WEDDING BELLS.

DAVIS—SCOTT.

The marriage of Miss Frances M. Scott, daughter of Dr. Edward A. Scott, and Mr. James D. Davis, Jr., cashier of the Galena bank, was celebrated on November 2nd in Galena M. E. Church. The ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. R. H. Lewis, assisted by Rev. A. P. Prettyman. Promptly at 4 o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march, performed by Miss Gertrude Dempsey, the ushers marched down the aisle to meet the bride. The order of procedure was as follows: Ushers, Mr. John Elliott, Altoona, Pa.; Mr. Frank R. Diggs, Baltimore, Md; Mr. Chester Davis, Wilmington, Del.; Mr. Jesse E. Ireland, Galena, Md.; the groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Ollie Davis, as best man; maid of honor, Miss Mary Scott, sister of the bride, gowned in white with black picture hat, carrying yellow chrysanthemums; the bride, in traveling gown of dark blue with hat to match, carrying white chrysanthemums, was accompanied by her father, who gave her in marriage.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left in an auto for Elkton, where they took the train. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at their new home in Galena after November 16. Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's uncle, Mr. R. Henry Diggs and Mr. Frank R. Diggs, Baltimore; Misses Elinor and Caroline Diggs, Baltimore; Miss Olive Steele, Delaware; Miss Caroline Scott, Van Buren, Ark.; Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Clark, Chestertown; Misses Fannie and Bessie Stuart, Chestertown; Miss Genevieve Hall, of Church Hill; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. ELIASON—LINDALE.

A pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday evening of last week, at 6 o'clock, when Miss Gertrude Dulany Lindale, daughter of Rev. J. M. Lindale, of near Port Deposit, Md., became the bride of James Bayard Eliason, of Wilmington. The house was artistically decorated with autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums, yellow and white being the color scheme. The bride's gown was of hand embroidered marquisette over satin, and carried bride roses and lillies of the valley. There were no attendants, only the immediate families and a few intimate friends being present. After a wedding supper the couple left for a Southern trip, and will be at home after the 10th of December at 914 West Ninth street, Wilmington.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Thomas Gale, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. S. Rasin, of Quaker Neck, died at his parents home near Cliff City on Saturday of Bright's disease, aged 2 years and one month. Funeral services were held at the house on Monday morning at eleven o'clock Rev. Mr. McCann, of Pomona, officiating. The bearers were Howard and Walter Crouch, Carroll Brown and Walter Rash. Interment was in Still Pond cemetery, undertaker, W. H. Krusen.

Catherine, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, formerly of Chestertown, died at the home of her parents in Wilmington last Saturday. The remains were brought here on Monday and interred in Chester cemetery. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. F. T. Little. The pall bearers were Albion Bailey, Duncan Derringer, Merritt Horn and Wolmsley Davis ; undertaker, Charles L. Dodd.

LOCAL NOTES.

THE mass meeting at Rock Hall last Saturday evening was fairly well attended, the speakers being Messrs. Miles and Symington, of Baltimore, and Prof. J. Raymond Moody, of Chestertown. Mr. Moody made his first appearance on the stump and delivered a most excellent address.

THE tournament and supper at Galena was a financial success as well as a big social event. $400 was the net receipts.

WHITMANS'S candies at Stam's Drug Store.

THE 11th anniversary of the organization of Chester Camp, No. 8745, Modern Woodmen of America, will be celebrated at Firemen's Hall on Thursday evening, Nov. 16, 1911. Speakers of national reputation will be present.

CAPT. CHAS. JOHNSON picked up a gold watch on Bordley's corner Tuesday. The public was notified and the owner found. It belonged to Miss Valliant who rewarded the finder.

ANOTHER new home will be erected on Washington Avenue by Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp for Mrs. Harvey Culp, who will make her home here. The residence will be built on the lot adjoining the Culp home.

IT is reported Chestertown will have another baker. He has rented the store and house on High street now tenanted by Mr. Robert Smith.

THE hog cholera is playing havoc with fine pens of hogs about Tolchester.

