SATURDAY, OCT. 29, 1898.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT

—The date of the meeting of the County Sunday School Association, which will assemble at East New Market, has been changed to Nov. 5th and 6th.

—Thousands of dollars in ladies' wraps, opening Oct. 29th, and continue 3 days. A souvenir given every purchaser. Cornwell, Bowdle & Co.

—Beckwith M. E. Church is now enjoying very interesting revival services. Large congregation are present. Rev. P. H. Rawlins, a popular orator, will preach on Sunday at 10.30 and 7 p. m. At Spedden's, at 2.30.

—All this Republican bluster about anti-bribery has gone up in thin air. Only three counties were represented by Republicans at Easton last Friday, and none of the promoters of the scheme were to be found. They did not want to take an oath that they had not spent any money. School Examiner Kerr represented Dorchester.

—State Entomologist Johnson has stopped two lots of fruit trees in Cambridge that were shipped from New York to T. J. Seward and B. F. Spedden, of the Neck, because there is no certificate of inspection annexed. Any agent or person delivering nursery stock, without the certificate that it is free from disease, is liable to a fine of $100.00.

One of the Police Commissioners of Baltimore City has been accused of taking a bribe of $1,500, which is another evidence that the Republicans believe they will soon be kicked out, but are determined to fill their pockets before going. First it was the tobacco warehouses. Then it was old Dr. Bryant. And now it is Heddinger. Up in Pennsylvania Quay and his ring have been arrested; in New York the canal steal is arousing the people. Really, it seems that the Republicans now in office are the biggest rascals the country has ever known.

In Washington the conduct of the war office was so flagrant that a commission has been appointed to try and find out who the rascals are. In more than half the country the people are raising the cry of "turn the rascals out," and the indications are that, despite all the boodle the Republicans can raise and all the fraud they can practice, they will have to go.

—Capt. Denwood Johnson, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Lakes district, died at his home there last week. He was a brother of the late Edward C. Johnson, and was a man of honor and probity. He was over 80 years of age, and his life had been one of toil on land and sea that brought out the nobler qualities of the man, and no one can say that he ever did them an injustice or refused to right a wrong. About a year ago he was in Cambridge, and in conversation with us expressed regret that personal, manly honor had so far retrograded that mortgages were demanded for even the smallest loans. In his early days, he stated, it was seldom that a mortgage was heard of, promisory notes being about all the security thought of, and these were allowed to run for years. Capt. W. E. Johnson, of E. N. Market, is a son of the deceased, and there are several other sons and daughters.

Two great industries which the Dingley tariff sought to make prosperous by taxing the people for their benefit have come to grief.

The tariff on wool and woolens is the highest ever known. And yet the woolen mills are in distress. Two of the largest of them have failed. Others are shut down. The N. Y. Wool Exchange failed and carried a bank down with it. And the price of domestic wool, which the gullible farmers thought would go up and stay up under the high tariff, has fallen two cents a pound, or ten per cent. since February.

The Dingley tariff put a duty on hides, and now the Leather Trust has closed a large number of tanneries, throwing 50,000 men out of work. It does this to force up prices.

In addition to this demoralization in industry and trade is the unconcealable fact that the Dingley law is such a failure as a producer of revenue that there would have been a big deficit even had there been no war expenses. The Republican leaders are agreed that the new internal war taxes must stay to provide the revenue which the deadly Dingley tariff for a deficit and bounties failed to yield.

The Superior Court of California has decided that Mrs. Botkin, who is charged with poisoning Mrs. Dunning, at Dover, Del., is not a fugitive from justice, and can not be brought to Delaware for trial. The Delaware authorities will take an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. It is hinted that the woman may be tried in California for committing murder in Delaware. This case will lead to making many new laws to meet such crimes.

DEM. CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

THE REPUBLICAN SPEAKING.

The Republican speakers who came to Cambridge on Tuesday met a most chilly reception. In the afternoon the local leaders tried to find the crowd, but even the brass band could not dissipate the frost, and the intended meeting was abandoned. It was a good deal like Frank Dean's and old Jack Wing's speaking up at East New Market, many years ago, when each inquired of the other "Where's the Crowd?"

At night a medium crowd assembled at the Rink, but our oldest campaigners never saw such a lack of enthusiasm. The speakers, Gaither, Schoat, and Wellington appeared at great disadvantage, their arguments were old and stale, and their efforts at entertaining the people, to say nothing of convincing them, fell cold and flat. Those who attended do not remember a time when the Republican party appears to such disadvantage on the issues of the day.

