FINE ATHLETIC FIELD.

The Board of Visitors of Washington College at their last meeting adopted the report of a committee looking to the substantial improvement of the new Athletic field. This new field is located west of the old grounds and has been graded. Now these new grounds are to be inclosed by a tight board fence; a grand stand will be erected and a track laid off for the athletic races and practice. These improvements are estimated to cost $1100, and when completed, which will be in the early spring, Washington College will be provided with Athletic grounds creditable to the institution and surpassed by few in the State.

Contracting for Tomatoes.

Packers are contracting for tomatoes and all sorts of prices are being paid. There is no concert of action among the farmers, therefore they will be the losers as usual. Many of the canneries up the county and in other parts of the State have contracted to pay $9 per ton, others will pay $8.50 and others less. Numsen & Co. had their representatives at Tolchester and Buck Neck last Saturday offering to pay $8 per ton and found some farmers willing to grow them for that. Many others stated that they would not grow them for less than 14 cents per basket or $8.40 per ton. The Bertie E. Tull Co. have contracted for 150 acres at $8, and more if Numsen pays more.

It is said that the last season was a very profitable one for the canneries, although the growers, as a rule, were greatly disappointed because of the small yield, due to the wet season. A few years ago from $5 to $6 a ton was the standard price for tomatoes, and there was much discontent among the growers who claimed that this left them no profit.

Until the system of contracting, the growers agreed to grow tomatoes exclusively with the canner with whom they contracted and to plant a specified number of acres, delivering all the fruit to the canner at the price settled upon. The contracts are carefully drawn and the community of interest among packers enable them to show displeasure toward the grower who does not manifest a proper regard for his contracting obligations. The courts have also come to the aid of packers in recent years by granting equitable relief in cases where the latter complained of breach of contract, enjoining deliquent growers from selling their crops to other parties and appointing receivers to harvest and deliver them to the plaintiff packer.

The tomato industry has assumed large proportions on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and this is now the centre of tomato canning in the United States.

THERE are no new cases of smallpox. Mr. R. Thompson is getting along finely under Dr. Frank B. Hines' treatment.

DEPUTY SHERIFF STARTT went to Baltimore Wednesday and brought to Chestertown Will Graves, the colored boy who is charged with robbing Smith & Graham's store several weeks ago.

Death's Doings

CAPT. J. FLETCHER WILSON.

Captain J. Fletcher Wilson died suddenly yesterday morning at ten o'clock at his home in Georgetown, this county. The deceased had been a great sufferer from rheumatism for five years but had improved, and on Wednesday purchased a $12,000 farm in Cecil county. While talking with a friend from Cecilton yesterday morning he was stricken and died before a physician could reach him.

Capt. Wilson was the son of the late Alexander Wilson, so long and favorably known in connection with the fishing interests and almost every other general public interest of the upper part of Kent. He was born in Cecil county in 1837, but in early life moved to Kent county, where he has since resided. He was for a number of years engaged in the boating business having been captain of the steamers "Commerce" and "Roanoke," besides vessels of different grain capacities. He married a daughter of the late Capt. Andrew Woodall, who survives with three children, viz.: Aleck Wilson, Mrs. R. Thomas Cochran, Andrew W. Wilson.

He was largely engaged in fishing in the North East and Elk rivers, having eight or ten thousand dollars invested in nets, boats, etc. He had one of the largest fisheries in the State. He was also a lover of farming and owns considerable real estate. His home at Georgetown is a lovely spot and was the centre of many elegant events and always open to his many friends.

He was a Democrat and represented his party in the Legislature of 1883 and 1892, filling the position with credit to his party and with honor to himself.

MRS. MARY E. LYNCH.

Mrs. Mary E. Lynch died at her home in Galena March 1st, and gladly did her pure sprit respond to the summons from the heavenly court, not that earth had lost any of its bloom and beauty, for as a loved mother she was very happy here, but she trusted her Saviour knowing that his tender care would shield her from everything that would make her afraid in the Dark Valley, and lead her to the land where they need no candle, neither light of the sun for the Lord giveth her light.

She was buried from her residence in Galena March 4th.

MRS. ISABELLE REYNOLDS.

After an illness of several months, borne with saintly patience and christian fortitude, Mrs. Isabelle Reynolds, in her 74th year, succumbed to the ills which had befallen her on Sunday afternoon, about five o'clock. The immediate cause was heart failnre superinduced by old age and a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Reynolds was born in Durham, England, and when but nineteen years old she was married to Mr. James S. Arrowsmith and with him came to this country and state and took up their abode in Prince George county, and, after the death of Mr. Arrowsmith she came to Kent and was married to Mr. Isaac Reynolds, also a native of England, in St. James Church, in the year 1866. Mr. Reynolds passed to his reward in 1893, and since when Mrs. Reynolds has made her home with Mr. James Bell. Mrs. Reynolds leaves but one child, that a son by her first husband, Mr. J. S. Arrowsmith, of Berwyn, Prince George county. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, at one o'clock, at St. Paul's Church, where interment was made. The bearers were: Messrs. Purnell Jump, John E. Morris, George W. Hatcherson, J. P. Nicholson, Israel F. Walbert and G. R. Rasin. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson, in charge.

J. R. FRANKLIN.

Mr. John R. Franklin, a member of the firm of Sterling & Franklin, commission merchants, died at his home, 2418 Maryland avenue, Baltimore, early Saturday morning from apoplexy, of which he had been ill only a few hours.

