ROCK HALL NOTES.

The M. E. Services were quite largely attended on Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Burr delivered an eloquent and instructive discourse on the "Purpose of Christs' coming, the obstacles in the way of that purpose and the assurance of a final triumph," using as his text Isa. 42: 4. The good Parson has entered his third year's pastoral work among us with large enthusiasm and fondest hopes. If his flock will reciprocate with half the zeal, this conference year will be a record breaker along all lines. The S. S. service of the afternoon was highly entertaining, the superintendent being at his best in reviewing the vital points of the day's lesson from a black board rich in artistic design. The evening service was the climax of the day in both interest and attendance.

We learn that a survey of the outside walks of the church will be made and an estimate of cost of connecting them be given in a few days with a view to have the work done shortly. This is a good move. The ladies are planning to have the church floor newly carpeted and the Epworth League are endeavoring to rush the bell movement to completion.

On this Saturday evening in Durding's hall will be held a song, musical and literary social under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society. Refreshments will also be a feature.

There are fewer churches, fewer Sunday Schools, fewer Epworth League Societies in our Conference than there were five years ago; ¼ is the record for the Baltimore annual Conference and yet the body is preparing a way for a still greater decline by meddling with politics as seen in Tuesday's Sun.

The death of one of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Willson's twin boys aged 5 years with cerebro spinal meningitis on Sunday is peculiarly sad. Mr. Willson and his family reside in Brooklyn, New York, where Mr. Wilson is employed as traveling salesman for Claflin & Co. Mrs. Willson, who was Miss Ida Newcomb before marriage, and her children left New York on Saturday morning and reached the home of her parents on the same evening by way of Tolchester. The little boy was taken sick on the boat and continued to grow worse until his death on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Willson is on a business trip to Charleston, S. C., and did not learn of his child's death until Tuesday. The funeral rites were conducted on Monday afternoon; interment at St. John's cemetery.

A young man living with Mr. L. E. Smith met with a serious accident on Tuesday. He was hauling manure when the horses became frightened and ran off the team colliding with a house, the wagon over turned catching the young man beneath it, the bones of one limb just above the ankle were broken and he was otherwise injured. Dr. Beal rendered professional service but deemed it wise to send the injured man to the hospital. Accordingly he was put on board of Capt. Jessie Middleton's vessel who took him to Steelton thence by train to the city.

The very fine weather has put a hustle on our residents as a consequence, there are improvements being made to property &c. Ayres and company are repairing the "Copper" in Alexville.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr have made a large mound in the church yard which they will adorn with handsome flowers.

Mr. J. C. Kendall is the early gardener this year, his plantings all being up and growing finely. Capt. J. P. Hatcherson is the next earliest, much of his planting is in fine growth. The Capt. has a new and first class cook for this year and he is compelled to hustle in order that the cook be fully supplied with vegetables for table use.

Miss Minnie Sewell, of the city, is now home in this place for several weeks stay. Miss Ella Sanford, of the city is also a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A Smith.

Mr. Jos. W. Kendall has returned to Tolchester, where he is employed as wharf agent during the spring and summer season.

Our fishermen were much amazed at the big drop in the price for shad last week, if such a drop occurs in mid lent the men wonder where the bottom will be when the people cease their fasting.

The Sunday schools here are now lined up for a grand Easter entertainment.

Mr. John A. Hersch who was reported quite ill last week, died on Tuesday, he was one of our most respected citizens, we all loved him and will greatly miss him, he was about 89 years of age, and up to his 75 year was a most active and industrious man, he was an Odd Fellow belonging to Iris Lodge No. 48, of Baltimore. The Lodge here had charge of him in his illness. Mr. Hersch was born in Lowell, Mass., in the year of 1816. He was one of four children two sisters and one brother survive him. They are Mrs. E. A. Watkins 92 years old, of Washington, Mrs. M. L. Sumwalt and Charles H. Hersch, of Baltimore. While yet a youth the parents of Mr. Hersch moved from Mass., to Baltimore where h grew up and was educated in the schools of the City. He was at one time on the Police Force of the City. About 50 years ago he moved with his family to this county where he engaged in Agriculture at Fairlee, he lived there about three years, when he moved to Rock Hall where lie spent the rest of his life. Mr. Hersch was always a healthy man and worked at his trade, that of a carpenter until a few years ago. He has been a member of Iris Lodge I. O. O. F. of Baltimore, for more than sixty years. He leaves 7 children, 17 grand-children and 2 great grand children. His children are as follows, Mrs. A. R. Linder, of Baltimore, John M. Hersch, Mrs. A. Casey, Mrs. P. G. Middleton, Mrs. W. N. Ayres, Mrs. B. C. Legg and Mrs. Joseph W. Apsley, all of Rock Hall. The funeral took place at his daughter's residence Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. Services were conducted by Revs. Warren Burr and G. S. Conaway. His body was laid to rest beside that of his deceased wife in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. Thomas, W. K. Ayres, G. B. Downey, C. A. Leary, J. L. Leary, and J. C. Kendall. Undertaker Casey had charge of funeral, etc.

It is reported that the steamboat company has secured control of Sharp's Wharf, henceforth power packet, will cease her trips between here and the City, as a frieght conveyance.

A move is now on foot to petition Congress for a deepening of our harbor to the public landing and build a new Wharf, then. A number of our business men, together with influential whole sale merchants of the City, have the matter in charge.

Mr. H. Kimball, has just put a first class improvement to his lawn drive, by spreading a heavy coat of cinders.

Mr. Snowden Maslin is also making an improvement to his property by the erection of a neat picket fence etc.

W. T. PIPPIN is erecting a new dwelling for Mr. Copper on "old Kentuck," near Chester bridge.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Maryland Day was most beautifully observed here on Friday last. The children did much credit to their teacher for the brilliant manner they spoke their pieces. A very large company of visitors from our vicinity and parents of the children were all present. And a most beautiful program and essay by teacher and children were rendered. An elegant collation of ice cream and cakes in abundance were served and the sweet little waitresses with their tiny caps of orange and black looked very cute indeed.

Messers. Jacob T. Shallcross and Harry Griffith left on Tuesday morning for near Kennett Square, driving the entire distance by the way of Wilmington.

Mrs. Shepperd Morris, of Sassafras, assumed her duties as Post Mistress on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Phenis Jones are entertaining relatives from Philadelphia, at their home here.

Miss Leoh Vansant visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Atwell near town Saturday.

Miss Alice Dreka is visiting friends at McDonough for the past fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stradley, of Galena, visited their daughter Mr. and Mrs. William Stradley, of Sassafras, for the day Friday.

Mr and Mrs. Archie Biggs and children, of Chesapeake City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and children, of near Black's, were entertained by his parents for dinner on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston.

Mrs. Rachel Stradley and two children, Mr Robert Johnston and three children were entertained for dinner on Sunday by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, of Sassafras.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stradley entertained his sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and children for supper on Sunday evening.

On Tuesday morning to-day Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Griffith left Sassafras after a sojourn here of fifty some years, for a new home near Kennett Square, Chester county, as Mr. and Mrs. Griffith bid good bye to their Sassafras friends there was not a dry eye, indeed one dear lady said it seemed like a funeral to her, what wi l we do without them? Mr. Griffith was head of the church and an Elder for many years, sung in the choir, superintendent of our Sabbath school never absent always bright and cheerful, a kind word for every one indeed. I don't know how the church and people will get along without him.
