that the best and most successful governments are those in which the greatest number of citizens participate, and we are opposed to any decrease of any elective franchise.

We charge and we will show that the democrats intend if the so-called Poe-amendment is carried and they are in control to submit another amendment for the purpose of limiting the elective franchise to a certain class of tax-payers, and which may be still followed by others till the favored few have entire control.

We are opposed to any legislation that provides for the leasing of the oyster bottoms (barren or fertile.) We claim the State owes it to the tongers along the oyster regions to provide measures looking to the replenishing of the depleted beds and otherwise increasing the oyster yield, therefore we oppose most earnestly the Haman Bill, and our candidates for the legislature are instructed to work and vote against it.

We would call the attention of the voters to the fraud practiced, whereby an attempt was made to appropriate several thousand dollars more for public printing than the law signed by the Governor had provided, but commend the prompt action of Governor Warfield in seeking to discover the miscreant and preventing the fraudulent scheme from going through.

We also commend Governor Warfield and Attorney General Bryan in the stand they are taking against the socalled Poe-amendment. They are right and everybody should know it."

Declinations

Mr. Azariah M Kendall, is a well-known contractor and builder at Fairlee, served one term in Legislature, and was defeated several years ago, but is not anxious to be put up to be knocked down. He postively declines to serve as a candidate for any office desiring to give his whole time to his business and to his other duties.

Mr. L. Bates Russell has also been through a losing campaign and in a personal announcement makes this wise but strenuous and pertinent statement:

"The undersigned begs to say to the public that the action of the Republican County Convention, on Monday last, in nominating me to a place on the county ticket, was entirely without my knowledge or consent, and was wholly unauthorized.

While I appreciate to the full the kindly intentions thus manifested I can not but deplore the unwarranted use of my name in this connection. Under the most auspicious circumstances I have no inclination or desire for political honors or preferment, my position and sentiment in this particular being understood among my friends generally.

Furthermore it is quite well-known, among the local party leaders at least, that I have questioned the expediency or advisability of nominating a Republican county ticket at this time. This has been my well-defined judgement which is not changed or modified by any recent developments or circumstances. I am fully persuaded that the future welfare and best interests of the party would have been better subserved had the convention adjourned without naming any candidates for local offices.

For these reasons, and others, I can not allow the use of my name on the ticket and promptly so advised the courteous gentlemen who were delegated to notify me of the action of the convention."

Others will likely follow.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Kent County's Corps of Faithful Teachers Attend Lectures For a Week—Prof. Melvin Arranges an Ideal Program.

This has been institute week in Chestertown. It was a pleasure to see the happy faces of Kent's excellent corps of teachers and to note the avidity with which they have entered upon another year of hard work. It is evident from their appearance that they have had a happy summer for all seem to have grown stouter and better looking.

Prof. Melvin has worked hard to present a program that would be helpful and entertaining and more than fulfilled his desire. The weather man, too, favored the ladies and it has been a week of rare delights.

Below will be found a stenographic report of the proceedings prepared by one of the most faithful and efficient teachers in the association:

MONDAY MORNING.

Prayer.....Dr. D. L. Greenfield
Music.....Institute
Announcement of Committee, Arthur Greenwood, Caroline Smyth, Mattie Hazel.
Address "Economy in Education," Prof. W. A. Garrison, of Western Maryland College.
Address, "Essentials in Geography," Prof. G. B. Taylor, Millington.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Music....."Old Folks at Home."
Language, 3rd and 4th Grades. Miss Nora Boston, of Urieville. A careful exposition of the scheduled work.
Address, Elementary Phychology." Prof. W. A. Garrison. All mental and physical training should culminate in action.
Address, "Physical Culture." Miss Lula Thomas, Piney Neck A well written plea for more time to be devoted to the physical development of the child in the school room.
Language, 5th and 6th grades, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Sassafras. An excellent paper upon the work for the coming year.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT—Stam's Hall.

