SATURDAY, JULY 9, 1910.

GOV. CROTHERS has the approval of all good citizens in preventing the exhibition of the fight pictures. It was a disgrace to America.

THE Republicans are having difficulty in finding a Congressional candidate to oppose Hon. J. Harry Covington. Why not make it unanimouse for Mr. Covington?

THE Fourth of July was an ideal day in Kent county. Betterton and Tolchester entertained large crowds in the safe and sane way, while family parties picniced on Chester river and Chesapeake Bay.

THE auditors appointed from Baltimore by the Board of County Commissioners to unearth affairs have finished their work and put in their bill for $348! They discovered nothing and their report is identical with that of the auditors appointed by Judge Pearce. Their appointment is a reflection upon our court and upon local officials and a usless expense.

THE County Commissioners, when asked as to their authority for appointing a clerk to the assessors, replied "our attorney." The law says that the county assessors shall act as clerks and makes no other provision. If Mr. Steele cannot act as clerk in his district why not appoint a man who can, and the same question may be asked of the other appointees? It means from $700 to $800 saving to Kent county.

ELDERDICE FOR CONGRESS.

At the First Congressional District Prohibition Convention, held at Hurlock Monday afternoon. Rev. Charles Martin Elderdice, of Federalsburg, was nominated for Congress. Rev. Ralph T. Coursey, of Cambridge; Rev. M. D. Nutter, of Hurlock, and John S. Dulaney, of Fruitland, were appointed to notify the nominee. A committee, consisting of the chairmen of the party from the several counties, was appointed to manage the campaign. Rev. Mr. Elderdice, the nominee, is pastor of the Methodist Protsstant Church at Federalsburg and for several years has been recognized as a prominent leader of his party on the Eastern Shore. He is well known in Kent, having lived several years in this county when his father was stationed at Wesley Chapel, near Rock Hall. He is a young man of admirable qualities.

THE prize fight resulted in a victory for the negro, and it is to be hoped it will be the last that this country will ever see. Dr. Wharton says: "At last they settled upon Reno, Nevada, the worst place this side of hades. Gambling halls, drinking saloons, divorce courts, dens and dives of iniquity all wide open night and day. It is the Mecca of the devotees of Satan, the capital of his earthly kingdom.

"The prize fight caters to the lowest and most brutal instincts of our race. It is demoralizing alike to men, women and children. It appeals to the worst and the lowest that is in us. It tends to make fighters and gamblers of our children and to antagonize and destroy the good influence of religion. It is Christianity which has driven this bloody business out of nearly all of our States, and it will finally consign it to an oblivion from which no human power can rescue it.

"Another unfortunate phase of this fight is that it stirs up bad blood between the white and black races. It's the black man against the white, and of course we are not surprised that the colored people prayed for their man to win and the white men swearing that theirs would.

"Only evil can result from this prize-fight. It is worse for our nation and will do more damage than a dozen earthquakes or a score of cyclones. It should be the last, and it will be. You can trust Christian America to put an end to it forever."

THE HAND OF DEATH.

MRS. WM. F. GLEAVES.

Mrs. William F. Gleaves died at her home near Church Hill on Sunday after a long illness, aged 76. The deceased before marriage was Miss Eliza Armstrong. She was of small physique, but with a heart that was noted for its generosity and bigness. She had a sunny nature and carried cheerfulness wherever she went. Her life has been a blessing to all who came into contact with her and she rests from her labors in the land of the pure and blest. The deceased leaves a husband. The funeral took place on Tuesday.

WILLIAM B. STEVENS.

Wm. B. Stevens died in Philadelphia Saturday of a complication of diseases, aged 49 years. Mr. Stevens was originally from Kent county and was a son of the late Wm. W. Stevens, of Worton. He is survived by a widow and three children, two girls and one son. The remains were brought to Chestertown Wednesday on the train, interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Walter Gale, James G. Beck, C. Romie Skirven, Jos. R. Usilton, Jesse H. Usilton and Harry C. Willis. Dr. F. T. Little conducted the services at the grave, Charles L. Dodd undertaker.

Mr. John P. Hartley, of Crumpton, departed this life, on the morning of June 30th, 1910, after an illness of about three weeks. Aged about 74 years. Funeral services were held at the home on Saturday afternoon July 2nd. Interment in Crumpton Cemetery.

THE Pomona Grange will meet on the lawn of Mr. Harry Griffith, Sassafras, on Thursday, July 21. The program will be announced next week.

PRIMARY ON AUGUST 30.

Congressional primaries will be held in Kent county and throughout the State on Tuesday, August 30th. There is only one candidate so far announced for the Democratic nomination—Hon. G. Harry Covington. For the Republican nomination several names have been mentioned, among them John D. Urie, Esq., of Kent, Ex-Senator France, of Cecil, and Wm. P. Jackson, of Wicomico county.

COOK WANTED.

Wanted, a good plain cook by a family of three in Chestertown, in a home with seven rooms. To such a woman we promise to be respectful and courteous and to refrain from meddling or criticising in any of her duties. She is expected to have breakfast ready not later than 8 o'clock in the morning, dinner at 1 o'clock and supper at 6 o'clock. We agree to let her leave the moment she is through washing up the dishes at night. Three afternoons a week she can leave at 2.30 o'clock and the mistress of the house will get supper. She can attend one funeral per week on an average. It will be the duty of the head of the house to attend to the furnace in winter and to make the fire every morning in the kitchen, but, the cook must be there at 7.30 so as to have breakfast at the hour named. She can eat all she requires and take with her everything left—in paper, not our dishes.

The cook can entertain her guests in the parlor or on the porch Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, but, we reserve the use of the piano and couch. She is expected to keep the kitchen clean, the floor of which must be scrubbed twice every week, one of which scrubbings will be performed by the lady of the house. If the food furnished the famity is not satisfactory to the cook she is to have the privilege of ordering for her own use not exceeding $3 per week. We a so require that she shall come neatly dressed and in order to do so we to furnish dress and aprons, but no shoes nor hats. For a woman willing to accept this place we will pay such wages as she may demand, provided she wishes a permanent engagement.
