The bill to elect the Senate immediately by the people was read a second time on Monday last.

Mr. Eccleston moved to amend the bill so as to require 10, instead of 5 years residence to entitle a foreigner to serve as a senator. Determined in the negative.

Mr. Worthington moved to amend by inserting 21 instead of 25 years of age, to qualify a person to serve—negatived.

Mr. Montgomery moved to strike out 5, and insert 2 years residence in the state to qualify—negatived.

Mr. Eccleston moved to strike out the following section—

"And be it enacted, That in case any new county should hereafter be made in the state, that the representation of the western shore in the senate shall not be in a greater proportion to the representation of the eastern shore in the senate than nine to six, as it now is by the constitution of the state?" Determined in the negative.

Mr. Speed moved to reconsider the first section of the bill for the purpose of givnig the city of Annapolis a senator distinctly from the county of Anne Arundel. Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass, and decided in the affirmative.

A resolution has passed the House of Delegates for instructing our representatives in congress, to use their exertions to have the route examined from Washington city through Frederick-town and Harper's Ferry to Winchester, Va. with a view of its location as the best route for the national road from Washington to New Orleans.

The bill reported by Mr. Speed for the relief of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, proposing to authorise the state to employ council to defend a suit brought against him by the representative of Lord Baltimore for quit rents, was rejected in the House of Delegates on Monday last.

A petition for a law authorising a bridge over Sweetser's Ferry, was read and referred on Tuesday.

The bill for restraining the practice of habitual drunkenness, has passed the senate.

Congress.—The senate have been employed for some time upon the bill reported by Mr. Webster, and passed the House of Representatives, for punishing certain offences against the U. States.—A bill amending the judiciary system, by providing new circuit courts, for the new Western states, has likewise occupied considerable time. A number of the members insist upon referring the bill to the next session, under an apprehension that the senate will not have sufficient time to examine its important provisions. Two or three close divisions have been had, on the last of which the votes were 23 to 23 on its postponement. They continue deliberating upon it.

The House of Representatives, after considerable debate, have once more rejected the Georgia Militia claims, for 1791-2 and 3. These claims have been before Congress nearly thirty years—defeat seems not to dishearten them.—They are rejected upon the ground, 1st that the services performed were not for defence, but for offensive operations of the state against the Indians—and 2d, that upwards of one million of dollars were allowed the state of Georgia, in the celebrated Yazoo treaty, towards paying off claims, which she had urged against the United States.

The Massachusetts Militia claims, for services performed last war, are laid over. There seems no disposition to determine that subject this session.

Patents.—The Boston Medical Intelligencer, in noticing Williams' patent lancet, has the following humorous hit at the patent character of our countrymen:

Patent trusses, patent teeth, instruments, patent pills, and patent lancets, are in our opinion all a piece;—and when medical men countenance aud even patronize such useless efforts of human ingenuity, they encourage artizans, who might be better employed, to labor entirely in vain. What is there in this country that does not go by patent? We were lately acquainted with a gentleman who wore a patent hat, bought patent boots with cork soles, and daily besmeared his toes with Conway's patent corn plaster; not satisfied with this, he crawled into a patent doe-skin shirt, and kept up his small clothes with patent suspenders; kept his chopped hands warm by patent spring back gloves, and finally falling sick of a fever, took forty dollars worth of patent physic from a patent doctor, and after languishing a while on one of Jenckes' patent elevating bedsteads, he died; as all patent things generally do—prematurely—was placed in a patent cedar wood coffin, borne on a patent swing hearse, to a patent air tight tomb, where he now lies—a striking emblem of the numerous inventions which claim the protection of our American patent laws.

DESHA.—It is stated in the Kentucky Reporter of the 31st ult. that the trial of Desha, the son of the Governor, for the murder of Francis Baker has closed, and that the Jury has brought a verdict of GUILTY. A full report of the trial is to be published by James G. Dana and James Cowan, esqrs.

Shocking Catastrophe.—Miss Roxana Sisson, aged, 19 years, was on a visit last week, at the house of her brother, in Westerly, R. I. On Saturday night, after the family had retired to rest, her clothes took fire; the flames which raged with such violence that in a few minutes her clothes were entirely burnt off. Miss S. was burnt to a blister, from head to foot; she lingered in the most excruciating agony till Monday evening when she expired.

COURT OF DEATH.

"This is the desert, this the solitude!
How populous, how vital is the grave!
This is creation's melancholy vault,
The vale funereal, the sad cypress gloom!
The land of apparitions, empty shade!"

DIED, at Bucktown, on Wednesday last, Mr. Joseph Lecompte.

In Talbot county, Mrs. Mary Furguson, consort of Mr. William Ferguson.

In the city of Annapolis, on Thursday week, Mrs. Elizabeth Lloyd, one of the oldest and most respectable inhabitants of that plrce; one of the most amiable and excellent of women.—Her remains were brought over and deposited in the family burial ground at Wye House, on Saturday last.

Another Swindler Caught:

A man who calls himself Abraham Duvall, came to my house about ten days ago, stating that he was a chemist and offered to sell a cement answering the purpose of glue. After remaining with me 7 or 8 days and running up a bill to the amount of 20 or 30 dollars, he run off and I followed him. He was caught in the lower part of this county, trying to get across the Bay. Strange suspicions are entertained that he has fled from justice for some offence. He is about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, prominent features, talks very fast, says he is from New York, drest genteely, with a blue frock coat, light corded pantaloons. His friends, if he has any, can see him on application to the jailor of this county.
