The birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ford, Galena, to their daughter, Evalyn, was a very pleasant affair. A crowd of jolly young people were present and the time seemed brief between the hour of arrival and the late hour when good-byes were said. The birthday cake containing a wedding ring and a thimble furnished much merriment; and who can say that things foretold there shall not come to pass? The decorations were beautiful being entirely of arbutus and fern. A number of beautiful and useful gifts were received as mementoes of the occasion.

A surprise was given Miss Mae Ringgold, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. Joseph Ringgold, of near Crumpton, on Tuesday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The guests began to arrive early in the evening and Miss Ringgold was taken completely by surprise. Mrs. Samuel Sparks sang a very beautiful solo and little Miss Frances Taylor also pleased those present with her singing At ten o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served in abundance.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ringgold, Mrs. Readolphus Coleman, Mrs. Chas. Burkett, Mrs. Chas. The wedding of Miss Martha Willlams Davis, of this city, to Mr. Unit Rasin, of Syracuse, N. Y., took place Saturday April 29 at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walter Hunter, in the Saint Paul, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Alfred Harding, of Washington in the presence of the two families and relatives.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Hunter. She wore a white satin gown, embroidered in peare-trimmed in old dutchess lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, her bouquet being lillies of the valley. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Mary Brewer Davis, of Washington. The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Samuel A. Merritt, John W. Chesley, J. Hynson Brown, J. Heyward Taylor, Dr. Henry Waters Kennard of Baltimore and John Brewer, of Rockville, Md.

The bride is the daughter of the late James Lynn Davis and James Plater Brewer, of Frederick county. Her mother was a lineal descendant of Gov. George Plater, and she is also related through her father to some of the most distinguished families of the State. The groom is a son of the late Joseph Rasin and grandson of Unit Rasin of St. Louis. He is also a nephew of Judge and Mrs. James A. Pearce. He spent his boy hood with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Merritt in Kent county.

Dr. Dowling Benjamin, nephew of Mr. Alfred Benjamin, of Chestertown, and a well-known Camden physician and surgeon, fell from the steps of a patient at 547 Rayden street fracturing his left arm and injuring the shoulder blade. Doctor Benjamin realized the nature of his injuries and grasping the fractured bone with the right hand set it and directed W. H. Bergantz, at whose home he had called, to make splints. The physician bound them around the broken arm and getting into his automobile went to his home, 215 Cooper street. Dr. W. A. Davis, who was called declared Doctor Benjamin had attended to the injury as well as any surgeon who had two hands. Doctor Benjamin suffered much yesterday, but expected the arm would knit in the usual time.
