WM. C. RIDGAWAY,

A Fortune to be made.

NOW IS YOUR TIME.

The subscriber having determined to relinquish business, offers to rent for the ensuing year, that elegant establishment, for a long time occupied by him as a Tavern. The establishment is and has been uniformly the Steam-Boat-way-house. It commands a large share of the local business; its situation is central and pleasant, and the houses are in good repair. To a good tenant the terms will be moderate, and he will sell all the furniture, horses, gigs and carriages, together with the fixtures of the bar, and every article necessary to commence business immediately. To those who are acquainted with the stand, it is unnecessary to say any thing in its favor; but the subscriber will add, that the tavern now offered for rent is situated in the most central part of the town of Cambridge—has had for many years an extensive run of business, and been considered the Steam Boat Hotel. The regular Stages arrive at and depart from his house, and he can safely insure to any person calculated for the business, not only a handsome support, but in the course of a short time, a snug fortune.

WM. C. RIDGAWAY.

N. B. Attached to the above establishment is an elegant BILLIARD ROOM, supplied with a first rate table—The board of the gentleman by whom it is rented, is equivalent to a large portion of the rent.
