A Word or Two About Hats, please

The Spring Shapes and Colorings are here to your liking, in most any conceivable shade or shape. Dainty soft effects in Browns, Greys, Havana, Laurel, Sicilian, Etc., in Hats and Caps for the aged, young or middle age. Nice assortment as great many exclusive city hat stores, and a saving to you of fully 25 per cent. A conservative estimate.

an attractive line of up-to-date merchandise we have demonstrated beyond question to a larger aggregation than ever before, our ability to sell them 15 to 20 per cent. less than can be had of city houses, and to those who think of the vast differences in expenses, being on an equal footing in purchasing, etc., this fact is plainly evident.

in winter stuff. Sold good many Suits and Overcoats the past week. Straight low prices the lever.

But don't delay—as all winter merchandise, Men's Overcoats, Boys' and Children's Overcoats, Suits, Underwear, Gloves and all winter merchandise will now be cleaned up at our well known cut prices. That are cut prices. A few words to the wise on this score is sufficient.

MINISTERS ASSIGNED

Adjournment Of The Maryland Annual Conference—Death Of Dr. J. J. Murray—Rev. Dr. Lewis Called To Pittsburg.

After a most pleasureable session lasting a week, the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church closed Tuesday evening. The delegates and ministers unite in extolling the hospitality shown them in Salisbury. Dr. Joshua W. Hering, speaking for the conference, said he had been to almost every conference during the past 35 years, and that this session from a social standpoint is unsurpassed. The sessions were full of interest and there was nothing of a character approaching a trial or charge during the entire session

F. T. Benson announced that a telegram had been received that Rev. Dr. J. J. Murray had died at his home in Pittsburg, Pa., in the early morning. This announcement caused intense regret and Dr. Hering moved that a memorial service be held in the afternoon, which was done. Dr. Murray was made a member of the conference in 1842 and was the next oldest to Dr. Southerland in point of service in the church. After the announcement of the death of Dr. Murray, the conference sang the hymns "In the Sweet By and By," and "When My Life's Work Is Ended." At the memorial services some very strong and touching speeches were made on the life and character of the deceased. Dr. Murray was a former pastor of Chestertown and is remembered here as a fine preacher and pastor. He leaves three children.