Mr. Franklin was 50 years old, and a son of the late Judge John R. Franklin, of Worcester county. He had lived there for 15 years, having removed from Chestertown where he was telegraph operator. He is survived by a widow and two daughters, the latter being Miss Katharine Franklin and Mrs. Carson W. Harris, of Kent county. The interment took place in Snow Hill.

The services were conducted by Rev. J. B. North, Rev. C. W. Prettyman and Rev. J. F. Kirk. The pallbearers were Messrs. Oliver D. Collins, Clarence L. Vincent, William A. McAllen, Marion T. Hargis, J. Edward White and John I. Knock. The following relatives and friends accompanied the body from Baltimore: Messrs. Henry Franklin, Franklin Upshur, George Sterling and Mrs. H. H. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Harris and Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Nelson.

MRS. MARY A. BRYAN.

Mrs. Mary A. Bryan died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Philip Caldwell, in Camden, N. J., on Monday Feb. 25th, of pneumonia. Interment was made in the New Camden cemetery on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. She leaves a bereaved husband, Mr. Alfred Bryan, and an only daughter, Mrs. Philip Caldwell, to mourn her loss.

MRS. MARY R. ANTHONY.

Mrs. Mary R. Anthony, widow of the late Wayne Anthony, of Cecilton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ida Pfaff, 3941 Baltimore avenue, Philadelphia, on February 24th of apoplexy, aged 69 years. She leaves two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Ida Pfaff and Miss Carolina M. Anthony, Mr. William M. Anthony, of Cecil county, and Mr. Chas. W. Anthony, of Kent county. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Smoot, of Galena. Interment at Galena cemetery. Undertaker J. F. Coppage had charge of funeral arrangements.

Sleeping and resting her trials are o'er,
Passed from this earth to the eternal shore,
Mourned by her children and family dear,
Resting with Jesus with nothing to fear.

Sickness and sorrow hath long had its sway,
Sapping life's fragrance into decay,
Jesus, her solace, her friend and her guide,
Beckoned her onward with Him to abide.

CHAS. MAUL.

Mr. Wm. R. Maul and sister were called to the deathbed of their brother, Mr. Charles Maul, who died in Queen Anne's Wednesday after a long illness. Mr. Maul was a farmer and very successful in raising truck. He leaves a number of children, one of the sons being employed with Mr. Robert Moffett, Chestertown. The funeral took place yesterday interment in Crumpton cemetery, the four sons being the pall bearers.

Live Local Notes.

Farm Bought.—"Woodlawn," the 286-acre farm of Mrs. Henrietta G. Ward, in the First Election district of Cecil county, was sold at the courthouse door in Elkton Wednesday by W. T. Warburton, trustee to Andrew Wilson, of Kent county, Md., for $12,700.

Accidents.—Mr. William S. Culp, of the well-known firm of W. S. and A. M. Culp, contractors and builders, had the index finger of his right hand severed by a circular saw Friday while at work in his mill. Dr. H. Benge Simmons rendered surgical attention.

Mr. Robert Harris, of Quaker Neck Wharf, broke his arm on Wednesday while rowing his boat on Chester river. Dr. H. G. Simpers reduced the fracture.

Anniversary.—Chestertown Council 177 Jr. Order of United American Mechanics will hold its tenth anniversary Wednesday, March 13th at Fraternal Hall. The speakers for the occasion will be Mr. T. D. Bowers, Prof. L. J. Smith and others. H. W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., will be master of ceremonies. Special music will also be furnished.

Smith Hall.—The committee having in charge the furnishing of "Smith Hall," namely: Prof. Cain, president; Marion deK. Smith and Lewin W. Wickes, Esqs., and Dr. W. Frank Hines, have ordered the chairs for the auditorium after an examination of many different samples, the cost of which will be about $1,000.

This committee visited Baltimore and Philadelphia this week to complete the furniture purchase. The total cost of the furniture for the new building will be about $3,000. Mr. Culp, the contractor, is making excellent progress in the interior work of the Hall and expects to have it completed in May. The electric wiring by Superintendent Russell is of a high order of workmanship and is about completed.

Married.—Miss Mary Grobe Lynan, of Elsmere, and Mr. Corwin Paul Vansant, son of Mr. Wm. Vansant, of Chestertown, were married Thursday evening of last week by Rev. W. E. Greenfield, pastor of Silverbrook M. E. Church, Wilmington. The bride was attended by Miss Marry J. Kane as bridesmaid and B. C. Jones acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Vansant spent Sunday in Chestertown and were given a sumptuous supper at the home of the groom's parents on Mill street Saturday evening. They will reside in Wilmington.

Milton M. Stewart, aged 21, son of D. P. Stewart, formerly of Kent, and Miss Ada Itzel, aged 18, daughter of the well-known musician, surprised all by getting married Thursday.

Water Notes.—The Chestertown Water Company had a bad break in the main from Front street to the steamboat wharf last Saturday night and a force of men were employed nearly all day Sunday in stopping the break. New valves have been supplied and new pipes for a considerable distance has been substituted for the old pipe.

The Water Company has been prospecting during the week for new springs in the lot adjoining their present pool. The great increase in the town demands upon the company for water render an additional supply imperative, while the purpose to discontinue the use of artesian well to prevent the discolorations of the water at times in some sections of the town, suggest prompt action to secure new pools.

These improvements require heavy expenditures by the company and most of its patrons seem to appreciate the efforts to better this important town interest.

The repairs so far have been made with very little annoyance to the citizens the water being turned off only twice during the week and that late at night and for only an hour or two.
