WASHINGTON COLLEGE WINS.

Washington College, of Chestertown, defeated the Maryland Agricultural College baseball team at College Park, Md., Saturday afternoon last, 4 to 3. As the result of an all-night rain, the diamond was heavy and the fielding indifferent. Up to the ninth inning it was nip and tuck, with the score 3 to 3. With one down, Metcalfe was walked; he went to third on a single to right by Wallice, and scored when P. Goeltz, at third, made a wild heave home of Jump's infield tap. In the Aggies' half of the ninth Burns fouled out and P. Goeltz and Grason singled in succession, but the next two men popped up easy flies and the game was won. The hitting of Wallace, for Washington, featured.

Washington College	0	0	0	1	1	1	0	0	1	—4
Maryland Agricultural	0	0	1	1	0	0	1	0	0	—3

The Double Creek Baseball Team defeated the Burrisville nine on Saturday afternoon by the score of 17 to 3. Logan pitched a very fine game and only allowed 4 hits. Double Creek expects to play the return game Saturday afternoon, May 28, on their home grounds. Double Creek would like to hear from any team in Kent, particularly Still Pond or Kennedyville. Address Morgan K. Bennett, manager Double Creek Baseball Club. Score:

Double Creek	6	0	0	4	0	2	5	0	0	— 17
Burrisville	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	1	0	— 3

Golt's second nine defeated Galena Saturday by the score of 7 to 2. They would like to hear from Millington now. J. Moffett, manager.

FAMOUS HORSE DEAD.

What was probably the oldest horse in the world, Punch, the petted scion of a famous line of polo horses and himself the cleverest of the strain, died Friday at the farm of A. T. Jones, in Hyde Park. Punch's remains were interred with all the respect and care that could be accorded a human being, in the front yard of Mr. Jones' home, where a monument which will be inscribed a record of his achievements and virtues, will be erected.

Punch was 45 years old on May 12. He had not had a bit in his mouth for 23 years and had been cared for with every consideration for his comfort and welfare by Mr. Jones for the last 15 years.

Several wealthy New Yorkers, who have country houses at Hyde Park attended Punch's burial. They knew the old horse's history and the sentiment of the occasion appealed strongly to them. The grave prepared for the animal was half filled with flowers. Planks were laid to slope into the excavation and on this frame Punch's body was laid, carefully wraped in blankets with his favorite halter beside him. The remains were slid down the ways to the bottom of the grave and flowers were strewn over them until the body concealed before an ounce of dirt was thrown in. The flowers came from the homes of the Vanderbilts, Rogers and Roosevelts, and other wealthy residents near Hyde Park.

H. N. Bain, a well-known Poughkeepsie breeder, said that he did not think there was an authenticated instance of a horse living longer than 45 years. The oldest horse he could recall was owned by Charlie Dickens of Dutchess county. It died at the age of 35.

The following is from the philadelphia Record of August 8th, 1909, and is sent us by Mr. John Jester, of St. Georgss, who can vouch for it, as he knows the parties, and has seen the horse but a short time since, and thinks he is still living. Mr. Jester sends it in answer to the challenge published in the NEWS calling for a horse older than 42 years, the age of Mr. Guest's horse.

Rarely does a horse reach the age of 50 years, and still more rare is the celebration of such an event, because records of births of equines are seldom kept. On next Tuesday, however, the celebration of the golden anniversary of the birth of Jerry, a horse owned by John Unruh, will be held at the farm of his master, on County line, near Mt. Airy avenue, Mt. Airy. It is positively known that Terry is 50 years old, as the exact date of his birth has been recorded to the Unruh family for 46 years.

May Ship 1,500,000 Barrels. — The weather on the lower peninsula has been ideal for white potatoes and strawberries. If the good weather continues it is estimated the potato yield will be largely in excess of any previous crop, reaching possibly 1,500,000 barrels. Saturday was a banner day for Crisfield on soft crabs, 400,000 having been shipped, making it the largest shipment in the history of the business here.
