SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1910.

THE Baltimore Sun almanac has arrived containing a mine of information and a store of good things.

THE NEWS editors are in receipt of a lot of seed from Uncle Sam through the courtesy of Hon. J. Harry Covington. As to their quality, we'll wait and see.

IF Kents' representatives at Annapolis wish to voice the sentiments of the people at home they will vote for the bill giving the people the right to vote on the question of local option.

LEWIN W. WICKES, ESQ., has been compelled on account of his extensive law practice, to resign his position as chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee for Kent county. The party will find it difficult to fill his place.

JUDGE NILES, in the Circuit Court Thursday ratified the sale to Mr. Chas. H. Grasty of a portion of the interest in The Sun held by the Walter R. Abell estate. The action of the court completes a transaction by which Mr. Grasty becomes president of The Sun, and the executive head of the paper. All of the present owners retain large interests. No changes are contemplated.

A CONTROLLING interest in the Centreville Record has been purchased by Mr. Edwin H. Brown, Jr., a prominent attorney of the Centreville bar, who will control its policy. The transaction took effect Monday. The Record has been published in Queen Annes county for nearly thirty-five years. The most of that time it was owned and edited by Col. W. Scott Roberts, who July 1st, 1906 sold it to Mr. James T. Bright, a Centrevillle attorney.

DOINGS AT ANNAPOLIS.

Mr. Willis, of Kent, has introduced a bill in the House to repeal Section 46, Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws. This is the law which allows a discount for the prompt payment of State taxes. The discount now allowed for payment before September 1 is 5 per cent, during September and October 4 per cent, and during November 3 per cent. The collectors are allowed 15 days longer in which to make payment to the Treasurer of the State and still get the discounts.

Mr. Willis says that these discounts cost the State $40,000 or $50,000 a year and he believes that sum could be properly saved. It is the custom in some counties, he adds for the tax collectors to pay out of their own pockets the major part of the State tax for the whole county so as to get the benefit of the 5 per cent. discount, which amounts to a considerable sum. Indeed, it has been said that treasurers and collectors sometimes use money which has been paid for county taxes to pay the State tax, trusting to later payments for the State to return to the county the amount so used.

Mr. Harris has introduced a bill permitting crippled ducks to be killed from power boats.

Mr. Willis has introduced a bill to pay election supervisors for extra work due to primary law.

The illustrated sermon was well attended Sunday night considering the weather.

The rural mail carrier has had some difficulty in covering all of his route on account of snow in the roads.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. P. Church met at the home of Dr. J. W. Urie, last Wednesday afternoon. Quite a number were present and all seemed very much interested in the work. A committee was appointed to arrange for a "Pound Party" and entertainment to be held Feb. 18th at the home of Mr. Richard Haggerty. After all business was transacted, our hostess Mrs. J. W. Urie invited us to her dining room, where a nice supper was served. This was quite a surprise to many of them, but was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

We are sorry that Mrs. T. A. Godwin left this week for the Hebrew Hospital Baltimore, to undergo another operation. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Hill entertained the Farmers' Club on Wednesday.

Mrs. G. I. Barwick and Miss Emma Shafer are visiting in Baltimore.