Orchestra, Miss Louise Stam, Messrs. Rudolf and Donald Stam, Kemp Bordley and Mr. Plummer, of Centreville. This was fine music.
Recitation, "Legend of Bragan," Miss Sara Hessey. A very graceful selection.
Lecture, "A Trip to the Old World," Dr. Charles C. Boyer. This was delivered in his usual pleasing manner, making one wish to make a walking tour in Europe.

TUESDAY MORNING.

Prayer.....Rev. W. L. White
Instrumental Solo.....Anna Burch Smith
Address "The Nobility of the Teacher's Work." Dr. Boyer. Having an ideal will give a teacher magnetic influence. To mold immortal spirits is better than painting an immortal picture.
Methods in Recitation, Prof. H. E. Austin, of the Maryland State Normal School. To illustrate a work the teachers have been studying a model lesson in geography. This was the first appearance of Prof. Austin and he made a favorable impression.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Address, "The Heart of the Child in the School Room." Dr. Boyer. Let us train the heart as well as the intellect. On the street thousands of teachers try to undo the good we would do. This is Dr. Boyer's second appearance in Kent and his talk will bring results for good.
Piano Solo.....Miss Carrie Wright
"Primary Reading and Literature," presented by Miss Belle Upshur, of the Maryland State Normal School, showed her to be a worker of no little skill and she met a hearty welcome.
The talk upon Arithmetic by Prof. Garrison caused a discussion which was interesting to all. His work shows him to be an earnest and sincere thinker.

EVENING—Stam's Hall.

A large audience assembled in Stam's Hall to hear that famous speaker, Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, of Western Maryland College. Owing to the delay of the boat Dr. Lewis did not reach here until 9 o'clock. While waiting the audience was delightfully entertained by Mr. George White, who sang "Good Bye," Miss Mable Toulson accompanist; violin solo, Mr. Kemp Bordley, accompanied by Master James Bacchus, pianist; recitation, Prof J. L. Smyth. The waiting audience was amply repaid, for Dr. Lewis gave a most learned and interesting address on "The Ethics of Expression," a subject which has received too little attention by teachers.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Prayer.....Mr. J. L. Smyth
Music.....Institute
"Methods of Recitation....Prof. H. E. Austin
"Primary Reading and Literature," a model lesson in story telling for children to a class of little ones from the Chestertown School.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

"Arithmetic," Prof. Garrison. All his work shows him to be a man of solid, practical work.
Recitation, "Friar Philip," Miss Anna Melvin
"Primary Reading and Literature," a continuation of the morning's work.

Prof. O. C. Blades, of the Chestertown school, had a place on the program for both morning and afternoon but courteously yielded his time to the visiting instructors. His subject "Paper Folding" and "Drawing" are of great interest to all teachers and he promises that they will be given at the November Association.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Prayer.....Rev. W. L. White
Address.....Miss Upshur
Solo, "Guide Thou My Bark,".....
.....Miss Addie Hurlock
How to Teach Buehler's Grammar," by Prof. J. L. Smyth, was a helpful paper.
"Methods of Teaching," by Prof. H. E. Austin, was a review of the previous work and an interesting lesson of the beet sugar industry to which the U. S. is devoting much attention.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING SESSION.

Piano Solo, "Lilly of the Valley," by Miss Edna Watkins, of the Western High School Baltimore.
Addresses by Prof. Austin and Miss Upshur.
Vocal Solo, "Hear, O Israel,".....
.....Miss Eva Hurlock.
Lecture, "Tuberculosis," Dr. Brush, of Baltimore, who was introduced by Dr. Hines. This was a timely paper which should have been listened to by everyone interested in the welfare of their families and those around them.
A skilful violin solo by Mr. Warren Hurlock closed the evening's program.

