Emmanuel Sunday School at 9.30, preaching by the pastor at 10.30, League at 8 p. m.

Trinity Millington, Sunday School at 2, preaching by the pastor at 3, League at 7.30.

The lightning last Thursday night did considerable damage Mr. Hurlock Gale who lives near Lambson with his father lost his young driving horse. We are all sorry for the young man, but health and honest endeavor will soon win the price of another.

Dr. C. P. Gowman is kept busy this hot weather and certainly needs an automobile to keep up with his many calls. He is semper paratus, plus a clear head.

The subject at Emmanuel and Trinity next Sunday will be "Why Some People Attend Church." The following Sunday "Why Some People do Not Attend Church." All are cordially invited to the services in these cool and homelike churches.

The Misses Aldie and Ruth Clements are entertaining a number of young lady friends at their home Sportsfield.

Miss Annie Clements is spending a portion of the heated season at Atlantic City.

Thursday of last week a Philadelphia train carried a goodly representation of Chestertown folk enroute to Atlantic City; among them Mrs. Frank Jarrell, Mrs. William Baldwin and others.

Rev. E. V. Regester, Presiding Elder of Baltimore District, will hold the Second Quarterly Conference of this year on Saturday the 20th and preach in Emmanuel Sunday morning at 10.30, and in Trinity at 3 p. m.

CHURCH NOTES.
