Hands Across the Sea
From International Sleeves

John Bull reaches out from the London offices of the INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO. to shake hands with his cousin, Uncle Sam, in his New York headquarters. He is congratulating him on his enormous purchases of English woolens for the Griffon and International Clothing Manufacturers to make into Ready-to-Wear Fine Clothing especially for MOODY & LUSBY, the Clothing ouse of Chestertown.

You've probably heard of "Our Clothing" and "Our Prices" but in case you have not, you will find that you can buy advantageously here

Large assortment, well selected stock, popular prices, and you will learn by comparison that we either sell for less or give you something better than most dealers for the same price.

Pay Attention to This

If you are already a customer you know this to be the case; if you are not acquainted you better look us up. Don't be long about it either, for we have been quite busy distributing these values in—

Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats for the Men, Boys and Children

Since October first, and closer to the holidays the more busy we become and the more depleted the various lines become.

DON'T YOU PUT OFF

for the fifteenth of December what you might have done day before yesterday, but come at your earliest convenience.

In connection with the largest line of Clothing you'll find the greatest array of FURNISHING GOODS and HATS.

HESTERTOWN, - - MARYLAND.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

PORK is selling at 6 cents alive or 7½ cents dressed. Asher & Ireland are paying 15 cents for turkeys alive and 18 cents dressed. They have bought about 500.

THE best yields of corn reported in this section are those of Messrs. Jos. Everett and H. Clay Lusby—sixty bushels per acre

H. M. BROWN is paying 43½ and 44½ cents for corn.

THE home of Mr. J. D. Bacchus was entered Friday evening while the family were out and the house thoroughly searched for money. Only three cents were missing!

THE State Horticultural Society held their annual meeting in Baltimore this week. Among the exhibitors were Messrs. James Bell, James S. and Walter B. Harris, and others from Kent.

Early Lambs.—Mr. H. P. Skipper, on Primrose Manor, is the first to report early lambs. He has nine of the Rambouillet breed which will be ready for market early next year.

Big Hogs.—Mr. Beachamp at Brown & Morris' mill takes the prize for big hogs. He killed three hogs Tuesday which averaged 453 pounds. Who can equal it?

A Grand Success.—The supper served in Stam's Hall Wednesday evening by the ladies of Christ M. P. Church was a grand success in every particular. Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, chairman of the committee, ably assisted by the Colonel and Mr. W. W. Hubbard, are to be congratulated upon their efficient management. The presence of fifty men, members of the Masonic fraternity, all seated at one table made a pleasing feature. Their table was appropriately decorated with the Goat, on either side of which sat the two candidates for initiation, cut flowers, etc., and the charming waitresses were attentive to the wants of everyone. They netted about $110

Fires.—An alarm of fire was sounded in Chestertown Sunday morning and but for the use of a hand fire extinguisher a big loss might have occured. A lot of hot ashes were emptied on a pile of boxes, paper and rubbish in Geo. Z. Roland's yard and the flames were making towards the house when discovered.

The stables and shedding on the Maria Knight farm, located near Black station and tenanted by Mr. A. T. Dushane were destroyed by fire about nine o'clock Sunday morning last. Three horses and a colt, fifteen tons of hay and a quantity of long fodder was also burned. The building was insured for $330 in the Kent Mutual Company, and the live stock for $375 in the Continental, represented by Mr. James G. Beck.

The horses were in the pound and instead of leaving the fire rushed headlong to their doom.

Property Sales.—The Judefind farm, near Edesville, has been sold to Mr. Benjamin F. Durding, of Rock Hall, for $3500. Mr. Judefind has a large tract of timber in Virginia to which he will devote his attention.

Robert Anderson and wife have sold to The Cecilton Creamery of Cecil county, the 10 acre property in Cecilton, for $4,000.

Henry A. Warburton, trustee, sold to James T. Watts, lot at Cecilton, $36.

Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., attorney, sold this week to Mr. D. W. McIntyre the house on College Avenue belonging to Mr. Arthur K. Joiner for $600; to Mr. Arthur K. Joiner he sold the house on High street occupied by Mr. Joseph Lewis and belonging to Mrs. Mary E. Perkins for $1050.

Mr. H. M. Baldwin, a well-known canner of Aberdeen, was in town this week negotiating for the purchase of the cannery at the old depot, Chestertown, from the American Strawboard Co at $2500. At this writing the deal has not been consummated.

Masonic Night.—Wednesday night was a red-letter evening in the history of Chester Lodge A. F. and A. M. No. 115. Grand Lecturer Graham Dukehart was present and congratulated Grand Master H. G. Simpers and the Lodge upon its flourishing condition and its excellent work. Messrs. Nicholas and Samuel Walters, of Galena, were raised to the sublime degree of Master Masons in the presence of fifty members. The visitors included Dr. Frank Gardner, Mr. Chas. Thornley, of Smyrna; Messrs. H. C. Tonkin, Jos. Mallalieu, Wesley Moffett, C. M. Hurtt, Rev. Geo. H. Gardner, of Millington; Louis Kaufman, Lemuel Marks, of Baltimore, and others. A pleasing feature of the evening was a sumptuous supper served by the ladies of Christ M. P. Church to which all the brethren did full justice. Several new applications for membership were received.

Tournament.—The Grand Juvenile Tournament took place at the Gentlemans Driving Park at Cecilton on Thanksgiving afternoon. The riding was both spirited and most excellently done and too much praise can't be given these young amatuers. The first prize was won by Mr. Joseph Short who crowned "The Queen of Love and Beauty," Miss Alice Freeman. The second prize was won by Mr. Lewis Freeman who crowned first maid of honor, Miss Fannie Griffith. The third prize was won by Mr. Arthur Baily who crowned second maid of honor, Miss Reba Burris. The fourth prize was won by Mr. Wm. Brown, Jr., who crowned as third maid of honor Miss Marian Griffith. The riding was most beautiful; the prizes were, first a single barrel gun, second prize a gunning coat, third prize kid gloves, fourth prize leggings. The crowning took place in the evening at the Bazaar and supper in the Cecilton Town Hall which was crowded. The young ladies looked radiant and also the Sir Knights. We feel too much praise couldn't be given to the whole.

Accidents.—Mr. Harry F. Jefferson scalded his hand on Monday while adjusting the radiator in his large store.

Mr. Geo. Sutton, son of Mr. Polk Sutton, of Still Pond, had his hand severely mashed in a corn sheller this week. Dr H. G. Simpers rendered medical help.

Miss Fannie Baker has been confined to her home this week from a sore foot caused by treading on a tack!

THE town's pump house has been sold to Mr. C J. Reiche and removed to his farm in Quaker Neck to be used as a corn crib.

PERSONAL NOTES....

Prof. Milton Melvin and Dr. W. F. Hines attended the meeting of school examiners and commissioners in Baltimore this week.

Miss Marguerita Howard, of Baltimore, is visiting her grandfather in town.

C., and Miss Nannie Faulkner, of Chestertown. About six o'clock the guests began to depart for their homes wishing their host and hostess many such happy Thanksgivings

Miss Violet Ringgold Beck entertained at dinner a number of her friends at her home "Heigh Park," near Lankford, last Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins. The dining room was tastefully and artistically decorated with potted flowers, ferns and plants with bouquets of huge chrysanthemums adorning the tables. The tables were laden with the luscious bivalve and toothsome salads temptingly prepared and at which the guests gathered and feasted to their hearts' desire. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, Misses Sara E. Beck, Isabel Beck, Florence Beck of St. Louis, Berite Beck, Alice Gemmill, of Baltimore, Sarah Penning, of Havre de Grace; Messrs. J. Arthur Bradley, Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Dr. Frank B. Hines, R. Snowden Thomas, C. W. Reinhart, and Solomon Scott Beck.

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about this.
