A Merry Xmas

to all our readers

Praise, praise Him, every joyous thing,
Hosannas to our Jesus sing,
Welcome Thou Child Divine!
Cedar and myrtle now we braid,
With offering on Thine altar laid.
Prepare for Thee a shrine.

TRY and make somebody happy to-day. Call to see that sick neighbor who has been shut in for days and perhaps years.

A GIFT that you can afford backed by a loving heart is beyond measure. It may have no intrinsic value, but as compared with the gift presented with the hope of getting something better, is as gold compared with dust.

THERE is an effort being made to restore the Army canteen by enemies of temperance and high morals. Brigadier-Gen. A. S. Daggett, a patriot and lover of his country, says he is opposed to its restoration because of the bad influence upon the 60,000 soldiers and upon the temperance cause all over America. Let Congress take no backward step in this matter but go further and give preference to the total abstainer for all selective promotions and appointments, provided other things are equal.

TO THE readers of the KENT NEWS we extend our heartfelt wishes for a Healthy, Hearty Christmas, with the hope that the holiday season of 1907 may be the brightest and happiest ever experienced and that 1908 may bring to them the fullest measure of peace, plenty and prosperity.

Individually and collectively the world is better with the passing of each Christmas time. In the universal exchange of gifts and the good cheer which always prevails, families are reunited, enmities forgotten and strifes and conflicts buried and hurled aside, while around the fire glow of the Christmas hearth and amid the ringing laughter of the gladsome days, many a life has been stirred and quickened to higher and nobler purposes and resolves.

STRIKES BACK.

On the ninth page of the NEWS we publish an article from Hon. Lloyd Wilkinson, the secretary of the State Central Committee. Our readers generally will regret the necessity for this publication as it places the Governor of the State in a very humiliating light. But how could this be avoided? Governor Warfield has been abusing the party organization without stint for some time and no one has taken the trouble to make any reply, but now he seems to have summed up and published to the world his grievances and not only made serious charges against the Democratic leaders of the State generally but has reflected upon the great mass of Democrats who saw fit to cast their ballots for some other person for U. S. Senator than himself. Not only so but he directly charged the State Committee with using money against him. How could this committee be silent in the face of such reflections? The reply deals with Warfield "Crying like a Whipped Child" his "Posing as a Martyr" the "Money in the Campaign" "Why He Supported Crothers" and his charges of fraud.

Gov. Warfield's friends will certainly feel the humiliation of his undoing.

THE subject of prohibition came up in the Senate this week and after considerable debate lead by Senator Tillman, the following bill was referred to the Committee on Judiciary:

"That all fermented, or distilled or other intoxicating liquor or liquors transported into any state or territory, or remaining therein for use, consumption, sale or storage therein, upon arrival within the borders of the state and before or after delivery to the consignee in such state or territory, be subject to the operation and effect of the laws of such state or territory enacted in the exercise of its police powers to the same extent and in the same manner as though such liquids or liquors had been produced in such state or territory, and shall not be exempt therefrom by reason of being introduced therein in original packages or otherwise."

ATTORNEY-GENERAL STRAUS announced Thursday the names of the sub-committee charged with framing the suffrage amendment to the Constitution by which the Democratic party intends to carry out one of the pledges in its platform.

The names of those whom Mr. Straus has asked to serve and who have accepted, are: Senator Isidor Rayner, Bernard Carter, John P. Poe, William Shepard Bryan, Jr., Leigh Bonsal, Marion De Kalb Smith, Col. Buchanan Schley.

These, with Mr. Straus as chairman, constitute a committee of nine, and they will probably meet Monday afternoon in the parlors of the Eutaw House.

INAUGURATION PLANS.

The new General Assembly of Maryland will meet in Annapolis on Wednesday, January 1, New Year's Day, and will remain in session for ninety days. Judge Crothers will be inaugurated Governor on Wednesday, January 8. The first act of the two houses will be to elect their respective presiding officers, who will be selected at caucusses in Annapolis on the preceding evening. It is thought that Gen. Joseph B. Seth, of Talbot county, will be re-elected president of the Senate, and Mr. J. Enos Ray, Jr., of Prince George's county, will be elected Speaker of the House. After organizing the two houses will receive the Governor's message, which promises to be quite a voluminous document.

Election of Officers.—Chester Lodge, A. F. & A. M., elected the following officers Wednesday evening:

Worshipful Master—Dr. H. G. Simpers.
Senior Warden—Thomas Massey.
Junior Warden—Harry R. Graham.
Secretary—Wm. A. Wheatley.
Treasurer—J. H. Simpers,
Chaplain—Dr. Henry Martin.
Tyler—Harry Hodgkins.

Catalog House, Indicted.—Sears, Roebuck & Co., the great Chicago mail order house, must stand trial in the federal court at Des Moines, says the Leader of that city, on charges of using the United States mails to defraud. An indictment containing three counts was returned against the firm by the federal grand jury. The penalty upon conviction will be a fine of $500 on each count. Moral—Deal at home.