When one of the speakers referred to John Walter Smith as being a Democrat and asserted that he would go with his party on all important issues, the Democrats present gave such vigorous applause that he did not know where he "was at" for some moments.

Col. Jackson killed his goose at this meeting. He came in the Rink without exciting a single handclap, and, being afraid to go on the stage for fear he would be called upon to speak, hid himself among the benches. It was Jackson's meeting without Jackson being in it, and the people wondered what kind of a Congressman a man would make who can not utter a sentence before a moderate Cambridge audience. What would be the use of sending such a man to Congress, anyway? Last year the longest speech he made was "I will be with you on election day." Put him in Congress before the learned men of the nation, and he would only be a clam.

The Democrats who went to this meeting came away stronger and firmer in the faith; the silver Democrats were about convinced that it is folly to play into Jackson's hands; and the Republicans are very much discouraged.

Comptroller Goldsborough monopolized Wellington whilst he was here. He took him riding and kept him so closely under his wing that his friend, Barrett, who stood by him when the other fellows kicked him out, did not even get to shake hands with him.

The public can realize how the Republicans despaired, when they learn that they agreed to pay the band for the afternoon, though they tooted very little, indeed.

All of the speakers asserted boldly that general prosperity had arrived, as promised by the Republican party, and that almost everybody is making money and making it easy, but they said nothing about the price of wheat. Others said the Dingley tariff and the gold standard were backed by them all.

The Cambridge "Era." Col. Jackson's organ in this county, published the following statement from Mr. Jackson:—

"A factor that will help our side is that Mr. Willis, the free-silver candidate, will get a large vote, all of which will be taken from the Democratic side."

This is candid. It says in so many words that Mr. Willis was put in the contest by Mr. Jackson or his supporters to defeat Mr. Smith, the Democratic candidate, and to elect Mr. Jackson, the Republican candidate. All of us know that there is a large number of free silver Republicans in this Congressional district, but Mr. Jackson declares that "not one of these free silver men will vote for Mr. Willis," he is to get all his votes from the Democrats. Yet Mr. Willis's past record is not objectionable to the Republicans as it is to the Democrats. There are Mr. Willis, Col. Bill Stewart, and a few others, who declare they are for free silver, hard at work in the First Congressional District for what? To elect Mr. Jackson, for Mr. Jackson says he is a factor in his favor and and he knows what he is talking about, and Jackson is for gold, the gold standard alone. Mr. Willis and Col. Stewart know they are helping to elect Jackson just the same as if they voted for him direct. Jackson can be elected by a plurality as certainly as by a majority, and if they are at work helping to elect Jackson, who is helping them? What is to be their reward for betraying their party? They are travelling up and down the district hiring halls and bands, and living at the best hotels, all of which is very costly. Who is paying the bills? It is a very unpleasant, disagreeable thing to these men to break away from their political associates and they have got to be paid well for doing it. Who is paying this bill?

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hearn, of Cambridge, are visiting their son, Mr. J. Frank Hearn and family, Wingatesville.

Deputy Commander Joseph E. Insley, of the police boat Folly, Fishing Bay, arrested the following captains last week for violating the cull law:—Samuel J. RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

The killing of Capt. Leonard and his brother-in-law by a train near Easton Point can not fail to impress upon thoughtful persons the dangers presented wherever the railroad tracks cross the public highways. Easton and vicinity have been the scene of two or three fearful accidents but, fortunately, Dorchester has escaped any such heartrending affair as that of last week. And yet we are not certain that the public road crossings in this county are protected and guarded as they should be. There are two dozen of them, probably, and there is no sign placed to warn the traveller of danger, nor is such a precaution as a flagman known. Many persons who use our roads do not know where these crossings are, and at night would be as likely to drive into danger as out of it.

One of the strongest grounds upon which opposition to railroad and other corporations is is based is the seeming disregard they have for the lives and property of the people, especially the poorer people. In Baltimore City the electric and cable cars have killed nearly three hundres persons, and it is not unusual to hear of horrible deaths upon the great trunk lines whose trains go thundering through the land at the rate of a mile a minute. Yet railroads have become a public necessity, and the time will never come when obstructions will be placed in the way of their development, extension, and general usefulness, though it is entirely proper to propose and discuss means of lessening the dangers at present attending them.

The cars on the Cambridge & Seaford road have always been carefully handled and great rates of speed have not been attained. No better engineer than Buck Harris holds the throttle bar on any train, and only recently we heard his handling of his engine on the occasion of a slight accident at Hurlock greatly praised. Whilst any remarks we may make on this subject will have little or no effect upon railroad managers, yet the travelling public can not afford to pass crossings at any time without seeing that a train is not approaching. Knowledge of the schedule time of the road can not be relied upon, for they are constantly changing, trains are sometimes late, and often specials are run.

