Stops Neuralgia Pains

The shooting, tearing pains of neuralgia are caused by excitement of the nerves. Sciatica is also a nerve pain.

Sloan's Liniment, a soothing external application, stops neuralgia pains at once, quiets the nerves, relieves that feeling of numbness which is often a warning of paralysis, and by its tonic effect on the nervous and muscular tissues, gives permanent as well as immediate relief.

One Application Relieved the Pain.

Mr. J. C. Lee, of 1100 Ninth St., S. E., Washington, D. C., writes:—"I advised a lady who was a great sufferer from neuralgia to try Sloan's Liniment. After one application the pain left her and she has not been troubled with it since."

J. ARTHUR BRADLEY,
j22 tf CHESTERTOWN, MD

One of the most far reaching reforms ever inaugurated by the Pennsylvania R. R. went into effect on Thursday when an order was issued prohibiting all employes of the passenger and freight station east of Pittsburg from using tobacco in any form while on duty. The order aims at cleanliness and sanitation.

CHESTERVILLE NOTES.

Emmanuel: Sunday-school at 10 a.m., preaching at 11, League at 7, followed by sermon. Service Wednesday night at 7.30.

Trinity, Millington: Sunday-school at 2, preaching at 3, League at 7. Thursday service at 7.30.

Mr. D. S. Davis has been suffering from some form of throat trouble and recently placed himself under the care of a specialist. His many friends in the community hope for his speedy recovery.

Sunday, March 6th, will be Missionary Rally Day in Emmanuel. There will be special music. All the members of the church and congregation are requested to bear this date in mind, and bring or send their missionary money. Remember the missionaries who are doing your work.

The Fourth Department of the Emmanuel League expect to have a pleasant evening in the church Wednesday, March 2nd.

Mrs. Jarman, of this place, represented Martha Washington at the tea held in Gillespie's Hall on Washington's birthday, given by Millington Grange. The tables were in fine shape and the whole affair reflected much credit on the officers and members.

The Chesterville school held its usual session on Washington's birthday.

FISH THIEVES USE DYNAMITE

A Dover dispatch to the Sunday Star says: Fish pirates are stirring some of the residents of Kent county into action to protect their fresh water streams from marauders. A party of men, evidently from the Maryland side drove to the Murderkill river, near Fork's landing, last week, and violating all fish and game laws, launched a canoe, rowed to a deep bend where the fish lay hibernating in shoals as is their custom during the severe weather, exploded a string of dynamite shells and slaughtered bushels of white perch, bass, carp, pike, ring perch and "wall-eyed pike."

The interlopers carried off all their horses could haul, and later two young men in a canoe who happened to row to the bend, picked up several dollars worth of remnant and carried them to Frederica.

HOW FARES YOUR PREACHER?

Barring those who are incapacitated or out of work, the increased cost of living falls with greater force upon no class than upon ministers of the Gospel. In most cases their salaries were years ago when nearly all necessaries of life were at least fifty per cent. cheaper than now, and the salaries were even then pitifully small. A family of five persons, for which everything must be bought can not now be supported in the most frugal manner on less than five hundred dollars a year, this figure allowing nothing for luxuries, charity, traveling expenses which nearly all families incur to a greater or less extent through illness. And then, a little more is expected of the minister and his family than of the man who works in the ditch. The minister must clothe himself so as to save his flock from discredit; it is not unnatural that he should wish to keep up with the current thought by purchasing a few newspapers, books and magazines and he should have the right and ability to educate his children. It is perhaps, too much to ask that he should be given such a salary that he can lay by little provision against the time when he can no longer labor at his calling, but, merely that he may subsist, his congregation ought to investigate and see if he is really getting enough to keep the wolf from the door. If those who subscribed annual payments for church purposes years ago would follow the plan of giving the same amount of their products that had to be sold formerly to raise the required amount the minister and his family would be able to live much more comfortably.

Entertaining.—The members of the Crumpton M. E. Church choir spent a very delightful time at Mrs. John South's last Saturday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent playing games and was seasoned with music ably rendered by Prof. R. C. Godwin and his accomplished daughter, Miss Lucille. Refreshments of ice-cream and cake were served. Those present were Mesdames R. C. Godwin and Henry Coleman, Misses Emily Bitting, Ella Solloway, Annie Heffler, Elva Coleman, Anna Foulks, Mary Ringgold, Corinne Ryland, Sarah Adkinson, Leona Williamson, Lucille Godwin and Marguerite Archibald; Rev. Daniel Wilson, Messrs. Joel R. Clements, Jr., Gordon Faulkner, Elwood Coleman, Oscar Walls and Prof. Godwin. Their next entertainment will be given by Mr. Gordon Faulkner at "Ye Old Mill."

Mrs. Belle Riggins entertained a few friends at her home last Friday evening in honor of her daughter's birthday. Miss M. Grace Riggins was the recipient of the honors, the occasion being her nineteenth birthday. Refreshments were served.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in his all wise providence to remove from our midst our sister and co-worker Helen Power, we most sincerely deplore the loss which the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, Maryland, has sustained in her death. We, the undersigned committee on behalf of the Society testify to the worth and excellence of the deceased. She was a good Christian woman, a tender and devoted sister and faithful to duty until her life work was done.

Whereas the Society deeply and sincerely sympathizes with and hereby tender their sympathy to the bereaved family. Therefore be it

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and a copy sent to the bereaved family and to one of our newspapers published in Kent County.
