KENT AND QUEEN ANNE'S TAKE THE BEST PRIZES

The Horticultural Show In Baltimore A Big Success—Hon. Jas. S. Harris, of Still Pond, Elected President—Mr. Harry P. Skipper, of Chestertown, Elected President of Cereal Association.

The State Horticultural Show at the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, last week was a big success. Kent and Queen Anne's counties carried off most of the honors. Hon. James S. Harris, of Kent, was elected President of the Association and his son, Walter B. Harris, got most of the prizes for apples.

Mr. Harry P. Skipper, of Queen Anne's, near Chestertown, was elected President of Cereal Association and he also won first prizes on wheat and corn.

In general the show was a success, but the exhibitors and members of the Horticultural Society are convinced that the general public has not, as yet, clearly seen the great advantages to be derived from the contact of the city people with the farmers of the state. From year to year, however, the attendance at the shows has increased continually, and there is prospect of greater public appreciation in the future.

Prof. H. B. Symonds, state entomologist of College Park, Md., told of his work during the last year. Mr. C. E. Minor, of Hamburg, Iowa, spoke on "Orchard Heating," and Warren A. Patch, of Boston, addressed the meeting on "The Proper Handling of Fruit from Producer to Consumer." Mr. Charles Seibold, superintendent of Carroll Park, spoke of the work done in the city parks and the advantages of gardens in the homes of the residents of the city.

The election of officers of the Horticultural Society was somewhat spirited, a new secretary and president being chosen. Mr. James S. Harris, of Kent county, was chosen president in place of Mr. Richard Vincent, Jr., who was elected as one of the members of the executive committee, and Prof. T. B. Symonds, of College Park, was chosen as secretary in place of Mr. C. P. Close, Mr. Close preferring to give his entire attention to the field of horticulture in the state.

Other Officers Elected.

The other officers elected were: Vice president, George Morrison, of Baltimore; vice president of the Peninsula Society, J. W. Hall, and members of the executive committee, E. P. Cohill; of Hancock; Orlando Harrison, of Berlin; David B. Stewart and Robert F. Graham were elected general vice presidents for the state.

County vice presidents were elected as follows: Allegany, Fred Martens; Anne Arundel county, J. S. Linthicum; Baltimore county, Isaac H. Moss; Calvert, F. O. Smith; Caroline J. Spencer Lapham; Carroll, A. C. Snabley; Cecil, M. C. Reeder; Charles, E. W. Hungerford; Dorchester, W. W. Byrn; Frederick, R. Lewis; Garrett, J. M. Conneway; Harford, J. T. Hoopes; Howard A. J. Hanson; Kent, W. T. Brown; Montgomery, R. Gentley Thomas; Prince Georges, Dr. E. P. Magruder; Queen Anne, W. Irving Walker; St. Mary, G. F. Wathen; Somerset, F. E. Matthews; Talbot, Charles Lowndes; Washington, A. L. Towson; Wicomico, W. F. Allen; Worcester, Frank Peters.

Awards of Prizes.

The judges of the various exhibits had some very hard work to choose the prize winners, nearly everyone of the exhibits being of extraordinary excellence.

Apples—Pratt Silver Loving Cup, W. B. Harris, Worton, Md.; Thomsen Chemical Co. Prize, W. B. Harris, Worton, Md.

Mr. Walter B. Harris also won cup for nine best boxes of apples of three varities. Also first prize on Winesap, Stark, York Imperial and Fallawater. Also a number of second prizes.

PRIZES FOR CEREALS.

H. P. Skipper won first on yellow corn in district; also won sweepstakes for best ears of corn grown in Maryland. Mr. Skipper also won first prize on hard wheat for Eastern Shore and also won the sweepstakes in State for wheat, and also won first prize on rye.

Mr. W. Irving Walker won second on yellow corn and Mr. J. Thos. Smith 3rd.

Mr. Josiah Massey won first prize on soft wheat in district and 2nd on white corn.

He also won first prize on whippowill cow peas.

Mr. W. F. Wink, of near Chestertown won third on hard wheat.

Mr. J. T. Anthony was first on alfalfa hay and third on clover hay.

Mr. Wm. Walraven, of Queen Anne's, was third on timothy hay.

HUNT FOR HARES.

Greenwood, Delaware To Turn Out—Bunnies Become Town's Pest.

With their gardens, hen houses and even their lawns, burrowed and tunneled by an active band of Belgian hares that were introduced some time ago by thrifty boys who raised them for profit, citizens of Greenwood, Del., have complained so bitterly of the nuisance that a general rabbit hunt in which the whole town shall take part in an effort to exterminate the pests will be carried out.

A couple of years ago some of the boys imported the hares and started to raise them to sell, but soon found that three hares would eat as much as a horse and still be unsatisfied. Unable to feed the hungry rabbits the animals were allowed to roam and have multiplied so fast that nearly the whole town is infested with them. Burrowing under the ground and clipping off the clover patches, they have become a great nuisance. Several persons found their houses sinking down at one end and found that the hares were digging away the foundations.

Even in the streets several horses have fallen through where the rabbits have dug tunnels from one side to the other. Not only have the hares grown in numbers but in fighting powers, and there is hardly a dog or cat in the viliage that will tackle the husky rabbits.

Miss Lydia Reynolds spent Sunday with friends in Sudlersville.

Miss Ethel Holbrook, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Clara Ahern.

Mr. J. C. Numbers, of Western Maryland College, Westminister, is at home, the school being closed on account of scarlet fever.

Mr. Harry Catts, near town, spent last Saturday with friends in Chestertown.

The store windows are being decorated now for the Christmas holidays.

Sleighbells can be heard now at all hours. The young people seem to be enjoying the good sleighing snow which fell this week.

On Friday last Prof L. C. Robinson, principal of the High School, was summoned to the bedside of his brother, Mr. Wm. Robinson, who was critically ill at his home near McGinnes' Corner. His illness is the result of the accident which happened at Millington R. R. Station a few weeks ago in which he was seriously injured about the head. He was taken to a Baltimore Hospital on Monday accompanied by Dr. O. E. Landers, of Crumpton.

FARMERS ON THEIR JOB.

In the olden times the farm was a general loafing place in the winter. The farmer loafed at the store or smith shop the cows loafed in the stable, as the milk pails proved; the horses loafed and grew soft and fat in their stalls, and the very hens loafed on the roost waiting for spring before beginning to lay eggs. A wonderful awakening has come! The modern farmer is on the job every day of the winter; the cows are doing their best to provide plenty of thirty-cent butter, and the cheerful cackle of the hens on these bright December days attests the fact that they are inspired by the twentieth century determination to make good at thirty-five cents a dozen.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.
