NEW GOODS.

THE subscriber has just returned from Philadelphia and Baltimore with a fresh supply of NEW GOODS, adapted to the present and approaching season, which he will sell at a small advance for cash, or such articles in exchange as may suit—and invites his friends to call and examine for themselves.

He returns his grateful acknowledgements to his friends and customers generally, for past favours, and especially to that portion of them who have been good enough to furnish him with the one thing needful—to them accommodation will be extended cheerfully—But to that portion of his customers, who have neglected the needful supply, no further accommodation can or will be extended—He is compelled to this determination from a conviction, that in most cases, a want of means has not been the reason for non-payment—and that calculations are made on his disposition to indulge. However grateful he may be for past favours, he cannot release him from the obligation he owes to maintain his family.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the late firm of Edward White and Son, will please take notice that the subscriber will not have it in his power to give any indulgence, as it is absolutely necessary to have the Partnership business brought to an early close. The subscriber flatters himself that all persons concerned will make their arrangements accordingly.

THOMAS WHITE,

CHEAP GOODS:

THE subscriber will continue the business at the old stand of Edward White & Son. He expects to replenish his stock in a short time and will sell at reduced prices for cash; his capital being now limited, it will be out of his power to give a general credit. He takes this opportunity of tendering his sincere thanks to many of the customers to the late firm for the decided preference heretofore given to the former establishment, and respectfully requests a continuance of their favours, as nothing on his part will be omitted to give general satisfaction.

SOLOMON DEVENNISH, TAILOR.

Respectfully informs the public that he continues the TAILORING BUSINESS, at the shop next door above the Post Office, in the town of Cambridge. The long experience he has had in cutting, warrants him in assuring those who may favor him with their orders, that he will furnish them with workmanship equal to any in the city of Baltimore or elsewhere, and he trusts that his punctuality and moderate charges will merit for him a share of public patronage.

He has made arrangements with a gentleman in Baltimore to be regularly supplied with any change of fashions.

Farmers' Hotel,

Lately occupied by Wm. C. Ridgaway.

SAMUEL LUCAS

Having removed from Denton, and taken the above stand in the town of Cambridge, is now ready to receive and entertain travellers and others who may favor him with their custom. From his knowledge of the business and desire to please, he flatters himself that visitors to the Hotel will have no cause of regret.

The house is in a pleasant and public part of the town, and presents inducements and advantages to those who are in pursuit of pleasure or business, not surpassed by any public house in the town.

The STABLES and CARRIAGE house attached to the establishment, are extensive, commodious, and secure—and under the direction of competent superintendents.

The BAR at all times will be furnished with the choicest liquors, selected with great care.

BOARDERS
