WAKING OFFL!

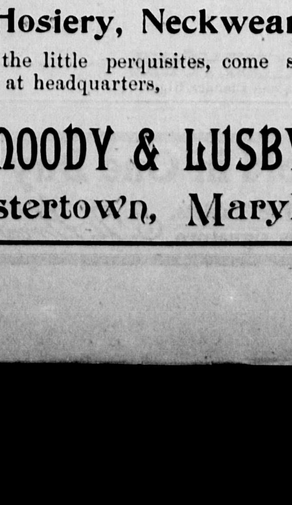

Our Spring and Summer Togs are going at a lively pace. If you want an assortment to pick from, you must come early as we desire as usual, to serve you well.

OUR CLOTHING FITS

And holds its shape, and we pride ourselves on these esential points, and the cost to you is not near as much as city houses would charge for same qualities. We originate, and have lots of imitators, but few duplicators.

We are selling unusual quantities of Boys' and Children's Clothing—due to the fact that mothers have compared qualities and prices with city houses and rendered a verdict in our favor.

Separate Trowsers

of all description, from Boys' Linen at 20c up to the Fine Flannels and Worsteds for all sorts and conditions of men.

Nobby Line of Shirts,

The fitting kind, the wearing sort, the economical stuff, the best at 50c you ever saw; made to our especial order. They fit and wear.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Do we keep Hats? No, we sell them, for all ages and pocket books.

Hosiery, Neckwear

And all the little perquisites, come see and compare at headquarters,

Chestertown, Maryland

LOCAL NEWS.

A YOUNG GENTLEMAN rode through Chestertown Thursday in the midst of the rain storm in a skiff! The skiff was on a wagon.

THE steamer Emma A. Ford will hereafter make a trip to Love Point on Sundays leaving Chestertown at noon and returning here at 3 A. M., Monday. This is done to help the B. S. Ford carry excursionists from Baltimore. It is hard on the crew and another deviation from the old practise.

THE Kent Building & Loan Association has money to lend at 5 per cent. on mortgages.

AMONG the pretty flowers grown in Chestertown none surpass the cultivated magnolia bush owned by Mrs. H. H. Barroll nor the mammoth hydrangea now blooming in Mrs. J. P. Decorse's yard on High street.

HOWARD OWENS, Betterton, has a store full of novelties including fine views of Betterton. He is keeping pace with the growth of this favorite Kent resort.

Capt. Wilbur Eliason also took a large party cruising in his swift-winged canoe.

THE Chestertown Commissioners have decided to lay a new pavement on the South side of Washington avenue, work on same will commence at once.

THE NEWS is indebted to Messrs. J. W. Beachamp & son, proprietors of Lankford Mills, for a sack of flour made from new wheat. Mr. Beachamp is an expert miller and his new product sustains his enviable reputation.

T. D. FRANCE says the rain storm of Sunday was the heaviest in town for fifteen years. This statement was made Wednesday.

ROMIE MCCAULEY'S carriage was upset and his horse badly scared by an automobile Saturday. The owner of the machine made apologies to Mr. Mc Cauley.

THE choir members of Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, were given a delightful straw ride to Betterton on Thursday evening by Mr. W. M. Hurlock. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hurlock, Rev. and Mrs. Albert C. Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Othoson, Mrs. Rachel Hill, Miss Sue Shallcross, the Misses Hessners Mr. H. A. Hill and W. A. Hurlock, all report a fine time.

MILTON MASLIN, of Rock Hall, raised a curiosity in the shape of a tomato in Miss Mamie Wickes' garden. It weighed one pound, four ounces and has been named the "Diamond King." It may be seen at the NEWS office.

Prosperous Banks.—The Directors of the Kent County Savings Bank at their meeting Wednesday after paying 4 per cent. on all savings accounts for past six months and other expenses, declared a semi-annual dividend of three per cent. and carried $893 to undivided profits. This makes the undivided profits about $18,000.

The Chestertown Bank directors declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. and added over $5800 to undivided profits. This is a remarkably good showing for a bank only seven months old.

Accidents.—Ralph, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Usilton, broke his left arm Monday morning while reaching for reins on a horse's back. Dr. Whaland set the broken bones. Mr. Usilton's youngest son injured his hand by accidentally catching it in a block.

The Misses Reese, daughters of Larry Reese, of near town, were in a runaway accident on Washington avenue Wednesday morning. The ladies were driving into town, and when near the arch their horse became frightened. The ladies managed the frightened animal until they came into contact with a large rope which was lying across the driveway. The horses feet got tangled in the rope and he began to plunge.

