If it be so!!

THE House of Correction and Baltimore Jail officials are bewailing lack of inmates in the respective institutions. Never in the history of the two places were prisoners so scarce.

TYPHOID FEVER has been raging in an alarming degree at the Naval Academy, Annapolis; and to add to the difficulty, two of the cooks have been discharged for putting up such inferior cooking that the officials became alarmed. Between the two difficulties it would seem that the poor midshipmen had a slim chance. Baltimore city has more fever at this time than ever before.

THE statement in another column from Hon. James Alfred Pearce will no doubt be read by everyone with interest. The even-tempered Judge says the statement that he has indorsed the anti-organization is unwarranted and ought not to have been made. This is certainly a strong sentence and the learned Judge will be joined by his constituents in indignation at such a false representation and such evident purpose to mislead and place the Court in a false position. It is but another evidence of what some people will do to bolster up their cause. As to the other feature of the letter the NEWS would state that we agree heartily with Judge Pearce, viz: "that it was good policy for the taxpayers that the levy for 1910 should be sufficient to discharge all existing indebtedness." But it is not good policy for the taxpayers to have to pay prospective and NON-EXISTING debts! This is what was done and the levy shows it and at the proper time the facts will be fully and correctly stated.

A GREAT "harmony" dinner is to be given in Baltimore on Jackson Day, January 17th, to which the Democratic Governors, Congressmen and other prominent members of the party are to be invited. The meeting and banquet will be in the nature of a celebration of the recent Democratic victories, and to enthuse party workers to greater efforts in the Presidential campaign of 1912, without booming any man's candidacy or attempting at this time to carve out a platform.

The proposed plan meets with general approval thoughout State and Nation, and should have the effect of harmonizing all factions of the party from all sections of the country. It is the suggestion of the Baltimore Sun which has seemingly come over to the Democratic party and has the sympathy of Gov. Crothers, Senators and Congressmen.

Wouldn't it be a good idea for the counties like Kent, Anne Arundel, Dorchester, Charles and others to have a "harmony" dinner also? The factions in these counties fight harder in the primaries than in an election.

WITH the celebration of the Holy Communion and the singing of old Methodist hymns, the conference of representatives of the three great bodies of the Methodist Church, looking forward to a union of the three divisions of the church, opened Tuesday at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Madison avenue and Preston street, Baltimore. The three divisions of the Methodists represented are the Methodist Protestant Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Southern Methodist Church.

The convention is one of the most important church gatherings ever held in this country. Each one of the three divisions of Methodists represented has millions of adherents. The union of these three great bodies would be one of the greatest movements for unity in the history of Christianity.

As noted elsewhere in the NEWS the recent census shows a decrease of population in Kent as in Queen Anne's and in several other counties. The following changes will be noted: Allegany, increase from 5 to 6 Delegates; Caroline increase from 2 to 3; Dorchester, increase from 3 to 4; Garrett, increase from 2 to 3; Harford, decrease from 4 to 3; Queen Anne's, decrease from 3 to 2.

On a drop in population from 18,786 to 16,957, Kent would loose one representative in the lower chamber, except for the provision that no county shall have less than two Delegates, the number which Kent boasts at present.

There are three ways by which the decrease may be stopped—by a reduced drift to the cities, the staying of young men upon the farm, and smaller farms. Probably it is in this last the most effective remedy is to be found. Large farms on which labor is supplanted by machinery are not beneficial to the community. Shall farms with more intensive farming will mean far more people to the square mile, and that means more trade for the rural merchants. And then, too the greater productivity of the soil, due to intensive farming, will mean greater wealth.

Local Notes.

THE appearance of scarlet fever at Western Maryland College has caused the suspension of classes until after the holiday vacation. There are five cases of the disease and one suspect, all boys.

THE "Mock Trial" at the P. O. S. of A. in Chestertown was concluded Tuesday evening with an acquittal of J. F. Wheatley for taking J. C. Davis' horse by Judge McIntyre. A. S. Crawford was counsel for prisoner and J. L. Smyth for State while J. C. Loud was foreman of jury.

A BARGE load of 120,000 bricks arrived Wednesday at Bacchus & Usilton's wharf to be used in Davis & Satterfield's big warehouse.

DRESSED pork has been selling in Chestertown this week from 8½ to 10 cents per pound dressed. Messrs. Harry Nichols, John McRochester, B. F. Rash and P. G. Wilmer killed fine pens of hogs this week.

THE personalty sales this week have been well attended and stock brought fair prices. Mr. J. T. Blackiston will remove to Lankford where he has purchased the stock of goods owned by Thos. W. Trew and will conduct a store at the old stand. Mr. Arnold Willis contemplates removing West.

IN another column will be found the card of Hellerick & Sudler, of Philadelphia. They want poultry and want a large quantity.

THE poultry house of Mr. H. Clay Lusby, near town, was robbed of some fine ducks one night last week. Mr. Lusby says he is thankful the biggest ones were left.

