LOCAL NEWS.

THE NEWS has had made an excellent picture showing the new Sunday school room and tower now being erected by the congregation of Emmanuel church, Chestertown. This picture will appear in the NEWS next week.

Prof. M. B. Stephens in Kent.—Prof. M. Bates Stephens, Supt. of the public schools of Maryland, was in Chestertown this week. He made an address before the Chestertown school and among other things said that the name of the school should be changed from Chestertown Public school to Chestertown High School, as the school here ranks with any in the State, both as to the high grade of work done and the handsome building. It is suggested that the inscription over the front door be changed to read "Chestertown High School."

Property Sales.—The real estate in Cecil county owned by the late ex-Senator Wirt, of Elkton, was sold at public sale Tuesday. The Wirt farm in the First district, on the south side of the Bohemia River, containing 300 acres, with improvements, was purchased by Samuel Hurlock, of Kent county, for $13,600. The residence of the deceased, on East Main street, Elkton, was sold to Dr. Charles M. Ellis for $4,700. A small farm near Baldwin's, in the Fourth district, was purchased by Mrs. McLaughlin for $840.

Announcement.—The wedding of Miss Sadie Francis Morris, the daughter of Mr. William Morris, of Chestertown, and Edw. Elmore Skirven, Baltimore, formerly of Kent, is announced to take place on Saturday, April 29th, at the home of the bride-elect. It is to be very quiet.

Mrs. Emily J. Stewart announces the wedding of her daughter, Miss Gertrude, to Mr. Wade Sorden, of Baltimore, to take place on Wednesday, 19th, 1905 at her home in Balto.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elliot, of Whitehall, have sent out invations to the wedding of their daughter, Mr. Howard Sydney Dryden, of Baltimore, Wednesday evening April 26, in the Presbyterian Church.

FRUIT PROSPECT GOOD.

James S. Harris, Esq., of Still Pond, says the prospect for a good crop of peaches is excellent. He has examined several orchards and finds that nearly all the varieties have plenty of buds. He says the Globe and Chairs are hurt the most severely and are very shy of buds. He finds that the red fruit seem to be very plentiful and there is every indication that the Reeves, Elberta and the other fine yellow varieties will bear well.

Mr. Harris says the pear trees are full of bloom, especially the Kieffer, and from present prospects will bear a big crop.

FINE PLOT FRUSTRATED!

Wholesale Delivery of Prisoners Planned but Sheriff Keyser Finds the Tools and Spoils the Scheme.

Saturday night about 9 o'clock Sheriff Keyser thought he heard a saw at work in one of the cells of the Chestertown jail. He went upstairs and upon investigation found one or two iron bars sawed in to and all arrangements made for the escape of Hayes Comegys, Harry Hopkins and Emory Sewell.

Saws, files and knives were discovered in the cells and everything needful for the event. A hearing was held before Justice Hicks Wednesday and Joe Walker, Edw. Williams and Marion Comegys were held for action of grand jury on a charge of assisting prisoners to escape. While at work sawing the bars it was the habit of the prisoners to be busily engaged in singing!

MR. KIDD MARRIED.

Our quiet but very-much alive town as well as the whole county had quite a surprise sprung on them Monday morning when the news went abroad that Miss Margaret Susie Bristow was at ten o'clock that morning married to Mr. Charlton Kidd. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Essex at the bride's home near Stormont and was witnessed by a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Lottie Bristow and Mr. R. L. Davis were the waiters, and Mrs. J. W. Topping played the wedding march.

For the past three years Miss Susie has been chief operator in the telephone exchange at this place and there is hardly a more widely known young lady in the three adjoining counties than she. Keeping a telephone exchange is no desirable position and while many would at times find fault of Miss Susie, yet we doubt if there is another so efficient and courteous to be found who will fill her place. She is a most attractive young lady and has a large number of friends in this section who extend her their very best wishes. She is a daughter of the late Hon. Jos. A. Bristow, member of the recent Constitutional Convention.

Mr. Kidd, is formerly of Kent, but has been living in this county several years. He is a son of Mrs. Geo. W. Bramble, who lives at "Oakes," on Urbanna creek. He is a carpenter by trade and is associated with H. T. Guthrie, building contractor, of West Point Mr. Kidd is a Christan young man of a very high standing and like his popular bride has a host of friends who congratulate him on his good luck.—Ex.

THE Cecil County Commissioners appointed Andrew Biggs, of the Second district, bridge tender at Sassafras, and George K. Patterson, of the Seventh district, standard keeper for Cecil Co.

Spray Pumps

"THE ECLIPSE"

Having used most of the pumps on the market, I think the ECLIPSE much the best, and have discarded all others, am now using two of them. I have accepted the agency for their sale in Kent and Queen Anne's counties. Any one wanting one and will call on me, can see the Pump and all its parts that they may get what they want for spraying their trees. Having had twelve years experience with pumps I think I am a competent judge. Call on or address

Thousands of People Have Been Delighted With Our Free Exhibition of Artist Astley D. M. Cooper's

FAMOUS $25,000 PAINTING

A Picture That Tells a Thrilling Tale, "The Story of the Evil Spirit."

It is Simply Marvelous and Worth Coming Miles To See. It Is Something You Will Never Forget

We have secured for a limited time for exhibition purposes Astley D. M. Cooper's famous $25,000 painting, "The Story of the Evil Spirit," the most sensationally realistic picture in existence. You may see it free of charge on our Third Floor (near Art Department.)

The subject presents in a vivid manner an incident of the recent Indian War. An Indian chief is reciting in a dramatic way the "Story of the Evil Spirit," and two white captives—sisters—guarded by a squaw, listen to him with intense fear, believing he is referring to their coming torture and death. Their faces betray their agitation. Various other strong features in the picture also appear to the beholder.

There will also be exhibited a number of Mr. Cooper's other productions, among them "The Gold-Hunter's Fate," "An Old Warrior," Buffalo and Indian Relics," "The Happy Hunting Ground," "The Serenade," "The Coming of Spring," "The Pool of Love," "Evening."