AT THE regular meeting of the Mount Vernon Literary Society, held last Saturday night, the usual programme was displaced by a parliamentary debate. The president, Mr. Burris, appointed Mr. William F. Russell, Jr, leader of the Parliamentarians, and Mr. Andrew Pardew leader of the Congressmen. The leaders then divided the assembly. The subject, "Resolved, that strikes are beneficial to the laborers," was supported by the Parliamentarians and opposed by the Congressmen. After being freely discussed the question was put and decided negatively.

MISS MACLAREN will give one of her select entertainments in Firemen's Hall on December 6th, for benefit of the Chestertown Public Library.

THE Myers property at Hanesville is advertised for rent and not for sale.

THE Reading Club, champions of the Tri-State League have signed Frank Jarman, a promising young pitcher of Chestertown. Jarman was recommended to the Reading Club by Hanson Horsey, of the Cincinnati National League Club. Horsey thinks well of Jarman's ability as a pitcher and says he should make good.

THE sale of the steamer Columbia, owned by the late William J. Thompson, of Glouchester, N. J., has been confirmed by the United States District Court of New Jersey. The purchaser was Charles Wright, chief engineer of the Ericsson Line, who bid $8,500. Monday he towed the boat, the largest excursion steamer on the Delaware, to Cooper's Point, where it will be moored for the winter. The boat for the past ten years has run between Philadelphia and Augustine Pier. It will undergo repairs and probably will be taken to Baltimore and run between that place and Tolchester Beach.

MORTON, a colored resident of Quaker Neck, was driven crazy this week it is said because of a "fortune" told him by the gypsies. These people have been encamped in Kent for sometime and play great havoc to neighboring farms. They have 20 horses.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. J. S. Hindes, of near Worton, spent over Sunday with relatives south of town.

Sorry to report our well-beloved friend and good citizen, R. N. C. Ayres, as being quite ill the past week.

The election here passed off quietly and very little surprise is manifest as to results in Baltimore and counties.

Misses May Blount and Reba Coleman, of Wye Island, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagner, of Edesville.

Mrs. Louise Rhodenhiser, of Baltimore, is enjoying a two week's stay with her daughter. Mrs. G. Frank Akers, of this place.

Our farmers and truckers seem to have a bumper potato crop this fall. This is one staple of food in easy reach of the consumer the coming winter.

Mr. W. G. Hindes, who secured lucrative employment at Betterton during the summer, retarned to his home near Grey's Inn on Friday of last week.

Miss Mamie Shultz, of Baltimore, who spent the summer and early fall with her friend, Mrs. Annie M. Reynolds, on Main street, has returned to the city for the winter.

Max Alexander has added many improvements and enlargement of stock to his big department store that is proving attractive to the public, and "Mom" says "the boy is doing well, too."

It was a real pleasure to be in attendance at the M. E. Sunday School session last Sunday. Class exercises were of longer duration than for some time past and the review from the desk on the lesson of the day, "A Trial of Faith," was inspiring to a high degree.

Ho, for the entertainment to be given by the young ladies of the M. E. Society in Mechanic's Hall next Thursday evening. Any one failing to attend will miss one of the finest events of the season. A splendid program by home talent, which is unsurpassable in the county, will be rendered. A small admission fee will be charged.

Our bachelor merchant was a busy man on Saturday night, so much so that after supper being prepared twice he could get no release from counter work to partake thereof. Dave, his head salesman, was also hard pressed in the footwear line. The display of goods and prices are such as to cause many to stop in, look around and ponder. The result is a ready sale. If an advertisement, a la KENT NEWS, was a constant reminder, the rush would be even greater.

Mr. S. B. Colyer was in rather a close place on Wednesday evening, accused of entering and stealing from the pen of John Doe a pig. He was ably defended by Mr. Finkilstein, who succeeded in clearing him of the charge. Was he proud? You bet! This was the result of a mock trial by the Odd Fellows at their lodge meeting, and it was fun. The mock trial will be repeated next meeting. If Odd Fellows want to enjoy an evening of fun and laughter they will do well to be present.

Mr. Jesse Hevelow, of near Fredericktown, died Monday night of last week of tuberculosis. A widow and eight children survive him. The funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at his late home in charge of Rev. W. H. Kenney.