The jury of inquest exonerated the railroad officials of all blame in the killing of Capt. Leonard and Mr. Larrimore, as it was shown that whistles were blown and bells were rung. The gentlemen seem to have been engaged in earnest conversation, and evidently did not think of the train until they were very near the crossing. Seeing themselves in great danger of losing their lives, they both undoubtedly became very excited and frightened. From the evidence produced at the inquest, it appears as though Mr. Larrimore was trying to stop the horse before they got to the track, whereas Capt. Leonard was endeavoring to run the horse over the track before the train reached there. And this may be taken as the direct cause of the accident.

Conductor Perry, of the Cambridge & Seaford R. R., met with quite a serious accident at Seaford on Thursday. He was on the roof of a car when he slipped and fell to a open car, and thence to the ground. No bones were broken except, possibly, a rib or two, but it is feared that he received internal injuries. Mr. Perry was brought to town by the late train and is attended by Dr. Mace.

Wm. Robinson, of Louisville, Ky., who visited friends in Cambridge this week, is reported to be worth over a million dollars. He is a native of Dorchester, but had not been here before for twenty three years.

Jas. N. Sherman, Jr., and Miss Lilian Windsor were united in marriage at the M. E. Church South parsonage, Rev. Mr. Maxey officiating, on Wednesday evening.

Oyster packer Steele and wife, of Canada, visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Woolford, this week.

Col. John Walter Smith was in Cambridge all day Wednesday, and saw a great many persons with whom he made a most favorable impression. Col. Smith is booked to make speeches at so many places that he is afraid he will not have the pleasure of addressing our people, though he will do so if possible.

Wellington went back to Baltimore and reported that Willis will get 1500 Democratic votes, which will certainly elect Jackson. It is to be observed that nobody has yet claimed that Jackson will be elected on his own merits.

TOWN TALK.

Roland Webster, who is one of the best shots in this section, will accept our thanks for a nice, large rabbit.

Geo. A. Meekins, brother of W. W. Meekins, who has spent the last ten years in Texas and California, is on a visit to friends in town.

Murray Sullivane has accepted a position in Chattanooga and will leave in a few days to accept it. His many friends will be sorry to see him depart.

Capt. T. C. B. Howard, under orders from Washington, has reported for duty at the League Island Navy Yard, and will be sent on active duty either to the West Indies or the Philippines.

Howard Gould, who married Miss Clemmons at the risk of losing $5,000,000, visited Annapolis and Washington, this week, in his yacht Niagara, on which he is making his bridal trip.

P. Edgar Hubbard, nephew of Ex-County Commissioner Thomas R. Hubbard, who has spent nine years in Baltimore department stores, is in charge of one department of the Cash Grocery's establishment.

Mrs. E. T. Mace gave a most enjoyable progressive euchre party in honor of Miss Willis, at the Cambridge Hotel, last Saturday afternoon. Miss Willis and her father, Mr. C. O. Willis, left for their Vicksburg home on Sunday's steamer.

E. C. Harrington and James N. Sherman have purchased 150 feet of land, on Vue de Leau street, of Wm. H. Bryan, for $515.00 This closes out the entire Thomas lot upon which Mr. Bryan more than doubled the purchase money, which was about $3100.00.

At the meeting of the Town Council Thursday night, Capt. Ed. Dodson, East Cambridge, was appointed to the police force, and steps were taken to condemn the front of T. W. Simmons and J. Rush Brattan's property so as to widen Race Street beyond the Cross Roads.

A letter received from Rev. E. E. Blount, by a lady in Cambridge, states he is very much improved, and that he desires his friends to remember him and come to see him. Gifts of flowers and such kindnesses will be appreciated by him.

Mr. Daniel Johnson, West End Avenue, was paralyzed at an early hour Wednesday morning, and died that night. Deceased was a honorable christian gentleman, and was long a residental of Barren Island, whence he removed to Cambridge about a year ago.

Mr. H. E. Sherman, aged 47 years, and a brother of Jas. N. and Oscar Sherman, died at the residence of Capt. M. V. Wright, last Sunday morning. Mr. Sherman was well known in Cambridge where he was highly esteemed, and his sudden death was a surprise to his friends.

The Canton Oyster Exchange charges that the oyster cull law is not being enforced in Baltimore, but at Cambridge and in Fishing Bay it is over enforced. Better not try to enforce it at all if we are to have such discrimination. All oystermen should be treated alike.

