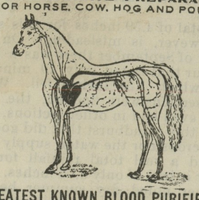
FEED FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONICS (POWDERED)
A SEPARATE PREPARATION
FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY



GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

THE FAIRFIELD PREPARATIONS ARE SOLD UNDER WRITTEN GUARANTEE BY REBUILDING NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moffett have purchased of James S Bradley the store and residence occupied by them for $3500. This building is nearly a wreck and will be torn down to make place for a modern brick structure The frontage is 26 feet.

Mr. M. A Toulson is planning to erect a home and drug store for himself, a store for Vansant & Newsome and one for McIntyre & Hodgkins on sites heretofore occupied by them.

Mr. W. R. Maul and sister contemplate building two store rooms as soon as possible, as do also Messrs. W. L Fowler and W. C. Sutton.

Mr. John S Vandegrift is also talking seriously of rebuilding with lodge rooms above, etc.

All sorts of reports about offers to purchase are in the air but nothing has been reported save the above. Some of the property is so held that legal steps will have to be taken before any improvements can be made. It is hoped that these steps will be quickly taken.

Mr. Wm L Fowler will probably purchase of Mr. Wm. T. Sutton the land adjoining his property. He will build a stable of concrete blocks and expects to get his buildings finished by first of year.

Two church weddings will take place in Chestertown before Christmas.

A Pretty Home Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Ringgold on High street, Chestertown, was the scene of a lovely wedding Wednesday morning. The parlors were decorated with potted plants and blooming flowers while lighted candles shed a soft glow over the picture. The contracting parties were Miss Mollie Rebecca Ringgold and Mr. Walter L. Elburn, both well-known in this community. The impressive ceremony was performed by the bride's grand-father, Rev. Joseph A. Arters, while the wedding march was performed by her uncle, Rev. John M. Arters. The bride was tastefully dressed in blue traveling suit of chiffon broadcloth with hat to match and carried Bride's roses Miss Ethel Ringgold was bridesmaid and wore a pretty dress of mode chiffon broadcloth and carried pink roses. Mr. Frank Elburn was best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Among those present out of town were: Rev. and Mrs. Joseph A. Arters, Middletown, Del; Rev. and Mrs. John M. Arters, Wilmington; Rev. W. E. Matthews, wife and son, of Smyrna; Dr. L. E. Barrett and wife; Miss Lelia Thomas, of Stevensville. The presents were numerous and useful. After the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip and upon their return will live at the Elburn home at the mill.
