The First National Guards of Delaware will encamp this year on the farm one mile from Newark, Delaware, formerly owned by Alexander A. Laws, where he resided for many years with his family. The father of Alexander T. Laws, of this town, where he spent his boyhood days and then farmed his father's farm, his father moving in the town of Newark. After the death of Alexander A. Laws the estate was settled up and James Morris, of Wilmington, purchased this up-to-date farm and beautiful home.

Woodall at "Fox Hole", on Saturday about 50 thousand feet of lumber, thousands of shingles, 12 barrels of lime, 6 barrells of cement and great quantities of bricks for Mr. Jesse Sheppard, of Middletown, who will have built a fine farm house, stables, granary and other out buildings on the farm he recently purchased near Sassafras. Satisfaction

THERE is a great satisfaction in a sale like that now in full blast at our store—satisfaction to our customers, satisfaction to us. It indicates that the public has faith in our statements, and in our Quarter-Century reputation for reliable qualities, reasonable prices and liberal methods.

We believe in the people—the majority are not unreasonable, but are honest and well meaning, and only want to be fairly and squarely dealt with. Long experience has taught them that that is the treatment every one receives at this store.

They have learned to believe in the reductions we announce, and to recognize them as opportunities to get genuine values in MEN'S, YOUTHS' and BOYS' CLOTHING at an actual saving of money.

They know, too, that MONEY'S WORTH or MONEY BACK is our policy, and it gives them added assurance of the safety in dealing at this store.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Happy Children's Day Program for 1905 was sweetly and joyously rendered in the M. E. Church on Sunday evening. Within the altar rail and pulpit was displayed in great profusion, as fine and pretty variety of flowers as can be produced on the Peninsula, and arranged in the most tasteful manner which called forth the admiration of scores of visitors. The church was packed and jammed with happy children, enraptured on lookers, and highly efficient participants in the rendition of the program. Many failed to secure admittance and turned away. A dear old "Mother in Isreal" in the person of Mrs. Charlote Downey, wife of Rev. J. M. Downey, on Thursday the 8th inst in the City went to her Heavenly home, after a long siege of suffering which she ever bore with Christian fortitude. Mrs. Downey was a most estimable lady, intensley loved by a host of friends here, and in the city. She was 72 years of age, and for 20 years was a consistant member of Lowe's 2nd Methodist Church. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Thomas Lowe. Interment in Baltimore, besides her husband who resides here, she leaves two grown daughters by a former marriage who mourn their loss, but with the brightest hope of a happy reunion on the "Golden Shores" of the "New Jerusalem." Mr. Downey has sympathy, and prayers of very many.

The Odd Fellows held a Memorial Service in the Hall of their Lodge on Wednesday evening in memory of their brethern who died since the last service of the kind was held by them. Mr. George Davis, delivered a eulogistic address. The dead members were Dominick K. Ayres and James O. Harrison.

Rev. Charles E. Redeker delivered an eloquent address before a large and enthusiastic assembly in the K. of P. Hall on last evening. His subject was "A Citizen of the Nation." The affair was under the auspicises of the P. O. S. of A.

Mrs. Woolford Johnson met with quite a shake up on Friday last week. Her horse became unmanagable ran off and Mrs. Johnson attempting to hold on to the reins was draged a considerable distance, she was much bruised and unconscious when picked up; the buggy was smashed.

Post Master Downey having remodled and otherwise placed the Post Office on a "20th century" basis, it was but natural that the luscious "plum" should drop, and it did drop right into the hands of of the present incumbent. His bond has been renewed for four years from Jan. 1st, 1906. John is not a talker but he is a hustler, and makes his hustling produce the desired effect everytime.

Our people have been viewing the naval maneuvers this week. Uncle Sam's sea dogs have been cruising off Swan Point, and their search light displays has been enjoyed. A terrific engagement was on at about 2 A. M. Wednesday, a number of our people arose from their beds and peered out over the bay, but soon returned feeling assured that the intreped Downey, who commands the cruiser Anna B. Smith, and his gallant crew would see to it that the enemy would not enter our harbors.

Well the primary fight resulted in a walk over for the organization forces. There are some disgruntled ones among us, disappointment and rejoicing is about equal. Lets get together boys for a grand round up in November, quit mud slinging, it sticks most to the fellow that does the slinging.

With sorrow, many of our people have learned of the death of Capt. S. A. Copper, we all loved him. His remains were brought over on the Island boat on Tuesday and intered in Weslyan cemetery.

While engaged in building a porch to the dwelling of Mr. C. H. Harrison on Tuesday, Mr. Romie Wagner fell from the porch and broke one of his arms, unfortunately medical service could not be had here and Mr. Wagner had to be taken to Chestertown for treatment.

MR. JOS. GUEST having in the past had many calls to ascertain the name of the remedy that has so perfectly restored him to health, herewith announces that the Vitae-Ore Co. has appointed him as their agent in this section, and having forwarded him a supply of this True Nature's Remedy, Vitae-Ore, he can supply those who desire it at $1.00 per package, a 30-day treatment.

The town commissioners are having the pavements laid on the new lines made since the fire. This widening of the street is a great advantage to the town, before the fire it was entirely too narrow for the amount of traffic.
