SATURDAY, - - AUGUST 12, 1905

QUEEN ANNE'S Democrats state that they will elect their ticket by at least 1,000 majority. They ought to get 1500 if the Republicans do not nominate,

THE Patriotic Order Sons of America which met in Westminster this week decided by vote of 60 to 49 to meet next year at Rock Hall. Kent county will do her best and Rock Hall will do more to entertain this distinguished order.

NEW ORLEANS is in the throes of a yellow fever scourge. A total of 627 cases with 115 deaths were reported this week. Archbishop Chapelle was among the victims and died Wednesday.

HON. SPENCER C. JONES, of Montgomery, was defeated for Senatorship in the Democratic primaries Saturday, by Hon. Blair Lee. Mr. Lee has declared in favor of the Amendment and for the Haman bill. He is an able lawyer a courteous gentleman and an unflinching Democratic.

THE Republicans of Kent County will hold their primaries Saturday, September 2nd and will meet in convention the following Tuesday. The prevailing sentiment is for the nomination of a ticket although the leaders have no hope nor expectation of electing same. A Republican ticket means a hundred or more votes for the Constitutional Amendment.

IN another column is noted the death of Rev. C. K. Morris, a well-known resident of Kent county and a faithful soldier of the cross. Mr. Morris loved his work and during his 38 years ministry received the paltry average salary of $190. He received only $7 one year, the highest being $400.

KENT COUNTY is to be congratulated upon the efficiency of the clerk to the county commissioners, Mr. Charles L. Dodd. Albert L. Richardson, associate investigator of public records commission of Maryland, writes thus to the clerk: "I congratulate you upon the manner in which you keep the record books. I have never examined a set of county commissioners books that exemplify more fully than yours the essentials of neatness, legibleness and painstaking carefulness."

Good Prices.—Notwithstanding the rain of Wednesday auctioneer Hurlock held the crowd at Raymond Voshell's and realized good prices for stock and implements. Colts brought $50 and $55; 3 year old colt, $70; cows from $25 to $37.50.

The Dempsey sale Thursday drew a big crowd and good prices were realized.
