LAND in Chestertown sells for $160 a front foot!

THE names of the Republican candidates is Mudd!

The nomination of Hon. James H. Baker as Comptroller is certainly an honor to him, and doubly so because it was unsought.

IT is certainly a singular fact that every member of Kent County's auditing committee has been nominated for office.

THE colored delegates were very much in evidence at the Republican convention held in Chestertown Monday. That party would be hopelessly defeated but for Mr. Darkey.

IT is said that the Postmastership of Chestertown entered largely into the Republican primaries on Saturday. Postmaster Thomas' term expires in December. This office now pays $2300 to the chief; $1,000 to the first assistant, who is under the civil service law, and $600 to each of two other assistants. No wonder there should be aspirants.

ADKINS AND HOPPER NOMINATED.

The judicial convention met at Centreville Thursday and nominated Hon. Wm. H. Adkins, of Talbot, and Philemon B. Hopper, Esq., of Queen Anne's, as candidates for associate judges on the Democratic ticket. This a strong ticket and is a forerunner of a grand Democratic victory.

WAR DEPARTMENT TAKES A HAND

Col. Albert Mott, C. E., representing the U. S. War department came to Chestertown Wednesday on the U. S. tender "Sentinel." Col. Mott's errand was to examine into the matter of the widening of the Chester river draw at Chestertown. The war department was petitioned to last week to remove an obstruction in the Chester river which prevents large boats from going to Crumpton. Col. Mott was met at Chestertown by Mr. Thomas E. Boggs, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association, and a delegation from Queen Anne's county headed by the hustling Mr. C. W. Clements, of Crumpton. The party drove to Crumpton and examined conditions in both Kent and Queen Anne's. A report will be made to the war department at Washington at once and an answer is expected within two weeks.

HOME-COMING WEEK.

There are many persons from this section of the State who have gone out to other States to live and who are ever associated in our minds with "the good old times" of days gone by. Nearly all of us can remember some one who has moved to new scenes of activity far distant from here.

The home coming movement that has been inaugurated by Governor Warfield is for the purpose of getting many of these old comrades of earlier days to pay us a visit and to entertain them well when they come. A registry bureau has been established by the Maryland Home Coming Association at its headquarters, 602 Fidelity Building, Baltimore, and Secretary Burroughs has his corps of clerks engaged in compiling a list of all former Marylanders of whom information can be secured. This list is growing rapidly and is being entered up in to dozen books. To every person whose name is contained in these volumes there will be sent an invitation to Old Home Week over the signature of Governor Warfield.

Everyone who knows of former Marylanders now residing out of the State is urged to send names and addresses at once to headquarters, for it is desired that no one be overlooked when the invitations go out. The invitations themselves will be interesting souvenirs for those who receive them.

Buying good jewelry

Is a sensible, a safe, a wise investment — purchasing the cheap kind is a waste. Putting a reasonable amount into a really good ring, for instance, is as wise as spending it for new clothing.

The ring assists to produce that general appearance of well-to-doness which it will pay any man or woman to cultivate.

And so with other jewelry.

Well, here is a store that has absolutely nothing whatever to do with questionable goods. Here is a store that believes in fair price for a dependable article.

Here is a store that gives you square deal every day in the year You are invited.