The Institute closed yesterday at noon after a very interesting session. Dr. M. B. Stephens, Prof. Roland Watts and Prof. Austin each made excellent addresses, Misses Bertie Burchinal and Mildred Crawford deserve commendation for their playing as accompanists. The Resolutions will appear next week.

MOODY & LUSBY's clothing emporium has been repapered by W. L. Fowler.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Held in Kennedyville Thursday, Mrs. Corey Presiding — Rev. Dr. Shaw's Fine Address.

The 20th convention of the W. C. T. U., of Kent county, was held at Kennedyville Thursday and proved a big success. An unusual large number of ministers were present and joined in the discussions which became animated and profitable. The logical paper by Mr. T. D. Bowers, called for the suggestion from a pastor for its publication. All old officers were elected.

A crowded house greeted Rev. Miss Anna Shaw to listen to her renowned lecture, "The American Home." She made clear the difference between a housekeeper and home keeper. Home is a failure where fathers and mothers do not join in the government for best welfare of the family. The hand that rocks the cradle, rules only in the cradle. Mothers are home keepers, fathers the street keepers. Touching on the need of curfew laws, many children only had the street for exercise in open air and they need to be purified. No life in a community but effects a community. A well trained conscience constitutes a police force within the soul. Resolutions will appear in the NEWS next week.

Married.—Mr. Jos. T. Nichols, supt. at Chestertown, of the Diamond State Telephone Co, and Miss Cora Smith were married in Baltimore, on Tuesday. They are making their home at the Loud House, Chestertown.

Corner Stone Laying.—On Tuesday next at 5.30 in the afternoon, Bishop Coleman will, D. V., lay the corner stone of the new Episcopal church in Millington. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Farm Sold.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lusby have purchased through R. D. Hynson, Esq., attorney, the Camp farm in Broad Neck belonging to Mr. C. W. Nickerson, for $6250. This farm contains about 200 acres.

J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold to John T. Faulkner, of Baltimore, the Thomas E. Brice house and lot in Betterton for $600.

Fodder Saving.—Kent farmers are in the midst of cutting off corn and find labor very scarce. In some parts of the county help is paid $1 and $1.25 per day. Nathaniel Thomas, of Milford, however, breaks all records for "help wanted" advertisements. He says in an advertisement in the Milford Chronicle:

"I will pay three dollars per day to men who will pull as many blades as I will; but if they fail to pull as many as I do, they are then to receive only $1.50 per day."

A young farmer, of near Kennedyville, says he can't get a good day's work done unless he goes ahead of the men. They follow in fine style. A "Farmers' Labor Union" is becoming a necessity.

Sale of Farms.—J. H. C. Legg, Esq., on Saturday sold at public sale at Millington the Wm. Barnes farm, near Unicorn Woolen Mills, and advertised in KENT NEWS, to Mr. John Barnes at $46 per acre. The farm contains 160 acres and is tenanted by the purchaser.

Mr. Z. Porter Lusby, of Cecilton, has purchased of John J. Black a 346 acre farm in first district of Cecil county for $12,500.

A. COHEN will begin his holiday sale at once. Look out for his list of prices next week.

J. D. LUCAS' clothing establishment is undergoing a big change. About thirty feet is being added to the depth and the interior remodeled.

HAGUE, Hackett & Turner, Still Pond, state that their Runabouts and Buggies are new fall stock and include the celebrated Cortland. They will cut the price 10 per. cent for introduction.

J. M. South has rented the photograph gallery on Queen street and will return to Chestertown next week.

Barlow and Wilson and their own big minstrel company will be here today Sat. 9. A grand street parade will be given at noon.

The Misses Hendricksons entertained quite a number of young people at their hospitable home the past week. Those in the crowd were: Misses Janet and Margaret King and Miss Reba Stewart and Messrs. E. L. Cronin and James Stewart, of Baltimore; Messrs. Robert Riley and J. A. Mann, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Harry Hendrickson, of the county.

THE Express office in Chestertown will be removed next year to Cross street next door to Davidson's marble yard.