Dr. Goldsborough took Edgar Hines to Baltimore on Wednesday evening, where he will be operated upon for abscess in the back, which, it is feared, has attacked one of the kidneys. It is thought that the abscess is owing to an injury received by young Hines last winter whilst Playing basket ball.

Messrs. W. J. Hopkins and W. Lake Robinson purchased the Webster-Barkley wharf property, at public sale, on Tuesday, for $7,550. They also secured a number of leasehold lots on Water street. The object talked of project of improving such property, along Water street, so as to make it one of the prettiest in town, will now, probably, be effected, and we would not be surprised to see another canning factory in town next season. Cambridge is on the jump and our enterprining business men will keep her going steadily upward and onward.

VIENNA LETTER.

Burglars entered the store of D. A. Gullett on Friday night, Oct. 21st, and took a lot of jewelry and a gun. A man was seen in the store about 11 p. m. with a dim light, but supposing it to be Mr. Gullett himself, no attention was paid to it. The supposition is that there were 2 men, as two strangers had been noticed in town during the day, and one had been in the store on the pretence of buying, but did not find what he wanted. The store was entered through a side window by cutting the slats of the blinds. After leaving the store, they made for the station, and escaped on a hand car belonging to the B.C. & A. R. R.

A canoe, with sails flying, was found beached just below town, and it is thought that the burglars who entered Gullett's store may have left it.

The hand-car has been found at Federalsburg, but the men had made good their escape.

The "old store" belonging to the Key's estate, has been bought by James Bennett and moved to the opposite side of the street. The residence is being moved where the store stood, leaving a space to straighten the road at that point.

Miss Annie LeCompte is home on a visit.

Mr. Jim Mills, wife and children are in Baltimore on a visit.

The Rev. Mr. Sanford, of the Baptist Church, of Vienna, is on a visit to Baltimore.

The Republican candidate, Wilbur F. Jackson, with a number of speakers, held a meeting at Derly Hall, Wednesday night, Oct. 26th. The rain poured in torrents, but many faithful ones gathered, Speeches were made by Kerr, Straughn, Waddell, and Scherm.

INSTANTANEOUS RELIEF FROM ASTHMA.

Has Been Afforded Many Sufferers in Cambridge.

If there was doubt in the mind of any sufferer from Asthma in this town as t the truth of the claims made for Dr. Schiffmann's Asthma Cure, that doubt no longer remains, providing he was among those who called at Dr. J D. Fore's drug store, last week and obtained a free sample package. A great number who have already tried the same declare in positive terms that relief was immediate; that the wretched spasms were checked; that free expectoration was induced; that a reclining position was readily assumed and gratefully maintained; that the sleep which followed was restful and unbroken, and that the morning brought a clear head and a feeling of delighted thankfulness which no words are too strong to describe.

Abundant voluntary testimonials prov that Dr. Schiffman's Asthma Cure not only gives instant relief in the worst cases, but has positively cured thousands who were considered cured. The remedy is now sold by all druggists in packages at 50c. and $1.00, thus bringing it within the reach of all. Should any reader be unable to obtain it of his druggist, it will be sent postpaid by sending to Dr. R. Schiffman, 316 Rosabel St., St. Paul, Minn.

BRYAN AND SEWALL CLUB.

Request Mr. Willis to Withdraw From the Contest—Promised Prosperity Not Come.

At a largely-attended meeting of the Salisbury Bryan and Sewall Club, held Monday night, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we reaffirm our allegiance to the cause of bimetallism.

Resolved, That while we believe that some of the persons who aided in the nomination of Mr. Willis and are supporting him as an independent Democratic candidate in the First District, have done so from unselfish motives, that we further belive his nomination was the result of a deal made by some of his supporters with the Republican candidate and his friends, with the view of detracting from the strength and disrupting the Democratic party in the First Congressional District of Md.

Resolved, That in view of the fact that many Republicans are urging Democrats to vote for Mr. Willis, while they are supporting and working and intending to vote for the Republican nominee, we believe that the candidacy of Mr. Willis was brought about by, and is in the interest of the Republican party.

And we hereby request Mr. Willis, if he is the Democrat and high minded gentleman he has been represented to us to be, to withdraw from the ticket and not to allow himself to be made a cat's paw of to draw Republican chestnuts out of the fire.

Resolved, That the prosperity promised by the election of Wm. McKinley as President two years ago has not struck our section, but since then there has been a shrinkage in the prices of our berries, melons and other agricultural products, so as to make their culture unprofitable; and has caused a reduction of 10 cents per day n the wages of the working men of this county.