Mr. Clark Colgain while gunning on Sassafras river near Sassafras, Md., killed a large swan weighing 12½ pounds and measured 7 feet from tip to tip.

THE case of the Beck, Walker Company vs. Capt. Harry Pfeffer for loss of phosphate material was removed from Kent to Easton but before the case came to trial a compromise was effected. Messrs. Wickes, Beck and Barroll were the counsel. Capt. Crane, P. B. Hollis, W. J. Woodall, Capt. Nickerson and others were present as witnesses.

New Firm.—The Chestertown Laundry which was built and organized by Messrs. Ralph and Vernon Barnett and will hereafter be managed by Messrs. Ralph Barnett and Robert G. Nicholson. The laundry is doing good work under Mr. Louis Sheats and the new firm will no doubt give excellent service.

New Telephone Line.—The people in the vicinity of Worton Point will soon be connected with the outside world by telephone. Work has already begun putting up poles and if weather is favorable talk will begin over the line by Xmas. Among the patrons will be Jos. R. Usilton, Romie Skirven, Wm. B. Willis, W. A. Costello, Walter Morris, Carson Harris.

Changes at Depot.—Important changes were made in employes at the Chestertown depot Thursday. Mr. Wm. M. Culp, who for 25 years has been the faithful agent, resigned so as to give his whole attention to the hardware firm of Lofland & Culp. He is succeeded by Mr. William Price Milby, of Trappe, Md. Mr. Milby started work with the company at Massey, then removed to Kennedyville, and from there came to Chestertown as assistant to Mr. Culp. After several years of service here he was appointed agent at Trappe and now returns to take charge. He married Miss Lib Ivens, daughter of Mrs. S. A. Ivens, and they will be welcomed back "home." Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley will continue as assistant. Mr. Walbert, who was employed by Mr. Culp, has returned to his home in Quaker Neck and will be succeeded by Mr. Olan Stafford as messenger.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little preached a special sermon to the P. O. S. of A. and Jr. O. U. A. M. last Sunday morning at Christ M. P. Church. Both Orders were well represented and the sermon was eloquent and profound. His theme was "Our lines have fallen in pleasant places—we have a good heritage." At night the perils which menace our heritage were presented in a most striking light to a large congregation. These perils were embraced in the following: Decay of moral virtue in private and public life; greed for money; rum traffic; desecration of Sabbath day. Special music was presented by the choir at the morning service and at night Miss Bertha Stone, of Baltimore, rendered a classical solo of much beauty.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Dec. 4th, as follows: 10.30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, subject, "Who? Why"; 2.15 p. m., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible Class; 7 p. m. song service, followed by sermon by the pastor, subject. Mr. J. Frank Wheatley lead the Song Service in Christ Church Sunday. A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton was rendered.

Much interest is being taken to make of the occasion a great success. Proceeds to be used toward the purchase of a new carpet for the Methodist Protestant Church. Everybody is asked to help.

The new "Convention Heater" of the Smith System Heating Company of Indianapolis is being put in place in the Methodist Protestant Church, Kennedyville and will be in use for the services next Sunday. Come and be made comfortable by this new sanitary heating plant. Revival services in the evening.

IN MEMORIAM.

MR. THOMAS FRISBY MYERS died at his late home, near Millington, April 20th, 1910, after a lingering illness of over two months of stomach and bowel trouble—a general breaking down of the system—in his 71st year. The deceased had been an invalid with affliction of the eyes for sixteen years. Deprived of all the pleasures of this beautiful world, resigned to his Master's will, he trusted in the blessed Saviour, and passed away peacefully and calmly as if falling asleep. He leaves a wife and two brothers, John W. Myers, of near Blackiston's, Del., and William Myers, of near Millington, Md., with whom he resided. Funeral services were held at Blackiston's Church on Saturday, April 23, interment in the cemetery adjoining. The pastor of the Millington M. E. Church officiated; Mr. Smith undertaker. Gone but not forgotten.

Dear husband, thy troubles and trials are over,
Affliction will pain thy dear heart no more;
God will give you light in heaven
To see your loved ones gone before.
Your loving angel mother's waiting
Beckoning you to the shining shore.

You trusted in the blessed Saviour,
And you said that God knew best;
So he soothed your every sorrow,
And took you home to rest.

At rest, you are sweetly sleeping,
Safe from every earthly harm;
While I am left lonely weeping,
Yet leaning on the Exerlasting Arm.

LOVING WIFE, IRENE.

We shall meet when life is ended,
In a world that's bright and fair;
You will be there waiting for us,
We shall know each other there.

WIFE AND SISTER.

Cooking Demonstration.—A cooking demonstration that is remarkable in some of its features was held this week at the store of Graham & Clements. One exhibition that was especially interesting and that attracted much attention was held Tuesday. A large four-layer cake was cooked in the Majestic Range. Afterwards a sixteen-foot board was laid across the top of the cake and eight ladies stood on the board, the weight pressing the cake to the thickness of scarcely more than one layer. After the weight was lifted from the cake it resumed its original size and shape, and was cut and distributed among the spectators.
