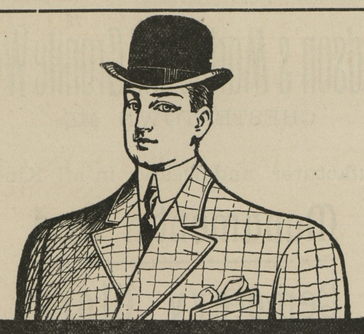
MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY



INTERNATIONAL TAILORING STANDS HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE EVERY OTHER KIND

The wearer of MOODY & LUSBY CLOTHES always stands out from his fellow men, his style is faultless his fit perfect, his appearance smart and swagger. Yet his dress costs him no more than if he wore the ill fitting, poorly made kind.

Our Spring Suits

Hats and Haberdashery

are all ready for you.

The new styles are very handsome—more attractive than usual, we think—and you know from long trading here that this store always gives its patrons the best at fair and satisfactory prices.

The Shapes Are Such That Most Any Man Can Be Perfectly Fitted Here

as the Lord made some men slimmer than they really ought to be, or taller, or shorter, or stouter, or both slimmer and taller, slimmer and shorter, stouter and taller, or shorter and stouter. Nevertheless the man who's built in an unusal sort of way doesn't feel like accepting his proportions as an excuse for ill-fitting garments.

Come In And Let Us Show You How We Can Fit You and the cost will be an agreeable surprise for our large output enables us to submit prices materially under smaller dealers. EVERY PIECE OF MERCHANDISE IN OUR ESTABLISHMENT IS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES, which makes trading here very satisfactory and an assurance of no partiality. Come look the line over while the assortment is complete.

Conference Notes.

Dr. D. L. Greenfield, of Chestertown, preached the ordination sermon Sunday morning, and it was up to his usual high standard. The new elders include Rev. Frank Middleton Clift, 36 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Saxton G. Clift, of Kent county, who has been preacher for Amelia Circuit, Virginia.

Rev. Benjamin August Bryan, 23 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Bryan, of Chestertown, Kent county, who has been preacher on Marley Circuit, Anne Arundel county.

Vigorous exception was taken to the story in a morning paper which says that President Little, as one of the prerogatives of the office, has formed the habit, set in vogue some years ago by Lieutenant Hobson, of kissing the pretty girls in his district, and that on some mysterious way he has succeeded in avoiding the elderly matrons and old maids. The matter was brought before the conference by Rev. Dr. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, who said that in order to avoid any unpleasant discussion he would present a resolution calling for a committee from the conference to visit the editor of the paper and present a respectful protest on the behalf of the body of ministers. An effort made to discuss the clauses referred to was quickly put down, and a committee composed of Dr. J. W. Hering, W. B. Usilton and Daniel Baker was appointed to register a protest, which was done and the statement corrected. Even after the appointment of this committee a second effort was made by Dr. Jones to have the kissing clause investigated by the conference, and this again failed.

Miss M. Julia Thompson delighted the large audience Sunday night by her sweet singing.

The next conference will meet in Washington at Rhode Island Avenue.

Rev. W. M. Strayer and wife will make their future home with their son, Rev. Paul Strayer, who is pastor of a large Congregational Church in New York and gets a salary of $5,000.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

What is "Doing" Among Your Friends and Acquaintances in Kent and Elsewhere.

Hon. Wm. T. Hepbron was a welcome caller in the NEWS office Wednesday. He is enjoying fine health and is chuck full of politics. He spent the last few months in Annapolis and did much effective work to defeat the Canal toll bill.

Mr. H. C. Lusby, near town, has been sick with grip together with six others in the same house, viz., Miss Lollie, Herbert, William and two servants.

Prof. Roland Watts, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, on Washington Avenue.

Miss Katharine Hopper, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Rosalie M. Schuyler has returned from a visit to the annual Water Color Exhibition at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Philadelphia of which she is a member of the Alumni Association of Artists. Mrs. Schuyler also visited Mrs. Holbrook, wife of Maj. Holbrook, U. S. Army, of the Chester Military Academy, of which Mr. Claude H. Schuyler was a cadet. Major and Mrs. Holbrook have only recently returned from the Phillipine Islands, and Mrs. Holbrook being an artist of note has a collection of beautiful pictures and sketches of these islands.

Mr. Jesse Graham, of Maryland Agricultural College, is visiting his brother Mr. Harry Graham, Chestertown.

Rev. W. N. Sherwood visited his mother in Chestertown this week. He has been moved from Wilmington to Trappe, Md.

Miss Grace Walbert, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Walbert, near Lanktord.

Dr. Thos. Lewis, of Western Maryland College, has been granted a leave of absence for a year and will take a trip to Europe with his daughters.

Messrs. Wm. Malin and Frank Embert are delegates to Jr. O. A. M. convention at Westminster next week.

Miss Anna Wilson, daughter of Dr. Wilson, after spending the winter in Washington, arrived home this week.

Mrs. Dr. Richard Gundry, of Catonsville, has been the guest of her brother, Dr. W. Frank Hines, in Chestertown.

Mrs. Milburn Davis and son spent several days last week with Mrs. Fannie Davis, on Mill street.

Mrs. Frank Getschall has been sick for ten days with pleurisy.

Mrs. A. L. Davidson has returned from a pleasant visit to Wilmington and elsewhere.

Mr. Hooton Blackiston of Cumberland, is the guest of his aunt, Miss Jane Blackiston, on Washington avenue.

At a big fire in Westminster early one morning last week Mr. Walter Graham, son of Dr. W. R. Graham, was injured, but not seriously.

Mr. Thomas L. Zenker and bright son, Joseph, of Philadelphia, have been visiting in Kent. Mr. Z. has been away from this county for eleven years, but still loves the old place.

Miss Joanna Knight is very much improved.

Mr. Charles Estes, notary public for Kent county, celebrated his 76th birthday Wednesday. May he live to enjoy many others.

Col. Wm. J. Vannort attended the elegant banquet of the G. A. R. in Baltimore on Monday evening. Col. Vannort is one of the most honored members of the Maryland branch. He took an active interest in securing the appropriation for the Union monument to be erected in Baltimore.

Mail Carrier Atwell is having his lip treated in Baltimore for cancer. It is hoped that the treatment may prove successful.

State's Attorney W. W. Beck was in Easton this week on business.

Miss Susie Mann is assisting in Jefferson's millinery department. She is quite an artist in this business.

Mr. William J. Butler has been appointed postmaster at Locust Grove, vice J. C. Haggerty, resigned.

Miss Frances Anthony, of Chestertown, was maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Olive Anthony to Frank M. Buckingham, last week. She wore white French Muslin and a sash of pompadour ribbon.

Beautiful New Spring Styles at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s, Baltimore.

It is worth a trip to Baltimore just to see the new Hats, Suits, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics, Laces, Embroideries and so on at Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s, Howard and Lexington Streets.

Everybody who knows their store at all well calls it "Baltimore's Best Store," and it fully deserves the title. Everything in the store is fashionable and of good quality, and prices are always fair.

Almost every need—whether for person or home— can be supplied by Hochschild, Kohn & Co. You can order them by mail if it not convenient to go to Baltimore, and your order will be filled as carefully as though you were at the store. They pay freight on purchases of $5.00 or more to any point within 125 miles of Baltimore. See their large advertisement in this paper.