The carriage was upset, and the ladies were thrown to the ground with such force as to injure them but not seriously. They were taken to the home of Mrs. George B. McWhorter, on Washington avenue, where they received medical treatment.

Mr. Sam'l Latham, electrician, came near sawing the end of his thumb off Wednesday. Dr. Simpers dressed the wound.

Property Sales.—Mrs. Robert Ford has purchased of Mr. I. R. Leaverton his farm in Quaker Neck known as the "Merritt farm" and on which Mr. Wm. Edwards resides. A new house has been erected and other improvements made.

Capt. Andrew Woodall has bought the farm below Earleville known as "Sheffield," and tenated by William Deshane.

Mr. Frank D. Crew purchased at Sheriff's sale Wednesday the Wilson tract of 14 acres adjoining his land and Parson's mill for $36.25. The mortgage amounts to about $150.

The public sale of the farm of the late William Daniels, near Townsend, was bought by Mrs. M. D. Hart, the price being $6,200. The farm contained about 120 acres, and is considered one of the most desirable small farms in the neighborhood.

The Capitol Hotel, one of Dover's oldest and most desirable hotel properties, has changed hands. The purchaser is Mrs. Amy Ford Walker, widow of Mr. Harry Walker. The consideration was $15,000. While Mrs. Walker is the purchaser, it is understood that her brother, Jefferson L. Ford, formerly of the Hotel Rodney, at Lewes, will run the hotel.

DEATH OF THOS. J. PARSONS.

Thos. J. Parsons, one of the best-known men in this section of Kent county, died suddenly at the City Hospital in Baltimore Wednesday at 5 A. M., aged 60. The deceased had been a sufferer from Bright's Disease for sometime and on Sunday went to the hospital for treatment but the end came quick.

The deceased was born on the Cooper farm in the third district where he was raised and had many friends. He was a constable for many years and proved an efficient and faithful officer. He removed to "Pig Neck" some years ago and lately took up his abode at Deep Landing. He served as a magistrate for two years. He was a man of liberal views, large intellect and warm heart and his demise will be keenly felt. Mr. Parsons has one brother, Isaac C. Parsons, of Wilmington, Del., two half brothers, John and Joseph Duyer, and two half sisters, Mrs. S. A. Carter and Mrs. Laura Crew. He married Miss Eliza Ivens who survives with eight children, viz., George, of Richmond, Maude Ayres, Addie Thompson, Frank, Alice, Marion and Charlie Parsons.

The funeral took place Thursday interment at Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

Miss Julia B. Ferguson will take a course at Harvard College, Boston, Mass., this summer, for which place she left on Friday of last week.

Mr. Comegys Peacock, of Philadelphia, formerly a well known contractor and builder of our town, is spending some time with old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rolph and little daughter, Miss Margaret, of Wilmington, Del., spent several days with Mr. Rolph's sister, Miss Martha McWhorter.

Mrs. Annie M. Cecil, the oldest resident of our town, died last Monday evening, after a lingering illness, aged 80. The funeral services were held at her late home on Cypress street Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Kuhlman officiating; interment in Millington cemetery. Mrs. Cecil is survived by one child, Miss Helen.

The Centreville base ball club accompanied by quite a number of enthusiastic rooters, came to town Tuesday to help our boys celebrate the Fourth. The first game was started at 1 o'clock with Griffith in the box for Millington. It came to be seen after the first few innings that the Centreville boys could do nothing with Griffith's speedy curves, the first game ended with the score 5 to 14 favor Millington. The second game began about 3 o'clock with Gamble on the rubber for Millington, backed by Luther Gadd, the swell catcher, who did such fine work on the Sudlersville team several years ago, although Mr. Gadd has not played for sometime, he hasn't forgotten how to do it and caught in fine style. Mr. Coppage played short stop in the second game and helped the boys to win with his good stick work, score 8 to 23 favor of Millington. The games were played before the largest crowd ever seen on the Millington grounds. Last Saturday the boys played at Marydel, Geo. Gartsides, the crack Chester pitcher, was in the box for Marydel and held our heavy hitters in check. Griffith for Millington was in fine shape and had the Marydel batters at his mercy. Errors alone were accountable for the two runs scored.

One of the Baltimore representatives evidently has the so-called feminine characteristic of changing his mind. He paid his registration fee of $1 and left the headquarters in the best of spirits. Later he returned, looking excited and worried. He had just discovered that he could not arrange to attend all of the meetings, and wanted his dollar back. Mr. Perkins, the chairman of the finance committee, was consulted and declared it would be impossible to refund the money until the convention was over.
