PETITIONERS' ROAD NOTICE.

To the Honorable Members of the County Commissioners of Kent County Md.

We, the undersigned subscribers, do respectfully petition your honorable body to lay out and condemn through the following described properties and route, for a public road. Beginning at a point for a proposed new road at Sewils branch in Queen Anne's county, Maryland, and running between the lands of the heirs of Thomas Pratt, deceased, and John Roberts, to a point on the public road leading from Millington, Md., to Hazel's Corner, Delaware. The proposed road would start at a point in Queen Anne's county at a bend in the road leading from Blanco, Del., to the Andiver Branch in Queen Anne's county. The whole route of said proposed road being a private road and kept open until about 10 years ago, when a portion of it was closed to the public.

MRS. CECELIA STOWE,
Orator, Entre Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Cecelia Stowe

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weaknes and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

ASBURY PARK BOOKLET.

Descriptive Publication issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on account of the Meeting of the National Educational Association.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just issued an attractive booklet descriptive of Asbury Park. The publication is designed to present the attractions and claims of Asbury Park as a Summer seaside resort, and also to announce the reduced rate arrangements on account of the meeting of the National Educational Association, which will be held at Asbury Park July 3 to 7.

Persons desiring information concerning this popular resort may obtain a copy of the booklet by enclosing two cents in postage stamps to Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Pennsylvania Railroad, Philadelphia, Pa, je17 2t.

REDUCED RATES TO INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

Via Pennsylvania Railroad, Account National Gymnastic Festival, North American Gymnastic Union.

On account of the National Gymnastic Festival of the North American Gymnastic Union, to be held at Indianapolis, Ind., June 21 to 25, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round trip tickets to Indianapolis, June 19 and 20, good returning to leave Indianapolis not later than June 27, inclusive, from all stations on its lines at rate of single fare for the round trip plus $1.00. On all tickets good for passage via Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, a stop-over within limit will be allowed at either of these places.

THE Cambridge Lodge of Masons is in possession of a "Matthews Bible," printed in England in 1537. It is one of the earliest and most valuable English Bibles, and very few perfect copies are known to exist. The British Museum, the Lambeth Palace Library, the Bodleian, St. Paul's and a few other libraries are known to have perfect copies. Even imperfect copies, not so good as the one at Cambridge, sold at auction as high as $200.

Is it right?

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready-for-use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property-owner loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten Thousand Churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M. Paint. Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from Smith & Graham, Chestertown; F. H. Harper & Son, Still Pond; J. W. Ivens, Worton; Clements & Co., Crumpton, Md.

HELEN ADAIR'S LETTER.

Lavish Use Of Silk—Smart Traveling Frocks—Comfortable Waist Lines.

One of the most essential gowns for the summer season is an easy-to-put on and entirely serviceable one of mohair or light-weight cloth, for Milady of today is migratory, and while she has in recent years put most of her dress allowance in frocks for formal occasions, today her traveling or "knock-about" attire must be faultless, if she desires to be one of America's typically well-dressed women, as any one of her more pretentious frocks.

Short skirts prevail for street and traveling wear, but the eternal fitness of things is done violence every day in the selection of materials of which the gown is composed. Priestley cravenetted cloths lend a dainty plainness remarkable for their practicability.

One of the best examples of these exquisite cloths is in the Scotch cheviot on the right in my illustration. Of sufficient wiriness for the present mode of skirt, with a lightness and looseness of weave to make the gown entirely comfortable on "muggy" days this gown is ideal for the general wear and tear of a Summer trip. Cravenette stamped upon the back of this smart cloth ensures the added virtue without which no cloth for such a gown is perfect, of imperviousness to rain.

Now as to the silk gown!—or Gowns!—for the variety of occasions on which silk is worn and the number of Abis silk gowns Milady possesses is merely a matter of dress allowance. Silk is worn in the morning. It is a la mode for afternoon, for visiting, for weddings for concerts and all similar smart occasions.

Abis Messaline taffeta which is shown in the frock on the left in my drawing is decidedly the most popular weave. Soft and silky, delightful to the touch, absolutely uncrushable and bearing its guarantee on the selvage, the variety of occasions on which this chic gown can be worn is unlimited.

With the svelte effect about the hips in a properly cut skirt, the correct adjustment of the corset is essential but I fear not as widely understood as it should be. A good model of corset such as the C-B a la Spirite, should be selected, and if it be brought well down so as to clamp about the hips, with the lower clasp below the abdomen, the strings then being moderately and comfortably drawn together, the corset instead of being pernicious will be decidedly beneficial to health as well as appearance.

HELEN ADAIR.

BUY YOUR OWN PAPER.

(From the Kansas City Journal.)

A man who was too economical to subscribe for his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and, failing to notice a barbed-wire fence, ran into it, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $5 pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran, upset a four-gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In her hurry she dropped a $25 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor, ruining a $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts.

Growth of Rural Delivery.—The enormous growth in the rural free delivery and the desire all over the country for its even greater extension is shown by some figures given out by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General DeGraw recently. On June 1st, 1905, there were in operation 31,796 rural routes and 4,404 applications were pending for new routes. Of these applications 275 will be disposed of by the middle of this month, so that there will be only 4,129 cases pending. Maryland now has 359 routes, with 27 applications pending.
