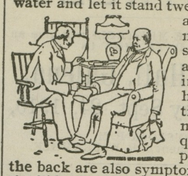
Nothing Better For the Money —THE NEWS at $1 Per Year

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

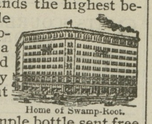
How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.



What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.



Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Season For Shooting Game.

The open season for shooting game in Kent county is as follows:

Partridges, Rabbit and Woodcock—Nov. 2nd to Dec. 23rd inclusive.

Squirrel—Sept. 2nd to Oct. 31st.

Ducks—Nov. 1st to April 10th. Only three days a week in Chester river.

Dove—July 16th to Dec. 23rd.

Muskrats—Dec. 15th to March 15th.

The following is the State bag limit for one day: Partridges, 15; doves, 25; woodcock, 12; rabbits, 12; squirrels, 12. A license fee of $2.75 is required of non-residents of the county and $10.50 for non-residents of the State.

Don'ts for squirrel hunters: Don't take a passing shot at a rabbit or partridge; they are protected until November 15. Don't shoot at the song birds; besides stamping you as being unfit to carry a gun, it is a violation of the law and will mean a heavy fine. Don't let your dogs run at large; you simply break up the good-hunting and, besides you will be subject to a fine. Don't argue with the deputy game warden if he catches you; he is trying to do his duty and it will only be worse for you in the end. Don't fail to be careful if you know that you are gunning near a residence or a public road; a fool with a gun is in the same class as the mad dog.

AUTOING ON SUNDAY.

Hagerstown, Sept. 18th.—Rev. Dr. J Spangler Kieffer, president of the Reformed Synod in the United States, in a sermon in Zion Reformed Church today on "Sabbath Desecration," referred to the auto as a home-breaker and a Sabbath-breaker.

He said the automobile was here and it had come to stay. The inveation was one to call forth admiration, and, rightly used, it would be a blessing to mankind. He condemned the practice of those who use the automobile on the Sabbath to gratify their lust for amusement, excitement and sensation and those who go on Sunday sprees.

Persons who are confined to hard physical or mental labor during six days of the week, he said, and who seek healthful recreation on Sunday, are not to be condemned if they take an automobile ride into the country for fresh air, but even such, he thought, should find at least one hour on Sunday to give to the worship of God.

Camp Meeting.—The eleventh annual camp-meeting of the Chesapeake Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists will be held in a large canvas pavilion in the Willis apple grove, Chestertown, commencing Thursday evening, September 22nd, at 7.45, and continue until Oct. 2nd. For more than forty years it has been the custom of Seventh-day Adventists to hold annual camp-meetings in suitable localities. These meetings are a part of a religious movement which first took organized form about sixty years ago. There were then about 3000 believers and the work was confined to a small portion of the United States. Since that the movement has had a remarkable growth in spite of great obstacles.

At this meeting special attention will be given to evangelical and revival services at the camp. While avoiding the sensational, every effort will be made to make this a season of genuine spiritual growth. Able and experienced workers will be continually in attendance. Opportunity will be given for baptism to those who desire it.

In addition to the regular corps of local conference laborers, the following speakers will participate in this series of intensely interesting meetings: Elder A. G. Daniells, President of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Elder W. A. Spicer, Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, Elder W. T. Knox, Treasurer of the General Conference, Prof. M. E. Kern, President of the Foreign Mission Seminary, Prof. G. B. Wilkinson, President of the Columbia Union Conference, and R. S. Ingersoll, Medical Superintendent of the Washington (D. C.) Sanitarium.

There will be three special services each day at 11 A. M., 2.30 P. M. and at 7.45 P. M. in addition to the meetings for the young people and the children, which will be under the supervision of able workers who have given this work their attention for years. A special song service will precede all the services of the day.

The people of Chestertown and vicinity are cordially invited to join in making this the most interesting and successful camp-meeting ever held in this section of the State. Come and you will be made welcome.

'TWAS CIRCUS DAY.

Frank Robbins circus visited Olean yesterday, and gave clean, attractive and entertaining performances afternoon and evening. The Robbins show is one of the good old kind. where you can see all that is "doing," and while there are not one hundred and one "turns" as in the big three ring circuses, what there is is good. The tents were well filled, both in the afternoon and evening, and those present seemed satisfied that they had received their money's worth. The show people claim no following of "sharks" and gamblers, and no complaints along that line were made during their visit in Olean. The Robbins shows can be credited with fulfilling all that they promise.—Olean Times. Will exhibit in Chestertown Monday Sept 26th.

IN MEMORIAM.

WILTBANK.—In loving remembrance of our dear daughter, Ruth Esther Wiltbank, who departed this life on Sept. 22nd, 1909, age 15 years, 1 month and 3 days.

We shall meet, but we shall miss her:
There will be one vacant chair;
We shall linger to caress her,
While we breathe our evening prayer.

When a year ago we gathered,
Joy was in her mild brown eyes:
But the golden cord is broken
And our hope in ruins lies.

Not forgotten,
Mother, Father, Bothers and Sisters.

Fell asleep in Jesus Tuesday, Sept. 13th, at his home, Edesville, CLAY, youngest and beloved son of Henry C. and Lillian Hadaway, aged fourteen months. One more angel in Heaven.

Funeral service Thursday morning at half past ten. Rev. Mr. Dupuy officiating. Interment at Wesley Chapel.
