PAUL JONES is buried.

THE town sprinkler would not be out of place. Now is the time to get it ready for use.

AND now the Baltimore Evening News is trying to make Congressman J. F. C. Talbott U. S. Senator.

THE muskrat hunters of Kent county are offended by the action of Gov. Warfield in vetoeing their bill introduced by Delegate Crane.

HOBSON has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of Alabama and will surely be elected. Who knows but what this young man may yet reach the Presidency?

THE following committee has been reappointed by Chief Judge J. A. Pearce to audit the finances of Kent County: James S. Harris, Harry C. Willis and Wilbur Eliason. He could not have selected a better committee.

THE political pot has begun to simmer and several candidates for offices to be filled next year have been announced by their friends. Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., is named as a candidate for State's Attorney against Wm. W. Beck, Esq., while Senator Garrett Foxwell is said to be in a receptive mood for another term. Capt. Curtis E. Crane is being urged by friends to serve as a candidate for State senate.

A Rich Nation.

The San Francisco disaster has brought out the humanity of the American people. More than thirteen million dollars have been contributed to the relief of the distressed besides tons of food stuffs, clothing and needful articles. Everybody has been touched by the awful catastrophe and the purse strings have been loosened.

The city of San Francisco will rise again more beautiful than ever. The oss is estimated at 1200 lives and $225,000,000!

Thousands of persons have taken refuge in adjoining States, the trains having carried 200,000 persons from the striken city free.

PATRONIZE HOME TRADE.

For some days the mails to Kent county have been burdened with catalogs from Chicago and New York houses offering to sell clothing, neckwear, harness, implements and articles of various kinds at cheap rates. When the catalog comes from the mail order house draw an easy chair up to the table where the light shines full on the page, and put on your glasses that no bargains may escape your eye. You would miss some things you would be glad to see and they are these: Where is their offer to pay cash for wheat, oats, beans, hay, butter and eggs? How much do they pay for cattle, theep and hogs, f. o. b. at your depot? How much tax will they pay to educate your children, for improving roads and bridges, for the support of the county poor and for the expense of running the business of the state or county? On what page is their offer to contribute to the support of your church? In short will they do anything to provide a market for what you have to sell and thereby keep up the value of your property? Will they do anything for social, church, school or government support, or do they take dollars out of the community with no returns except the goods you buy? After you have pondered over this take up the KENT NEWS, look through its pages and see which of the local firms are liberal enough to speak to you through an advertisement. These may be trusted above the mail order house; others you may have reasons to question whether they are supporting their home institutions as they should. Do not forget it is your local merchants who form the bulwark of your town and county, support its institutions and protect your home and your trade and patronage is very necessary to keep up their standard and of the community in which you reside.

Mr. George D. Lofland Elected Town Commissioner Monday with but Little Opposition—Mr. Hirons Retires.

Mr. George D. Lofland, one of Chestertown's best citizens, was elected town commissioner Monday to serve for three years in place of Mr. J. W. Hirons, whose term expires May 1st. Not more than one-half the vote was cast and but little interest was manifest. The judges becoming tired of the motony, counted the tickets and when the polls closed at 6 o'clock they were ready to announce the result, viz., Lofland 84, Hirons 34, Jas. W. Coleman 5.

Mr. J. W. Hirons has made a faithful officer and is glad to retire from his thankless job. It is high-time that this arduous task of serving Chestertown had some pay attached to it.

Rev. Dr. Greenfield ably discussed the principles of the proposed union of the Methodist Protestant Church with the Congregationalist and United Brethren Churches at the morning service of Christ Church Sunday. The sentiment in its favor is fast increasing.

Suit For Wages.—Mr. J. Harry McWhorter through his attorney, R. Groome Parks, Esq., sued the Overall Co., of Chestertown, for $35 claimed to be due him for wages. Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., represented the Overall Co. The case heard before Justice R. W. Calder Wednesday and attracted considerable attention. Justice Calder gave a verdict in favor of Mr. McWhorter. The defendant noted an appeal.

Horse Notes.—Mr. Harry Willis, of near Betterton, was in town Wednesday behind his elegant pair of bay horses. He refused an offer of $450 for the pair last week. They are hard to beat.

Mr. J. Paynter, Sudlersville, has sold his six year old Advance mare to Mr. Cooper Tarbutton for a Wilmington party. The price paid was $600. She is a beautiful dark bay, good size, excellent driver, and gives promise of considerable speed.

