STILL UNDECIDED.

Governor Crothers at the hour of going to press yesterday was still undecided as to calling an extra session of Legislature. It was thought, however, that if he did it would be for the purpose of counting Baltimore city ballots, passing the new city charter and amendments to Primary and Corrupt Practices Laws.

LATER.—No extra session. Grand Jury agrees to finish counting within a week.

IF the Republicans had been pure in their methods and conduct of affairs they might have some grounds to ask support, after the revelations in Baltimore. But, they are not one whit better than the Democrats.

THE State candidates on the Republican ticket were in Chestertown on Wednesday and held a reception at the Voshell House. Leaders of the party called and others paid their respects. Mr. Goldsborough admitted that he must get Democratic votes in order to be elected. Col. W. J. Vannort sent the candidates away loaded down with flowers!

LIKE A PUTRID SORE

The political situation in Baltimore is worse than a putrified sore. Both parties are guilty—the Republicans no less so than the Democrats. If the purging of Baltimore could be accomplished without injury to the counties it would be a good thing, But the counties are made to suffer for the wrongdoing of the city.

It is an outrage and a shame that men can become so low as to think that cheating and lying in politics is all right and men of high standing in business circles connive or wink at same and profit by it. The exposure in Baltimore will be a blessing to both parties if they will profit by it and recognize there is such a thing as honesty and fair dealing in politics.

We are ashamed of these men who call themselves Democrats and feel that they have to some extent besmirched every member of the party. And so the decent white Republican must feel.

IT is likely that former State Senator Clarence W. Perkins will be appointed assistant city solicitor when Mr. S. S. Field receives his commission as the new solicitor. Former Senator Perkins is a product of the schools of Kent county. He was born in Chestertown and after attending the public schools he was a student at Washington College. Later, he went to Baltimore and attended the law school of the University of Maryland, from whence he graduated in 1904.

Several years afterwards he married Miss Bessie Owens, sister of State's Attorney Albert S. J. Owens. He is regarded as one of Baltimore's leading lawyers and for a number of years has been associated with Senator Charles P. Coady. Several years ago he represented the Second legislative district in the Maryland State Senate, where he made an enviable record. He lives on the Reisterstown Road and has four children. Mr. Perkins is 42 years old.

A True Account of the Poll and Canvas of Ballots at the Recent Primary Election in the Second Precinct of the Fourth or Chestertown District of Kent County.

During the polling of the vote there was but one ballot rejected, viz., that of James Alfred Palmer.

Mr. H. W. Vickers, Jr., challenged Mr. Palmer's vote on the ground that Mr. Palmer was a Republican, and was sustained in his contention by Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr., (Republican) who testified that Mr. Palmer had been working for him for the past week or more among Republicans in their primary contest; that Mr. Palmer stated to him (Mr. Eliason) that he (Mr. Palmer) was a Republican and that he would support the Republican party; and on this testimony and proper legal advice Mr. Palmer's vote was rejected.

During the canvass of the ballots, the number of which corresponded with the clerk's poll books and registrars' account of ballots cast during the day, eight Democratic ballots were thrown out, and for the following reasons: Six of them were ballots intended for the First instead of the Second precinct; one because the voter had written a name at the bottom of the ballot in lead pencil, and one because the voter had stricken a candidate's name from the face of the ballot with lead pencil. Five of the ballots thrown out were what are known as Organization ballots and three known as Anti-Organization ballots.

No ballots were counted for any candidate or candidates that did not, in the opinion of a majority of the judges, plainly and fairly represent or indicate the intent of the voter; nor were any votes counted without the consent of a majority of the judges.

THE new assessment of Kent county has been finally completed and is now in the hands of the Board of Control and Review, Mr. Harry Davis, presiding. The total amount of property in the county as returned by Messrs. Harry Griffith, Walter Francis and the local assessors is about ten million dollars. The old or present assessment is $8,600,000. The assessors desire through the NEWS to thank the public for the general courtesy with which they were received and the uniform kindness exhibited. The fifth and third districts had the smallest increase.

THE attitude assumed by Senator Gorman regarding the rottenness of the primary election held in Baltimore cannot but help his candidacy in the State. His many outspoken expressions and his active work in connection with the State's Attorney to uncover everything which happened in these primaries shows him to be a man of nerve and action and such a man as will make Maryland one of the best Governors the State had. The crookedness in the primaries falls with equal disgrace upon both the Republican and the Democratic parties for the Judges of Elections for both parties are equally guilty. The whole thing brings clearly to the minds of the people of Maryland that what is needed in Baltimore is a complete cleaning out of the political pirates who defame the ballot boxes in BOTH PARTIES. Mr. Gorman has had the manliness and courage to come out in the open and say so and is giving his aid and assistance to the proper officers to bring about this cleaning out.

BOTH PARTIES GUILTY

The exposure of frauds in Baltimore prove both parties guilty. The Republicans are holding up their hands in horror, as if they were pure as an angel. An old-time Democrat says:

One speaks of corruption in the Democratic party. This is indeed interesting, and leads me to ask when the Republican party became so honest and virtuous?