Resolved, That in view of all the circumstances, we do sincerely condemn the candicy of Mr. Willis, and we caution every Democrat not to be deceived by voting for him.

A DIFFERENCE, YOU KNOW.

When Wellington and Clabaugh were talking about freeing the negro and the mule, which they put upon the same equality, we wonder if their colored listeners took in consideration the fact that Mr. Clabaugh, as Attorney General of Maryland, has instructed Lowndes's Secretary of State, Dallam, not to let the name of Dr. Cargill, or any of the other colored candidates for Congress, appear upon the ballot. Three hundred silver men are enough to get Mr. Willis's name on the ticket, because that will aid Jackson, but 450 signers are not enough to put Cargill or any other colored Republican on, because that would hurt the Republican party. And yet, Clabaugh and his lik come here and instruct the colored man how to vote and talk freedom to him! No wonder that little more than half a hundred colored men came to hear him. The colored brother is all right as long as he wades in for the Republican ticket, but when he attempts to do something for himself, the Republican office holders, big and little, sit upon him.

FOR THE FARMER.

Those who buy cows do so at much risk, for the reason that it is impossible to know the disposition of a cow until she is brought on the farm and tested. A cow that kicks, or which "holds up" her milk, is a nuisance, although she may excel in some other characteristics. If one is compelled to purchase a cow let it be done from some person who is known to be reliable, but never buy from a stranger or at an auction unless with a guarantee for all the claims made in her behalf.

This is the season of the year for purchasing breeding stock, as the prices will be cheaper than in the spring, owing to the fact that the breeders do not wish to carry over the winter more animals than they can profitably shelter and manage. Every pure-bred animal brought on the farm displaces a scrub and increases the profit, the cost at this season being but little compared with spring and summer for sheep, swine and poultry.

A breeder of sheep who has lost some of his animals from the dogs of his neighbors believes that instead of putting bells on sheep every dog should have a bell or be destroyed. It is an idea worthy of consideration by those interested in protecting sheep from dogs.

It is sometimes more profitable to use a thousand pounds of fertilizer per acre than a smaller quantity, but where such large amounts are used over a field of ten or twenty acres the cash outlay is considerable. The majority of farmers who use fertilizers every year apply about 200 pounds per acre, but never omit to use it during any season.

Winter should be regarded as the season when the preliminary preparations are made, and it can be converted into as busy a period as spring if all the duties necessary to success are fully performed. There is not a month in the year when a farmer should be idle. It is not an easy task to overhaul the implements and machinery and repair buildings and fences. Something can be done every day and busy farmers sometimes find the winter too short a time in which to do all the work which should be accomplished before the ground is ready for crops. Labor not applied in the winter is equivalent to capital uninvested, and it is a well known rule that all products sold from the farm represent labor on those farms, labor really being sold, and the farmer cannot afford to waste it at any season of the year.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a house hold necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by J. E. Henry, East New Market, and A. E. Straightforward Merchandizing

The onward march of apparently progressive merchants, seems to tend rather to exaggeration than to consistent truth in their announcements. We are not in sympathy with such methods, and as the recognized leaders in fashions, styles quality and reasonable price, we feel that our reputation, not of yesterday, but of years, must count.

So in the following we will strive to illustrate this point.

IN MEN'S CLOTHING

We have suits in Black and Blue Cheviot and Fancy Cheviot and Mixtures that are lined with satin yoke and worsted body; they're made with skill; the cut is right to date in style; the sewing, inside and out, is as it should be; and, altogether these suits are worth every cent of $10. But if they were worth fifteen or twenty we'd not hesitate to sell them for that. However, we court comparison with any other $10 Suit, and cheerfully abide by your decision.

IN MEN'S SHIRTS

The reputation of getting a worthy shirt under a dollar is what we have accomplished in our Full Dress Shirt at 79c. When we say that these shirts are hand-laundered and finished, have nine inch bosom of splendid linen, and that they're open back and front, we mean just that. Fact is that the usual $1.25 Shirt is but a fair comparison with these of ours at 79c.

IN MEN'S HATS

Some people prefer to spend five dollars for a Hat. The extra two dollars is for the maker's name. What's left—$3—is the real Hat value.

If "Oehm" is a good enough name for you, you'll get a Hat as good as the best here for $3. If you're careless and apt to need a new Hat often, our $2 Hat is well worth the price.

When you're in Baltimore, make Oehm' Acme Hall your headquarters. Ladies' waiting, retiring and writing rooms; Men's smoking and waiting rooms free, no matter whether you're a customer or not; meet your friends at Oehm's.
