ROCK HALL ITEMS

Rev. G. S. Conoway, of Delaware, was to have preached in the M. E. Church, on Sunday morning, unfortunately however, and much to the regret of many, a sudden illness prevented the appearance of the Reverned gentleman. The disappointment among the worshippers was very largely mitigated by a whole souled and overflow discourse delivered by Rev. John Clark from the passage Mat. 5; 1-16, emphasising the last verse in a most instructive and heartfelt manner. The nature of the services for the entire day was revival effort with the result that one young gentleman, Mr. Greenhawk, who recently came to dwell within our gates as an instructor in our public school announced that he would do what he could to let his light so shine before those with whom he came in contact that they may be led to the lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world, and a number knelt at the altar seeking the pearl of great price. Rev. Clark is a railroad man a fluent speaker and above all he is undoubtedly a God man, his heart goes with his talk and if his love for God and his fellowmen and his efforts were matched by the membership in what ever field he labors the strong holds of Satan would have to give way and let the Lord of Glory reign supreme. The meetings continue through out the week resulting in the nourishment of the church, the conversion of of five and general awakening of interest in the town and vicinity.

Sunday night's and Monday's storm about stripped the remaining pear crop from the trees in this section and tore up many fish nets.

Miss Ella Ryan, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with the home folks here returning to her post of duty on Monday.

Chrysanthemums in great profusion is the joy of many of our lady residents these days.

Devils of various kinds have roamed about here for many years, Our town and suburbs have got rid of the major part of them. These are devils and we now have in our midst a 4000 pound "Red Devil" that we are all proud of for it is a daisy and a goer at a 40 mile clip The happy possessor is Mr. E. E. Leary and he knows what he is about when on the public highway and we have no need of a Marshall Collins or other police to look out for the speed law in his case. Rock Hall is getting bigger every day. Hurrah. Now let us have the Trolley Line and we will do the rest.

The anti election political ball is being rapidly coraled this week. Candidates and their wire pullers are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to get votes. Tuesday midnight or Wednesday we will know who's who. May the best man win.

Yes, the hob gobling were about Thursday night and their pranks were many and funny. Nat was on the look out too, he thinks the hobs ought to get on the revival spirit and be good instead of goblin about after bed time.

Mr. J. W. Boyer had a fine lot af lettuce in his garden which he was cultivating for winter and early spring use, it had reached the stage of solid heads and on passing the plants a day or so he noticed the leaves had drooped and fallen flat, thinking the cause was bob tail rats he was about to set traps for their capture when instead of rats catterpillars were the destroyers. The ground under the plants was covered with specimenis of the worm. Catterpillars in this section were never known to be so destructive and numerous as has been the case this season.

On Tuesday evening November 12th the Odd Fellows here will entertain their families at the hall of their lodge.

Mrs. Minnie Durding who for the past two weeks has been in the Maryland General Hospital, we are glad to state is very much improved and will be home 'ere the week closes.

The windy weather of the week has enabled our oystermen to get off some of their bedded oysters.

A mendicant is canvassing our town and vicinity for pecuniary assistance. Her appeal book claims she is a poor widow with a number of small children one of whom is a cripple. She may be poor but she looks hale and hearty and one of her children, we presume, a girl of about 14 years of age is traveling with her, therefore while our people are generous yet they are often imposed upon by just such cases. These people seem able to sustain themselves by honest labor and if not there is many institutions for the care of indigent persons where much better care is given them than they can obtain by such a mode as this woman and girl have adopted.

INDEPENDENTS IN LINE.

Mr. T. Wallis Blackistone says they will vote for Crothers.

Mr. Blackistone's Points.

"The question which Marylanders may have to face now is the all-important one, 'Shall this State be controlled by its white or black population?'

"The avowed policy of the Republican party in this State is to extend the influence and political power of the colored race.

"Mr. George R. Gaither openly avows that he was and is in favor of sending colored men to the Legislature.

"Fair elections to the Republican mind, and especially to the mind of a Republican candidate, mean an election which will in every way facilitate the casting of this entire prejudiced, ignorant and unthinking vote for the Republican ticket.

"The avowed policy of the Democratic party is to restrict this vote and this pernicious influence in our political system, so far as may be done by lawful means.

"Judges Crothers stands for what the Democratic party urges and advocates.

"I voted for the late Governor Lowndes because at that time I thought there existed political abuses which could be corrected only by defeating the Democratic power in the State. Now conditions are altogether different and better.

"I shall vote for Judge Crothers. All independents who have the good of the State at heart will do the same."

Spelling Contest.—The Senior class of the Chestertown High School won the second spelling contest at Rock Hall last Friday, the average being 96 against 93⅜ per cent.

The individual averages were as follows:

Rock Hall.—Lillian Warner, 84; Bessie Wheat, 100; Robert Ayers, 100; Annie Newcomb, 96; Anna Mae Ayers, 88; Leonard Leary, 94; average, 93 2-3 per cent.

Chestertown.—Gilbert Jarman, 90; Galen Vansant, 98; Mary Layman, 94; Margaret Brinsfield, 96; Harold Matthews, 98; Mary Miller, 98; Anna Smyth, 98; average, 96 per cent.
