CHURCH NOTES.

Miss Madeline George, youngest daughter of Clerk of Court John E. George, of our sister county, finished the year recently as a Sunday School scholar without having missed a Sunday. This is a record to be proud of and she will endeavor to make a perfect two year's record.

Miss Margaret Glenk, a returned missionary from China, delighted a large audience in the Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday evening by a very interesting address made under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter while in this community.

Dr. Greenfield delivered a striking sermon Sunday evening in which he compared the worth of a man to a sheep. "Some men," said he, "sell themselves for an old gun while most any fat sheep will bring $7." Are you living to accumulate wealth, to attain social position, to eat and drink or have you a higher ideal were the questions impressed on the hearers.

Mr. J. W. Russell lead the early song service in Christ Church, his theme being "carefulness in expressing our thoughts and opinions." Miss Flora Wheatley sang a pretty solo.

Preaching at Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, every Sabbath at 10.30 A. M. Worton, 8 P. M. Rev. Albert C. Jamison, pastor.

Rev. W. L. White is making arrangements to hold a tent meeting in Chestertown late this summer. The plan is adopted by the conference and will be fully explained later.

Rev. Mr. Parish, of Wesley Chapel, is going right ahead with his plans for improving the church and is meeting with success.

Thos. G. Wroth, the shoe man under Stam's Hall, has a full line of everything in shoes and with 15 years experience knows the shoe business from a to z.

Mrs J. F. Newcomb, near Kennard's Point, has two turkey hens from which she has received nine eggs in three days. Who can beat it?

Twenty persons are believed to have been killed and approximately one hundred injured by the wrecking of the Cleveland and Cincinnati express, westbound on the Pennsylvania Railroad, which dashed into a wrecked east-bound freight train, exploding a car filled with 5,000 pounds of low grade dynamite, at Paxtang, near Harrisburg at 1.40 o'clock Thursday morning. The loss of life and the many injuries were caused, not by the wreck itself, but by the dynamite explosion. It was one of the most horrible wrecks ever experienced by the Pennsylvania Railroad on its main line.