More than 50 years ago I voted the Democratic ticket, and I know the Republican party from its birth.

I distinctly remember during the sixties when the Sun was not permitted to publish any news until revised by the war party.

I also remember when no man, unless a Republican, could express an opinion on politics.

I remember when Maryland's bravest and best men were imprisoned and persecuted by the Republicans of Maryland; when that grand old man, Judge Carmichael, of Talbot county, was hauled off the bench in court and cruelly beaten over the head by Republican ruffians (not soldiers); when Senator Vickers, Wm. B. Usilton, J. T. Dodd and others were arrested and taken away during an election at the time John Frazier ran for Clerk in Kent county.

I remember when Mr. John Boyle, of Westminster, was thrown into prison without even a blanket to cover him in his old age, and though a prisoner myself, I ministered to his relief by covering him with a buffalo robe which I had the good fortune to possess. This was indeed sweet Republicanism, and I for one cannot believe this bunch is more honest now than then, for they are still led by the "Stone bunch," which was even then in full blossom.

Of course, they are now virtuous and good, but I think we Democrats should not trust them, and I for one will not.

They talk of Democratic reform. The party needs no reform. Some bad men are in our ranks, of course. We will turn them out and just keep right on in business at the "old stand."

Gorman is good enough for me. I lived in his county many years, knew his illustrious father and have entire faith in the son He will do what he promises, and is above anything small or mean. He has wealth and social position, and comes of a good old Irish stock, full of brains and is withal the friend of the workingman—the humble poor as well as the rich and powerful.

Fortunately, old Maryland has many such good men as Gorman and Lee, while the Republicans can almost count their big men on their fingers.

I am now an old man, and I am thankful my old mother taught me to keep good company—so you may easily know where I belong.

OLD AND VALUED FRIEND.

MY DEAR KENT NEWS—

My old and valued friend, I greet you cordially, and welcome you warmly into my home once more. Our acquaintance was first formed in the spring of 1860, and in the whirl of time our paths were divergent, but judging from your general appearance, your neat attire, your plethoric columns of adv, all give evidence of your prosperous past. Like old wine, as the saying goes, you improve on age. Your mission is an honorable and responsible one, for more mighty is the pen than the sword. That you have fulfilled your mission with credit to yourself and to the satisfaction of your patrons is evidenced by the eagerness with which your weekly publication and proclamation is looked for by your readers. Various and varied the topics discussed, suited to the tastes, and designed to meet the expectations of all classes of readers. Difficult task, stupendous task, well nigh impossible task, but when we do our best, angels can do no more. I close with hearty congratulations upon your pleasant surroundings and environments. The location of your town is something unique and picturesque. That beautful, sparkling, enchanting Chester river, your public buildings and private residences, your rich and productive farming lands adjacent, and above all, and better than all, the character of your people, intelligent, refined, religious! How much to be coveted, and how much to be attributed to the printing press, the public journal, such a condition.

Very sincerely,
JAMES EARLE MALOY.

Colora, Maryland.

MR. GORMAN'S BRAVE STAND.

According to all reports, the Baltimore Jury's investigation of several of the precincts of that city shows that wholesale frauds were perpetrated there in the recent primary election, and the result in entire city is being investigated. It may make a change in the result so far as some local candidates are concerned, but none is expected in regard to the State ticket. Senator A. P. Gorman, the Democratic candidate for Governor, has insisted upon a full recount of the city vote, and by his action has won general commendation.

The primary, under the law, was conducted by the full election force, consisting of three Democrats and three Republicans in each precinct, so that any fraud that was perpetrated was due to criminal action on the part of the officials of both parties. Honest people all over the State hope that all guilty parties, including the "men higher up" who gave orders for the fraud, will be indicted and punished for their offense.

Are You Fair to Your Watch?

Your Watch runs day and night, year in and year out, and it requires more attention than the winding which you give it. It should be thoroughly cleaned and oiled every other year. If this isn't done the watch may be seriously damaged. The oil accumulates dust and grit, and this corrodes. Then, instead of acting as a lubricant, this residue cuts the delicate bearings like a file.

Be fair to your watch. Don't expect it to do more than a locomotive or your automobile.

Careful attention given to watches sent us from out of Chestertown.

Virginia Orchard Land FOR SALE

After visiting some of the best orchards in the state I selected, about 50 miles from Washington, D. C., 963 acres of fine grazing and timber land adjoining lands of Capt. Beverley, who took more premiums on his apples than any other exhibitor at Va. State Fair in 1910. Tract has elevation of 950 to 1350 feet with deep valleys 450 to 800 feet lower just in front and back of it. Is above frost line. Peach trees on the place, 25 years old, still bear every year.

I will sell three choice tracts of 100 to 250 acres at grazing land prices to experienced orchardists. I find I have not capital to develope whole tract. For further particulars write T. S. VANCE, Warrenton, Va.