Henry C. Stephens, Peter Stevens, Benjamin F. Stevens, Annie Magee, Richard Magee, her husband, versus

Mary E. Pearson, —— Pearson, her husband, John W. Stevens, Frank W. Stevens, Elizabeth F. Stevens, George W. Stevens, Michael Stevens.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree of this Honorable Court for the sale of the real estate of John Stevens, deceased, and to divide the proceeds among the heirs-at law.

The Bill states that a certain John Stevens, late of Queen Anne's county, deceased, was in his lifetime seized and possessed of certain valuable real estate in Kent county, Maryland, consisting of a farm situated in the First Election District of Kent county, and also a lot of land situated in the town of Millington, in said county; and being so seized and possessed departed this life some time in the year 1906 intestate, leaving a widow, Ida Stevens, and your orators, Henry C. Stevens, Peter Stevens, Benjamin F. Stevens, Annie Magee, and the defendants, Mary E. Pearson, of the State of Delaware, John W. Stevens, Frank W. Stevens, Elizabeth F. Stevens, George W. Stevens and Michael Stevens, his only children and heirs at-law; and the said John W. Stevens, Frank W. Stevens, Elizabeth F. Stevens, George W. Stevens and Michael Stevens are infants, under the age of twenty-one years, and all reside in Queen Anne's county, Maryland.

And the Bill states that the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as above stated, and that in order to make a division of said interests, it will be necessary that the said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests.

It is, therefore, this 25th day of April, 1906, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county in Equity, that the Plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of May next, giving notice to Mary E. Pearson and —— Pearson, her husband, of the State of Delaware, and non-residents of the State of Maryland, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of June next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of our dear baby, ANNA ELIZABETH LEAGER, whose spirit passed into eternal life two years ago, April 25, 1906.

Two long sad years have passed,
Since our dear loved one has left us
Think we while the tear drops start,
But the memory of our dear loved one
Still is fresh within our hearts.
Friends may think I'll soon forget her,
And my wounded heart be healed
But they little know the sorrow
Thats within my heart concealed.
No words will be as sweet
As the words she used to say,
No day will ever be as sad
As the day she passed away
Dear Anna thou art calmly sleeping
In the cold and silent tomb,
And I am left here weeping
In this dark world of gloom.
The cup is more than bitter,
The loss is severe
To part with her we love so dear,
The trial was hard, will not complain
But hope in Heaven to meet her again.

BY HER MOTHER.

In sad but loving remembrance of ROY MCGINNESS, died Nov. 4th, 1905, age 13 years, 2 months and 27 days.

Near brother, thou hast left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

How sudden was the summons
When word came that he was dead;
Time was too short to say fareweli
To those he loved so well,
He's gone, but was so young and fair,
He slumbers sweet, but knows no care;
His heart was true, his life so young,
Yet not our will, but God's, be done.

MOTHER AND FATHER.

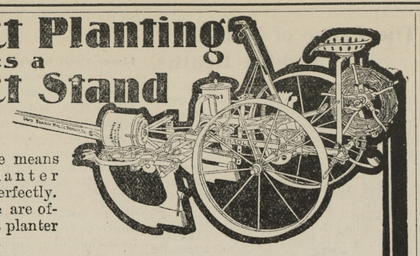
Perfect Planting Makes a Perfect Stand



To have these means to use a planter that works perfectly. We know we are offering such a planter in the

Bradley No. 1 Force Drop.

The drop is accurate—any desired number of kernels can be dropped in a hill—special plates being furnished for that purpose, when desired. It is the only planter that has a plunger in the feed tube, which forces the corn out of the tube so that clogging and consequent failure to drop correctly is impossible. Fast driving does not scatter the corn, because the hoot is so constructed that a reserve hill-deposit is always held two inches from the mouth of the boot. In other makes of planters, on account of falling 12 or more inches, the corn scatters at the least variance of the speed of team. Plates can be changed without removing the seed—the tip-box making this possible. No more tired arms, nor blistered hands from releasing check wire—Automatic Check-wire Release does away with this. The Bradley No. 1 is the favorite in all sections. Call and see it. It costs nothing to examine it, and we are glad to answer all questions. Come in and give us your opinion.
