WEDDING NOTES.

SHORT—MATTHEWS.

The wedding of Miss Annie Sylvania Matthews, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Matthews, of Smyrna, and Mr. George N. Short, of Philadelphia, took place at high noon Wednesday, at the home of the bride's parents, Smyrna Circuit M. E. parsonage. The Rev. John A. Arters, grandfather of the bride, performed the ceremony and the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her uncle, the Rev. John M. Arters played the wedding march. After the ceremony and a brief reception the bridle couple left for a tour of northern points of interest. The bride's wedding gown was white crepe de chine and carried brides roses. Her traveling suit was grey with hat and gloves to match. The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ringgold, of Chestertown, who with their two daughters, Misses Mollie and Ethel, attended the wedding.

The marriage of Miss Manch Neale Wallis, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wallis, of this county, and Mr. John Alfred Wheeler, of Washington, D. C., was quietly solemnized in Washington by Rev. Father Connolley, of the Imaculate Conception Church, on Monday, Feb. 7th, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Only the immediate families were present. FEED FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONICS POWDERED
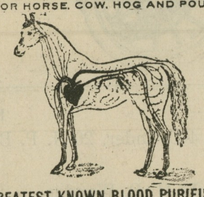
A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY



GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

THE FAIRFIELD PREPARATIONS ARE SOLD UNDER WRITTEN GUARANTEE BY

Report of Sassafras Grange.

Sassafras Grange No. 272 met on the afternoon of Feb. 9th, 1910, with a very good attendance. One person was admitted to membership. There are five to come in at the next meeting, February 23, 1910.

Our literary program consisted of essays on "Shall farmers encourage their sons to be farmers, and how shall they be educated?" by Messrs. Isaac Gibbs, Anthony Johnson, William Colgain and Henry Rosin. It was decided that there was no better occupation, considering all, than farming, and a farmer needed a good business and practical education. One very strong point was made that our country would be much better off if our farmer boys were better educated. There were also essays on "Shall farmers encourage their daughters to marry farmers?" by Mrs. Harry Griffith and Mrs. William Colgain, who said that no daughter would go amiss in marrying a farmer; and it was decided that the woman's work on the farm would not be such drudgery if the homes were fitted up with the modern conveniences.

Our Grange has been organized just about a year and we have nearly doubled our membership. We feel that we are in a very prosperous condition. We notice quite an improvement in our members, they being more willing to take the parts assigned to them by the lecturer. Our farmers have done quite a little business and we have enjoyed a very pleasant social year.

We are making arrangements to have a Farmers' Institute March 19, 1910.

THE shooting and hunting of game by rural mail carriers while they are officially employed on the service of their routes, or the carrying of guns for that purpose, is to be prohibited in the future. An order to this effect has been issued by the Postoffice. Complaints were received that delay in the delivery and collection of mail was caused at certain places by the practice of carriers hunting and shooting game.

[illegible] Stockton Startt, Wm. B. Willis [illegible] Thomas Ivens. The bride was tastefully attired in white satin with crystal fringe trimmings and carried white carnations. Miss Ida Schofield, of [illegible] Pond, presided with skill at the organ. Rev. S. A. Morris performed the ceremony. A wedding dinner was given [illegible] party by Mrs. W. B. Willis at 6 o'clock. After the ceremony the couple went to their home at Worton Station where the groom is engaged in merchandising. A number of pretty and useful presents were received.

THE St. James Sewing Circle will meet next Thursday evening at St. James parsonage. Of course a fine supper will be served.

ONE of the Ericsson boats is fast in the ice near Poole's Island and is being helped by the iceboat and a tug.
