will be cleaned up at temptingly low prices preparatory to Spring invoices.

Come Early

while we have a fair assortment, there's a very good line left yet, but they will soon be cleaned up at the prices we are quoting.

MOODY & LUSBY

Directly Opp. Court House, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Personal ❋ ❋ ❋ ❋ and Social

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson, entertained the assessors at a dinner on Tuesday, at their home near town.

Mrs. Ellen Beck, returned to her home in Chestertown this week after several months spent in St. Louis, Mo., and Texas.

Prof. Gilbert Taylor, the County surveyor will remove to Chestertown. He has rented rooms with Mr. Hall Denny on Water street

Mrs. Williams, of Middletown, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George D. Lofland, on High street.

Mr. E. Carroll Markland, of Oxford, is at Chestertown depot, assisting Mr. Milby.

Dr. Sanborn and wife are entertaining Mrs. Sanborn's parents at their cozy home on Kent Circle.

Miss Leonore Wilmer returned Monday from a pleasant visit to friends in Centreville.

Mrs. J. H. Sides has been confined to her home this week by sickness.

Mr. J. W. Russell has been sick abed this week.

Mr. Joseph Guest writes from Braintree, Mass., that he expects to return home about April 1st.

Mrs. C. D. McClary, who has been on the sick list for a week was able to be out Sunday.

Letters received from Mr. Merritt Brown, of Chestertown, who is at Panama, say he has very lucrative employment and is also on the base ball team at $5 per game. The 1907 mile trip from New York to Colon was made in 8 days. He says they have recently killed two fine deer.

Mrs. Charles M. Vickers is spending several weeks with Baltimore and Washington friends.

Mrs. Herbert Fletcher is visiting Baltimore friends.

Master Walter Chapman entertained a number of his little friends on Monday afternoon in celebration of his fifth birthday. Little Miss Mary Virginia Jones also had a birthday party on same day. Friends presented her with a ring and bracelet.

Miss Susie Frazier has been appointed operator at the Telephone Exchange to succeed Miss Isabel Lambert, who will go to Philadelphia to live.

Mr. Wm. H. Elliott, Jr., has been suffering with a sprained foot for ten days but is now able to throw aside his canes.

Mr. S. Chester Coursey, the retiring Master of Centreville Lodge, No 180, A. F. & A. M., and Right Worshipful Junior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Maryland, was presented a very handsome Past Master's Jewel Monday night by the members of the fraternity, in honor of his faithful service as a member and officer of this organization Senator J. Frank Harper, in a very appropriate address, spoke of the service Mr. Coursey had rendered not only to this lodge but Masonry in general and presented this token of esteem to him. Mr. Coursey was taken entirely by surprise, as this is the first Past Master's Jewel ever presented to this lodge.

Mr. William Burgess, of Piney Neck, gave his friends a most delightful dinner on Sunday last. This being "Billy's" 72nd birthday he tried to out do all former occasions. A most sumptuous repast was served, consisting of chicken, fried and scalloped oysters, chicken salad, white and sweet potatoes, hominy, bread, pickles, jellies, ice cream, cake, etc. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jacquette, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller, Mrs. James Leary, Mrs. Ava Davis, Mrs. Wilkie, Mrs. Joseph Waters, Misses Margaret Burgess, Elizabeth Wood, Bessie Walters, Adalaine Wilkie, Augusta Brown. Mildred and Reba Davis, Messrs. William Wagner, Vachel Burgess, Edward Leary, Charles Strong, James and Randolph Burgess, LeRoy Jacquette and D. W. Crosby. All felt it was "good to be there" and wished "Billy" many more happy returns of the occasion, and that he would not forget to remember each of us when he is 73.

Mr. H. F. Jefferson, of Jefferson Bros., made a business trip to New York this week purchasing latest style millinery for his Chestertown store.

Mr. Frank E. Cushman of Attleboro, Mass., and Miss H. Laveuia Francis of Lake Shore, Md., were married at the parsonage of the Magothy Church by the Rev. Mr. H. Nice Tuesday, Feb. 28. After the ceremony the bride and groom accompanied by her little sister Elsie and grandmother Mrs. W. E. Sadtler went to the house of the brides father Mr. Luther C. Francia of Annapolis, where a prettily arranged dinner was served presided over by the bride's aunt Mrs. C. Lewis Engel and daughter Miss Mary Engle of Baltimore. The bride wore a gray tailored suit with hat and gloves to match. They left on the 5.30 train for Philakelphia, New York and from thence to Boston where they expect to make their home. The bride received many handsome and useful presents among which was a handsome fur coat from her father also a gold watch and chain from her grandmother.

Mr. Wm. J. Price, Jr., of Centreville, is enjoying a month's stay in Savannah, Tampa and Florida and Georgia cities until about April 1st.

Mr. Charles Bradley suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and has been quite a sufferer.

Dr. M. Bates Stephens and Prof. E. M. Noble, of Denton, and Prof. B. J. Grimes, of Centreville, attended the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association at Mobile, Ala., and will witness the Mardi Gras New Orleans, returning home in about two weeks. Some of Mr. Stephens friends taking advantage of his absence have announced his candidacy for Governor!

SEVEN GOOD THINGS

The "Book" is crowded with "Seven Things" and it would be well worth anyone's time to look them up and seriously ponder them. Among them are the "Seven Walks" of Ephesians: First, Eph. 2:2; second, Eph. 2:10; third, Eph. 4:1; fourth, Eph. 4:7; fifth, Eph. 5:5; sixth, Eph. 5:8; seventh, Eph. 5:15. Seven played a happy part at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Apsley on Thursday evening, viz: A 7 Cent Social. All were invited to come at 7 o'clock, pay an admission fee of 7 cents, for refreshments 7 cents, for departure 7 cents. "A good time" was promised and a good time it was. A house full of happy people engaged in a good cause for the Stewards of the M. E. Church, Rock Hall.
