Local Brevities.

On June 28, 1910, at his residence, 328 South Bouldin street, Baltimore, died Joshua R. Startt, aged 36, beloved husband of Rosie May Startt (nee Robinson.)

The fine herd of milch cows belonging to Mr. H. H. Legg on the Chapman farm have been tested by Dr. Jarman and found to be in good health.

The picnic of Christ Church Sunday school will likely be held Wednesday, July 13th, at Queenstown.

Rev. Francis Waters, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, Chestertown, for the past two years, died suddenly in Baltimore, Monday, of acute indigestion.

The cowshed on Mr. Wm. R. Crow's farm was struck by lightning recently and badly damaged. Two calves were also killed.

Two colored excursions from Baltimore landed here this week and remained only a short time.

The 4th of July at Betterton will be a big day. Betterton always has a safe and sane fourth.

Hon. Jos. A. Wickes has made decided improvements to his Chestertown home and adjoining property by painting. M. E. Baker and force of expert painters did the work.

Hydrangeas and dahlias are in abundance and as usual Kent has the finest. Mrs. H. B. Nicholson and Mrs. J. P. Parrott have excellent varieties on Mill street, Mrs. Vernon Barnett, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Mrs. S. A. Hurlock in other part of the town. The latter has a hydrangea with over 80 blooms on it.

A black snake 6 feet in length, killed by a farmer near Denton last week, had swallowed a large-size young rabbit.

J. H. Sides sold two Maxwell autos last week to Mr. S. G. Caldwell, of Galena, and Mr. Anderson, of Cecilton.

H. C. Willis, who has been one of Kent's growers of big crops of tomatoes, will leave off the crop this year because of the long haul, etc.

The Kent Land Company has sold one of their fine river-front lots adjoining the home of Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., in Chestertown. They still have two left.

The town commissioners are laying a new cement walk on Water street, between High and Maple avenue. Edw. Newton is doing the work.

W. R. Clough has engaged Herman Massey, Jr., to drive his Tolchester car and is now making regular trips. Mr. Massey is an expert chauffeur.

The Hoffman House at Gratitnde is getting a good reputation for good meals under Mrs. Mamie Wilkins' direction. At dinner on Tuesday guests were served two soft crabs, two perch and a half chicken, besides other side dishes!

According to the returns made to Treasurer Harrington, there are about 3,000 dogs in Talbot county to come under the operation of the new dog law. This does not include the dogs in Easton, which are exempt under this law.

Jos. Dorsey, one of the best and most reliable colored citizens of the second district, died this week at his home near Still Pond. He and his wife lived for over 20 years with Hon. Wm. T. Hepbron. They are worth about $6,000.

The wheat shocks in fields of Messrs. R. G. Nicholson, Edw. Robinson, E. Thomas Massey, Thomas Bryan, Samuel Mann, W. E. Keyser, G. W. Bramble, Harry Holt and others are being commented upon. Threshing will begin next week.

With the cutting of the wheat fields the haunts of "Bob White" are now being laid bare to the hunters eye. Everywhere indications point to a great increase in the number of partridges in the county, and hunters anticipate a good sporting season this Fall. All owners of dogs interested in the protection of game should keep their dogs up as young rabbits are now plentiful and easily caught.

The up-town meat store, recently carried on by Mr. C. W. Copper, has been purchased by Mr. T. C. Hadaway & Bro. Mr. Tylden Hadaway is an experienced butcher and will endeavor to give the up-town people a good meat and grocery store.

The State Roads Commission has issued a notice against traction engines going over State roads except such as have wheels with smooth surfaces and greater than four inches in width. This notice will work a hardship to many traction owners and proves the importance of leaving a road on one side of the State road.

In a crop statement just issued by the Department of Agriculture it is shown that Maryland's wheat crop is in better condition than that of any other State in the Union. The crop is, of course, not the largest, but there is a smaller per cent. of its acreage abandoned than any other wheat-producing State can show. Just one per cent. of the winter wheat crop is in bad condition. The State shows, further, that there are 794,000 acres of Maryland in wheat which is a greater acreage than shown by any other Southern State, except Tennesse and Texas.

The following note was received from Mrs. Rosalie M. Schuyler and speaks for itself: "You once advertised two boys whose parents were mutes in Baltimore. Well, I took them for two successive summers and got a good deal of satisfaction in the way of help. Their parents have asked me to take them again, but I am now living in a town and they want the country. I wish you could find a place for them. The eldest has been trained to wait, clean rooms, iron, &c., in the Home for the Friendless in Baltimore, and for errands, peach picking, or for any work they are excellent. They only want their board for the summer and some discipline, as boys from the city are rather wild at first. It is a charity to help their afflicted parents—John L. Unsworth, 1240 Wall street, Baltimore, Md.

The hours for services at Salem M. E. Church, beginning July 3, will be as follows: 9.30, class meeting; 10.00, preaching service; 11.00, Sunday-school. To continue regularly every Sunday morning until further notice.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad remembrance of our little darling, Myrtle Elizabeth who departed this life June 22, 1910, aged 4 months and 6 days.

A bud the Gardener gave us,
A pure and lovely child.
He gave it to our keeping
To cherish undefiled.
But just as it was opening
To the glory of the day,
Down came the heavenly Gardener
And took our bud away. PARENTS.

Vain we question why it happened,
How it can be for the best?
Asking why those feet so early
On their journey needed rest?
But our hearts are aching, breaking,
With the dull, unceasing pain,
Though the light of life seems vanished,
Never to come back again. SISTER.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

A terrific electrical storm passed over this section Monday evening. For one minute the wind blew a 70 mile gale, there was considerable hail, and tremendous down pour of rain, with deafening peals of thunder and blinding flashes of lightning. About five of Mr. E. E. Leary's telephone poles were struck and three of them completely shattered, the lightning playing on the wires causing the igniting of some papers in the office at the factory. A tree on the farm tenanted by Mr. Keyser was struck and a bull was killed. A large willow tree in the yard of Mr. George Davis was struck and Mrs. Davis and son Charley, who were in the house, were considerably shocked, but not seriously. Quite a number of trees near Mr. O. P. Leary's place and other near-by places were struck by the lightning.

Janitor Nathan R. Satterfield has been substituting for Mr. Joseph C. Kendall as sexton of the M. E. Church the past week, Mr. K. being confined to his home by sickness.

Capt. Wm. R. Coleman has made considerable repairs and otherwise improved his store property, occupied by Mr. Charles Hamerick.

The wrapper factory is being overhauled, painted, &c., during its temporary close-down.

Mr. Alexander has one of the finest crops of timothy in the district.

Mrs. J. F. Stevens and son, of Baltimore, have been guests of relatives and friends here the past week.

Basket making began at Leary's factory this week, much to the gratification of the workmen, who had began to find time lying heavy upon them.

There is lots of complaint about potatoes rottening in the ground because of the recent 12 consecutive days of rain in this section.

William H. Watkins, formerly of Rock Hall, but now of Betterton, through his counsel, H. W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., has been granted an absolute divorce from his wife, Daisy E. Watkins, of Rock Hall.

White potato growers are encountering a new plague. In a large number of patches the vines were found to be dying, and upon investigation it was discovered that worms enter the potato hill and work their way through the centre of the vines, which causes the vines to turn yellow and wither. Authorities on potato culture at College Park have been communicated with, and it is to be hoped that the pest may be conquered before another season.
