—GRAND—

Democratic Mass-Meeting

IN CHESTERTOWN

On WEDNESDAY, October 25th

AT 2.30 AND 7.30 P. M.

Prominent Speakers of National and State reputation will address the meeting.

A Full Band of Music will be in attendance.

Everybody invited to attend and hear the issues of the campain discussed.

The Constitutional Amendment will be fully and clearly explained and every voter in Kent county should avail himself of this opportunity, in order that he may cast a ba lot intelligently upon this important change in the Constitution of the State of Maryland.

LEWIN W. WICKES,
JAMES W. IVENS,
JOHN C. REDMILE,
State Central Committee of Kent County.

The Power of Registrars.

Among the statements concerning the amendments in the last issue of the Kent County Republican organ is the following:

"There is no appeal to a court should the Poe Amendment become a part of the Constitution. The elective judge is the sole one to pass upon a man's qualifications."

Our Cotemporary has certainly not taken the trouble to look into this feature of the Amendment else the above statement would not have been made.

The right of appeal has been a provision of every registration law enacted in this State, except the Republican law of 1895, and will continue to be. No political party would strike it out, or omit it in any new law that might be enacted. No fair man would desire its repeal or ommission.

The allegation that under the proposed franchise amendment too much power would be lodged with registrars of voters, is baseless. Registrars of voters are now judges of qualifications of voters.

Before registration was required as a prerequisite to possessing the right to vote, the privilege of voting was decided by the judges of election on election day, and usually with excited minds in the midst of partisan zeal. The person whose right to vote was challenged was subjected to considerable trouble to prove his age, or his residence in the election district, or time of domicile in the State, county or district. Many men will recollect that where a man had his clothes washed was a determining factor in fixing place of residence. Hot disputes arose and occasionally personal encounters resulted over the question of a man's right to vote. Under that system of voting men were sometimes unjustly deprived of their votes and sometimes persons not entitled to cast a ballot were allowed to do so. And there was much injustice and fraud resulting when there was a property qualification for voters. The same purse or the same horse served to qualify a number of voters.

To avoid contention at the polls, with consequent delay in voting, and avoid having a man's right to vote decided amid partisan excitement, a law requiring voters to be registered was enacted. A man's qualifications to vote were determined by a single registrar of voters, and a partisan of the party in power. Still, the days of registration were several weeks prior to the excitement of election day, in times of calmer judgement. This was a vast improvement upon the former system. We now have bipartisan boards of registry, and election precincts are so subdivided that voters are generally known to the registration officers. The bipartisan system gives each of the great political parties a representative, and there is little opportunity for unfairness, even if registrars were disposed to be unfair.

The power of the judges of election to determine one's right to vote, before a registration law was enacted, was absolute and final. There was no appeal.

Under the present registration and election law there are two registrars of opposite political affiliation, and the right of appeal is preserved.

Should the amendment be passed there will be an entire new registration next year. In order to be registered white men will have to show they are twenty-one years of age, have lived in the State one year and in a county or legislative district of Baltimore City six months. If a man voted in Maryland or in any other State in 1869, or prior, he will have to swear to that fact in addition to answering question as to age and residence. If a man is a son or a grandson of a voter in 1869, or prior, he can be registered by swearing to the fact, in addition to possessing the Constitutional requirements of age and residence.

The colored man will be required to read a section of the Constitution of Maryland and give a reasonable explanation of its meaning, or give such an explanation when read to him.

THE Amendment, if adopted, will allow every white man to vote!

PHILADELPHIA will likely throw out the Gang this year. The people are aroused as never before.

THIS whole community regret the affliction of Judge Wm. R. Martin. He is highly respected and beloved by everyone and it is hoped that he will soon be able to resume his place on the bench.

THERE are some men who will promise great things to obtain an object but after its conquest care nothing for their promise nor for what becomes of the people who helped him to win the prize. The white people of Kent, Somerset, Talbot and other counties are calling for help in this hour of need and men who owe them assistance spit in their faces and kick them down. Base ingratitude is a mild term to use.

THERE is not a flaw in the Democratic ticket and it is one to which any man can point with pride. Get the names well noted in your mind, viz,

Comptroller:
GORDON T. ATKINSON

Legislature:
ISAAC GIBBS,
CURTIS E. CRANE,

Treasurer:
WILLIAM E. KEYSER,

Sheriff:
ANDREW MEDDERS.

County Commissioners:
JOHN E. MORRIS,
WILLIAM WAGNER.

Surveyor:
GILBERT B. TAYLOR.

The men who compose it are all well known residents of the county, and are well qualified for the duties of the respective offices to which they aspire. Taken man by man, our friends the Republicans are forced to admit that absolutely no fault can be found with them. They are honest, they are capable, and they are energetic. Their election means that the affairs of the county will be managed with fidelity and ability, and that Kent County will be represented in the Legislature by men who know the needs of our people and have the ability to secure for them much legislation that will be beneficial.
