A LETTER from our good friend Mr. James Brice, dated Tampa, Florida, Jan. 30th, 1911, says: "As quite a number asked me to let them hear from us through the NEWS I take this opportunity to write you. We left home on the 4th arriving in Tampa on the 7th at 6.30 after a pleasant trip. It has not rained a drop since the day we came and weather has been fine—no fire and no fan! New potatoes, peas, tomatoes and all other vegetables, roses, pinks and lillies of the valley in abundance We all went over to St. Petersburg last week and visited George Roland who has a nice place in a large hardware store and is doing well while his brother is also steadily employed. We called to see Mr. Willson, son of Richard Wilson, of near Eastern Neck Island Ferry. He is in business with a Mr. Graves in storekeeping with big stock and a number of clerks. Col. Evans is having a fine time fishing and has landed some elegant trout I have been gunning twice killing 13 first time and 8 last and next day four of us sat down to quail which were fine."

Clover Seed

Market steady and Fancy Seeds are in demand—lower grades are plentiful, but inactive.

High standard seeds with the government test are what our people should insist upon.

"Fancy Red Clover"—Test 99 per cent. pure; 98 per cent. germination.

"Extra Fancy Alsyke"

Highest test from Toledo and the fanciest Alsyke we ever offered.

This fancy Alsyke is one of the scarce seeds this season.

"Fancy Red Top"

Known also as Herd Grass and has become very popular because of its good qualities and sure crop

"Fancy Timothy Seed"

Good Timothy Seed, like good Alsyke, is a scarce article.

We are again in the seed business on the COMMISSION BROKERAGE BASIS, and are certainly in position to save our people money on the cash purchases of all seeds.

Allow us to send samples.

Phone or write or best of all visit our place and see for yourself.
